of the Commissioners appointed by the decree entered the 23rd day of December, 1906, in the cause of Rebecca Carr and others against Willie E. Carr and others, depending in the Circuit Court of Isle of Wight County, this day appeared in person before the undersigned J. A. Johnson, a Justice of Peace for the County aforesaid, in the State of Virginia, and made oath that they would truly, fairly and impartially assign the dower of the said Rebecca Carr in the lands of which James A. Carr died, seized, and possessed, and to divide the remainder of the said land subject to the said widow's dower among the parties entitled thereto, or direct a sale of the whole as the case may be, to the best of their ability, and make report thereof according to law.

To the Honorable R. E. Boykin, Judge of the Circuit

Rebecca Carr and others,.....Complainants, Against, In Chancery,
Willie E. Carr and others,.....Defendants,

Your undersigned Commissioners

J. M. Ballard
S. A. Barrett and J. A. Vaughan appointed by the decree entered the 3rd day of December, 1906 in said Court to lay off the dower of the said Rebecca Carr, in the land of which James A. Carr died, seized, and possessed, and then to lay off and divide the remainder subject to the widow's dower into eleven equal parts, or if they should find division impracticable then to report same to court, submit the following report: After first being duly sworn, your undersigned Commissioners laid off the dower of Rebecca Carr in said land which is described and bounded as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a sweet gum in the branch on the west side of the County Road, thence running east to a walnut tree, thence continuing in a straight line across the County Road by a cherry tree and to a stob, thence south from said stob by a persimmon tree in the field on to a bay tree in the branch, thence around the old line of the James A. Carr tract of land to the point of the beginning.

Your undersigned Commissioners further report that it would be impracticable to divide the remainder of the land of which James A. Carr died, seized, and possessed, among the parties entitled thereto, and your commissioners are of the opinion that the interests of the said parties would be promoted by a sale of the same subject to the widow's dower.

Your undersigned Commissioners give as their reason as follows: First, that the parties entitled to said land cannot agree among themselves on a price; Second, to divide it into eleven parts would practically destroy the value of the farm.

Your undersigned Commissioners further report that they believe the fee simple value of the said real estate of which James A. Carr died, seized, and possessed, is ^{Two thousand} ~~Fifteen Hundred~~ ($^{2,000}~~1,500~~.00) Dollars.

This cause which has regularly matured at Rules, came on this day to be heard on the complainants' bill, the answer of the infant respondents, Willie E. Carr, Tiny Carr, Richard Carr, Henry Carr, Jimmie Carr, Annie Carr, and Ruth Carr, by E. H. Williams, their guardian ad litem, to said bill, and replication thereto, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof the court doth adjudge, order and decree that James A. Johnson, John W. Ballard, S. A. Barrett, Dr. C. J. Bradshaw and James A. Vaughan, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for the purpose, any three or more of whom may act, having been first duly sworn, do proceed to lay off the dower of the said Rebecca Carr and then to lay off and divide the remainder of the estate, of which James A. Carr died, seized and possessed, in the bill mentioned, into eleven equal parts, having regard to quality and quantity, and assign one of said eleven parts to each of the heirs of the said James A. Carr, deceased, namely, to R. H. Carr one-eleventh part; to Matthew B. Carr, Jesse T. Carr, James A. Carr, Mills Carr, Alfred Carr, Johnnie Carr, Tiny Carr, Richard Carr and Henry Carr, children of Beattie Carr and James A. Carr, both deceased, one-eleventh part; to Mattie English one-eleventh part; to Wortley Carr the widow of Mills F. Carr, deceased, and Jimmie Carr, Annie Carr and Ruth Carr, her children, one-eleventh part; to Rebecca J. Heffington one-eleventh part; to Jesse Carr one-eleventh part; to S. T. Carr one-eleventh part; to Nannie H. Bly one-eleventh part; to Ellen Bradshaw one-eleventh part; and to Willie E. Carr one-eleventh part; to Joseph A. Carr died seized and possessed; and in either case they are required to report their proceedings under this order to the court.

By the consent of the plaintiffs by counsel, and by the infant respondents by their guardian ad litem, E. H. Williams, it is ordered that this case be submitted to the Judge of this court for such decisions and decrees therein in vacation as might be made in term. ~~All of which is certified to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Isle of Wight County.~~
