April Term, 1877, to which report no exception is made and was argued by Counsel: On consideration whereof the parties still failing to appear and plead or demur, and the plaintiffs having proceeded in the manner prescribed by law against non-resident defendants, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree, that the Sheriff of Nausemound County, do rent out, at Public Auction year, the land in the Bill, and proceedings mentioned, taking from the renter, bond with sufficient security for Court 1877 requiring me to rent out a parcel of land described in the case of Jones & Jones vs Wiggins would respectfully report to this Court as follows: After due notice I have twice offered the said land for rent at public auction, selecting in both instances, Court days when a large crowd of persons were present and offering it before the Court house door with full explanations. In neither instance did I receive a single bid: not a single offer. There are no buildings on the land and the land is rapidly decreasing in value. The taxes are also accumulating. I think without doubt that all parties interested would be greatly benefited by a sale of the land as I am positively sure that it can never be made to rent for enough to pay annual expenses and then to pay the debt-
