And the Court doth further order and decree that the said Charles H. Riddick, Adm^r. of Joseph C. Meador deceased, render before one of the Commissioners of this Court, a further account of his transactions, as adm^r. of said deceased, who will state and settle the same, and make report to Court with any matters specially stated, deemed pertinent by himself, or that any one of the parties may require to be so stated. But no sale is to be made under this Decree, till the said John R. Kelly shall have executed before the Clerk of this Court, in his Office, a bond, payable to the Commonwealth of Virginia, and in the penalty of $500, conditioned faithfully to execute this Decree, and any other Decree, he may be required in this Cause to execute.

To the Honorable George Blom, Judge of The Circuit Court of Hanover County, State of Virginia:

Humbly complaining shew unto your Honor your complainants, Moses Wiesenfeld and Joseph Friedewald, merchants and partners in trade, doing business under the firm name and style of Wiesenfeld & Company, creditors of Joseph C. Meador, late of Hanover County, State of Virginia, deceased, on behalf of themselves and all other creditors of the said Joseph C. Meador, deceased, who shall come in and seek relief by and contribute to the expense of this suit, that the said Joseph C. Meador deceased at the time of his death was justly and truly indebted unto your complainants in the sum of three hundred and twenty five dollars and three cents, as will appear by a prom-issory note for that amount, dated the 9th. day of October, A. D. 1872, payable four months after the date thereof, and filed herewith, marked "A."

And your complainants further shew unto your Honor that the said Joseph C. Meador, deceased, in his lifetime and at the time of his death, was possessed of, or was well entitled to, a considerable personal estate, and that, being so entitled, he departed this life on or about the 30th, day of January A. D. 1873, intestate.

And your Complainants further shew unto your Honor that on the 12th, day of February A. D. 1873, one Charles H. Riddick duly qualified as the Administrator of the estate of the said Joseph C. Meador, deceased, as will appear by an order of The County Court of Hansberrand County in which he qualified as said administrator, filed herewith and marked "B."

And your Complainants further shew unto your Honor, that, having qualified as said administrator, the said Charles H. Riddick possessed himself of, and undertook the administration of, the personal estate and effects of the said intestate to a very considerable amount and more than sufficient to satisfy said intestate's just debts and funeral expenses.

And your Complainants further shew unto your Honor that they have made and caused to be made several applications to the said administrator and have requested him to pay and satisfy your complainants' demand, with which just and reasonable requests, your complainants well hoped that the said administrator would have complied, as in justice and equity he ought to have done. But, as your complainants further shew, the said administrator, contriving how to wrong and injure your complainants in the premises, absolutely refuses to comply with such requests and at times pretends that the said intestate's personal estate is small and inconsiderable and is not sufficient to pay said intestate's funeral expenses and just debts. Nevertheless, your complainants charge that the said intestate's personal estate and effects are more than sufficient to discharge all his just debts and funeral expenses and that it would so appear by said administrator's account.

In consideration whereof, your complainants, being without remedy save in a Court of Equity, pray that the said Charles H. Riddick, administrator of the estate of Joseph C. Meador deceased, may be made a party, defendant, to this Bill, and be required to answer on oath: all the allegations contained in the same; That he may be required to render an account of his transactions, as said administrator, before some Commissioner of this Court; That the assets remaining in his hands may be applied in satisfaction of your Complainants' demand; and that such other and general relief may be granted consistent with equity, — And, as in duty bound, your Complainants will ever pray etc.,
