Comm'r Report of Sale

Pursuant to the annexed decree we, the undersigned three of the Commissioners appointed therein, met on the premises described in the proceedings in this Cause and after a careful examination of the said premises, (and being personally well acquainted with the same) came to the unanimous conclusion that a division of the said tract of land into Eight (8) equal parts or portions was impracticable, it being impossible to divide the arable and wood land equally and therefore recommend that a Sale of said land be made and the money be divided in lieu of the land And we further report that a sale of said land will be to the interest of all parties as the premises are rapidly depreciating and a fair price for said land in our opinion can now be obtained -

These respondents, reserving to themselves the benefit of all just exceptions to the said Bill for answer thereto, or to so much thereof as they are advised that it is material they should answer, by their said guardian ad litem, answer and say.

That they are infants of tender years and by reason of their infancy are incapable of understanding, or taking care of their rights and interests, they therefore by their said guardian commend themselves and their rights and interests to the protection of the Court and pray that no decree may be pronounced which will tend to their prejudice. Answer of Infants

In the Circuit Court of Nansemond County.

To the honorable George Blow Judge of Said Court.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honor, your orator Wilson R. Riddick, William H. Riddick, Richard A. Riddick and James L. Parker and Eliza Parker his wife, nee Riddick, that their father Thomas Riddick departed this life intestate, some time in the year 18 , seized and possessed of a small estate, personal and real, in the County of Nansemond in the State of Virginia, leaving a widow, Nancy J. Riddick who qualified as the personal representative of said Thomas Riddick and settled his estate, and since that time to wit- on the day of , 188 , said Nancy J. Riddick has departed this life, and your orator together with Alfred T. Riddick, Caroline E. Riddick Lindora Riddick, and Frank A. Riddick are the only children and heirs at law of said Estate. That the said two, Lindora and Frank A. Riddick are infants under the age of twenty-one years. That the real estate left by said Thomas Ridlich consists of tract in the County of Jefferson aforesaid containing according to the land book for the Jefferson Bank of said County one hundred acres adjoining the lands of J. H. Pierce and F. D. Ellerin and is valued at $600:—

That your orator further state, that in consequence of the smallness of the tract of land the same cannot be equitably divided among the heirs entitled thereto, and hence they desire that the same may be sold and the proceeds distributed amongst the parties, in proportion to their respective interest therein.

In tender consideration whereof, and inasmuch as your orator are remediless in the premises, save by the aid of a Court of Equity, where matters of this sort are alone and properly cognizable, your orator pray that the said Alfred L. Ridlich, Caroline E. Ridlich, Lydia Ridlich, and Frank A. Ridlich, be made parties defendant to this bill, and required as their corporal oaths to answer the Same, according to the best of their knowledge, information and belief, as fully and particularly as if the statements of this bill were here again repeated, and the said defendants there especially interrogated; that a proper guardian ad litem be assigned the infant defendants, to defend their interests in this suit; that the said real estate be divided between the parties aforementioned entitled thereto, if possible to divide the same, share and share alike, and in case the said real estate be indivisible, that the same be offered to sale, and the proceeds thereof be distributed among the parties entitled thereto; that proper process may issue, and that such other further and general relief may be afforded your orator as the nature of this case may require, or to equity shall seem meet.

And your orator will ever pray &c
