Sol. I. Daughtry

To the Hon. Richard N. Baker, Judge of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County.

Complaining, shew unto the Court your Complainant Samuel R. Darrell, who sues for the benefit, and at the costs, of Henry A. Morgan.

Your Complainant, respectfully represents to the Court and says, That Solomon P. Daughtry and John B. Jenkins, are indebted to him as follows: in $150. with Interest from the 1st day of January 1858; in $150, with Interest from the 1st day of January 1859, & in $137:50, with Interest from the 1st day of January 1860, due by three several Bonds executed by the said Solomon P. Daughtry and John B. Jenkins, copies of which are filed herewith marked N. B. C. — the original, being now file in suit at Law in the Circuit Court of the County of Southampton, against said parties.

Your Complainant says, that the several amounts above named, are now due and are just, and that present cause of action exists therefor, and that Solomon P. Daughtry, one of the Defendants hereto is a non resident of the State of Virginia, and has estate in Nansemond County, Virginia, when this cause is pending, to wit: One undivided one seventh of a tract of land in Nansemond County containing acres, more or less, and adjoining the lands of Edward R. Hunter's estate and others, and formerly belonging to his father Allen Daughtry dec'd. & in which Mrs. Nancy Daughtry widow of said Allen Daughtry dec'd, now has right of Dower.

Your Complainant Charges that the right and interest of the said Solomon P. Daughtry in the Land aforesaid is liable to the payment of your Complainants demands, and he prays that the same may be sold for that purpose

In consideration whereof, and as this Court has Jurisdiction to grant all proper relief - To the end your Complainant prays That the said Solomon P. Daughtry and John B. Jenkins, may be made defendants hereto, and be required to answer the allegations herein, That the interest of said Solomon P. Daughtry in the real estate aforesaid may be sold to pay your Complainants demands - and that to that end the same be attached & sold for that purpose, and that all further relief may be granted consistent with Equity &c
