Annie Bowden, Plaintiff
vs. In Chancery
Peter Bowden, Defendant.

----oOo----

TO THE HONORABLE E. D. WHITE, JUDGE OF THE SAID COURT:

Your complainant, Annie Bowden, respectfully represents that in the month of November, in the year 1914, in the County of Isle of Wight, Virginia, she was married to the said defendant, as will appear by a copy of the marriage license herewith filed marked "Exhibit A" and made a part of this bill; and,

That your complainant was a constant, dutiful, faithful wife to the said defendant; and,

That the said defendant lived with your said complainant in the County of Isle of Wight from the date of said marriage until the last week in August, 1918, except (a few weeks) when your said complainant and the said defendant were working in the City of Newport News; and then willfully deserted and abandoned your complainant and such desertion and abandonment has continued for a period of more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, that is to say, that the said defendant,in the last week in August, in the year 1918, without any justification deserted and abandoned your complainant and has never returned, such desertion and abandonment has continued from that time until now; and,

That your complainant has resided in the County of Isle of Wight all of her life but did work in the City of Newport News for a few weeks but with no intention of changing her residence and that she last cohabited with the said defendant in the said County.

In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your complainant is remediless, save in a Court of equity, she prays that the said Peter Bowden may be made a party defendant to this bill and be required to answer the same; that proper process may be issued; that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed to your said complainant, and that your complainant may have all such further and other general relief as the nature of her case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

And your complainant will ever pray.

Annie Bowden
