Dear Sir,

Owing to the inclement weather I did not attend Church as anticipated, therefore I did not obtain the information in regard to the Forsyth Note, but will endeavor to find out at the earliest period, and write you immediately. Mr. Silby please look over that list of Debits and Credit my account with 15-dollars that I paid out for pulling fodder, I think as I purchased the fodder, at the sale, I considered it would be just for my acct to be credited with the amount, I had much rather give you a bill as my horse hold & kitchen furniture including the Chattel property, than to have my interest in Land, you may think that would not be sufficient but I am very confident that my household & Kitchen furniture, including my Chattel property together with my Chamber furniture in Paris, would sell for more than enough to pay you, should it be my fate to die before the matter should be settled,

Very Respectfully,

May L Harrington,

Monday Morning

Sept 18th 1871

Mr. Kilby,

I can assign an instrument operating that would affect my things, I am perfectly willing to give a lien on the property that has already been done, which I think will be sufficient security. M. L. Harrington

In the Circuit Court of Hancock County, The Undersigned reports to the Court, that by the decree of this Court made at the October Term 1873 thereof, he was directed to receive of the Clerk of said Court the Bond of E. J. Williamson & W. A. Norton for $222. due 8th Jan'y 1874. & collect the same & deposit the amount in the Commercial Bank of Suffolk —

That he has not complied with said Decree except to receive the Bond of the Clerk, for the reason that the said E. J. Williamson died before your Commissioners could collect the same & his administrator has not as yet been able to pay the same. The Bond is perfectly good & as the last bond of $222. due by said Williamson will be due this year, your Com^{rs} suggests that the Court direct a collection of Both, & distribute all at once.
