D. Tucker Brooke
Judge Corporation Court City of Charlottesville

To the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Noamund County, copy

To the Honorable C. W. Hill, Judge of the Circuit Court of Nausumund County;

Humbly Complaining sheweth unto your Honor your orator B. M. Bance of Suffolk Virginia the following case;

That there is now pending in the said Circuit Court of Nausumund County a chancery cause under the name and style of Rowstead vs Rowstead, it being a friendly suit brought for the partition of a certain tract of real estate situated in the said County, known as the "Burroughs Tract" and containing some 2900 acres more or less; that certain proper proceedings were had in said suit and at the last term of said Court a decree was entered appointing E. E. Holland as special Commissioner to sell said tract of land at public auction to the highest bidder, collect the purchase money therefor and divide and pay over the same to the parties entitled thereto it having been reported to said Court that the said tract was indivisible in kind, that person went to said decree, and after having given bond and advertised the said land for sale and in all other respects having complied with all the requirements of said decree, the said E. E. Holland offered the said tract of land for sale at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday the day of June 1894 that being Court day before the Court house in Frank County; that at said auction sale your orator bid the last and highest price for said tract of 2900 acres, and that said tract was then and there struck off to him and he declared the purchase thereof, at the price of $2100; that all parties in interest were and are now satisfied with the said sale, and that in compliance with the terms of said sale your orator paid then and there to the said Commissioner * and that by terms of said sale he can give one and two years interest to pay the two other installments for said land.

the cash installment of $1050, and herewith file, his receipt for the same on a foil of this bill, that notwithstanding all these open and notorious, facts, the Camp Manufacturing Company, a corporation, Paul D. Camp, J.E. Camp and one Newsome and C.W. Dennis all of whom are utter and entire strangers to all of said proceedings, and none of whom have any interest whatever in said land or any title or color of title thereto or to any part thereof, yet the said Camp Manufacturing Company, Paul D.
Camp, J.E. Camp, John Newsome and C.W. Dennis have entered upon said land without license or permission from any person whatever and without having any right to do so and are now engaged in cutting down timber on said land, cutting paths or roads through said land and committing other depredations, thereby causing the great injury and damage of great value and in absolute disregard and defrance of his rights, and your order further says that unless the said trespassers and their agents are restrained and prohibited from further molestation of said land his rights will be invaded and he will suffer irreparable loss and damage: that said tract of land is composed wholly and entirely of arable land no part of it being cleared or arable land and that no persons reside therein or is in possession thereof ^{except your order}: that not yet having received a deed for said land and not having the legal title thereto your order cannot have said parties, agents or trespassers by warrant at common law: that all their acts and doings are contrary to equity and good conscience and ought to be summarily stopped.

In tender consideration thereof and inasmuch as your order is unexecuted in the premises, save by the aid of a Court of equity where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable your order says that the said Camp Manufacturing Company, Paul D. Camp, J. E. Camp, John Newcomb, C. W. Dennis their agents and all other persons whenever may be made parties, defendant to this bill and again to answer the same through our answer under oath is hereby sworn; that proper process may issue; and that the said Camp Manufacturing Company, Paul D. Camp J. E. Camp, John Newcomb and C. W. Dennis their agents, attorneys and all other persons aforesaid may be prohibited and restrained from further trespassing on said land, from further cutting timber or mining on said land and from further exercising any acts of ownership therein until the further order of this court, and your order also says for all such other further and general relief in the premises or to equity may seem meet or that his case may require and he will ever pray &c.
