VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF ISLE OF WIGHT.

Peyton R. Turner,

v) Chancery. _____ Bill of complaint.

Ruth Pope Turner.

To the Honorable B. D. White, Judge of the Circuit Court of the County of Isle of Wight, in the State of Virginia.

Your complainant, Peyton R. Turner, shows to the court the following case, and prays for such relief therein as equity and good conscience may provide:

1. That on the 12th day of March, 1908, your complainant and the defendant were married at Nelocus, Virginia by the _____.

2. That they lived together, as man and wife, until the _____ day of _____, 1915, in the town of Windsor, in the County of Isle of Wight, in the State of Virginia.

3. That on or about the _____ day of _____, 1915, the said Ruth Pope Turner wilfully deserted and abandoned your complainant, and has notcohabited with him since that time, which is more than three years prior to the bringing of this suit.

4. That your complainant is and has been a resident of the State of Virginia for more than one year preceeding the bringing of this suit, in fact has been a resident of the State of Virginia from the time of the desertion alleged herein.

5. That the complainant and defendant in this suit last cohabited in the County of Isle of Wight, in the State of Virginia.

For as much as your complainant is without remedy, save in a court of equity where matters of this kind are along and properly conglizable, he prays that the said Ruth Pope Turner may be made a party defendant to this bill, and required to answer the same, though not under oath, answer under oath being hereby expressly waived; that proper process issue; and that such other, further and general relief may be granted in the premises as the nature of the case may require, or which to equity and good conscience may seem meet. And your complainant will ever pray, etc.

Peyton R. Turner
Complainant.
