We, the undersigned Commissioners under the decree in the Chancery Cause of Boyett and wife vs Darden & als, went upon the premises in the proceedings mentioned on Monday Aug 25, 1885, and after first being duly sworn, proceeded to discharge the duties imposed upon us by said decree, and beg to make the following report:

1. We assign to Mildred Ann Darden, the widow of James R. Darden, dec'd, in the land whereof her husband died as co-taker at inheritance, during the coverture between them, the following piece or parcel of land as and for her proper interest in said land: That tract of land in Hanover County, Virginia, <sup>according to the facts and circumstances</sup> described as follows to-wit: Commencing at a dogwood tree on the County road leading to Howells old mill, thence along Jacob Austins line to a stump, thence along Jacob Austins line to a stake near Austins yard, thence along Austins line to the lands of Edw<sup>d</sup> Howell, dec'd, thence to a path or lane leading to the County road, thence along the County road to the dogwood tree at the beginning.
2. We report <sup>that</sup> the land cannot be divided among the parties, owing to the very large number of parties interested. And impracticable, as the small shares of each would be practically worthless.

The ~~other~~ property consisting of a lot in Suffolk and the piece of land in the County. We think the interests of the parties would be promoted by a sale of the whole property and advise a sale.
The lot in Suffolk is in our opinion worth $500.00, and the land in the County upon which Mrs. Dordun takes her dower $300.00.

Yrs very truly -

Plurver of the Infants

The answer of Mildred Ann Barber, one of the Defendants in a Bill of Complaint filed against her and others in the Circuit Court of Hampshire County, by David Bogert and wife, Complainants:

This respondent, reserving to herself all right of exception which can or may be had to the Complainant's said Bill, for answer thereto or to so much or such part thereof as she is advised it is material or necessary for her to answer, answering saith: That she Excepts to the report of the Commissioners assigning her Dower, for the reason that the property assigned to her has no buildings, and she can not use it as a home, and her right therein being only a life Estate she can not make any thing about said property available for support, except the rent, which is only $15<sup>00</sup> per Year. She therefore prays that the whole of said Estate may be sold free of dower, which she asks to have come out of the proceeds of sale.

And have answered she prays to be dismissed with her Costs &c.

Answer of Mildred A. Darden.

To the Hon Geo. Blom, Judge of the Circuit Court of Wauson County-

David Boyett and Ann Eliza his wife vs In Chancery
Mildred Ann Darden, widow of James R.
Darden, dec'd, Jas A. Norfleet and Emma, his wife, Robert Boyett, James Jennings and Martha, his wife, vs

Complaining sheweth un to the Court, your Complainants, David Boyett and Ann Eliza, his wife, that your Complainants Uncle, James R. Darden, was in his lifetime seized and possessed of certain real Estate lying in the County of Wauson, to wit: A certain lot or parcel of land in the town of Suffolk Wauson County, Virginia, situated on the west side of Main Street in said town, and in the South west Corner formed by said Main Street and 2<sup>d</sup> Cross Street of said town - Commencing at the intersection of said Streets, it runs along said Cross Street two hundred and eight and a half feet (208½ ft) to Singleton's lot, thence seventy and a half feet (70½ ft) to the Wells lot, thence along the line of the Wells lot to Main Street, thence along the line of said Main Street to the beginning - And also of a certain tract of land in Holy Neck Magisterial

District in said County, containing eighty four acres, more or less, and adjoining the lands of Jacob Austin and others. And being so seized and possessed of said real estate, sometime in the year 188 the said James L. Darden departed this life intestate, leaving a widow, Milvred Darden. And also Emma Norflut, the wife of Jas. A. Norflut, Nancy Boyett, Wm. W. Darden and Martha Jennings, the wife of James Jennings, and daughter of Jethro Darden. as his heirs at law. Nancy Boyett has since departed this life, leaving as her only children and heirs at law, Robert Boyett, and Ann Eliza Boyett, the wife of David Boyett, your complainants. Wm. W. Darden, brother of the original heirs, has also died, leaving as his children and heirs at law, Ann Rebecca, the wife of Elijah Jones, Mary, the wife of Luther Rawls, Sally, the wife of Drumpsey Langston, Elisha H. Darden, D. A. Darden, M. T. Darden. Wm. E. Darden and David Darden Sr, who is now dead, leaving David Darden, Jr, an infant under the age of twenty one years, his only child and heir at law.

And your complainants further state that the said real Estate, is, as they believe, susceptible of partition among the parties thereto; but if it be not, then your Complainants, desire the same to be sold, and the proceeds divided among the adult and infant parties according to their respective rights; the share of the infant to be held as directed by Statute in such case made and provided. Should the property be not divisible in kind. Your Complainants believe and here state, that the interest of those who are entitled to the said real Estate or its proceeds, will be promoted by a sale of the whole, or by an allotment of part and sale of the residue.

In tender Consideration whereof, and foras-much as your Complainants are remediless in the premises, Save in a Court of equity, where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable, your Complainants pray that the said Mildred Ann Darden, widow of Jas.
R. Darden died, Jas. A. Norfleet and Emma, his wife, Robert Boyett, Jas. Jennings and Martha, his wife, Elijah Jones and Ann Rebecca, his wife, Luther Rawles and Mary, his wife, Dempsey Langston and Sallie, his wife, E. S. Darden, D.
L. Darden, M. S. Darden, Wm. E. Darden and David Darden Jr be made parties defendant to this will and required on their oaths to answer the same; that a proper guardian ad litem be assigned the infant defendant to defend his interest in this suit, who shall also answer the bill; that proper process issue; that the said real estate be divided between the several parties entitled thereto, and your Complainants' portion allotted to them, and in case the said real estate cannot be partitioned and divided in kind, that the same be exposed to sale, and the proceeds of such sale be divided among the parties entitled thereto; that all proper orders and decrees may be made and proper enquiries be directed and that all such other, farther and general relief may be granted your Complainants as the nature of their case may require, or to Equity shall seem meet. And your Complainants will ever pray &c.
