In the Circuit Court of Lansemond County.-

Lettie Slam, a married woman under the age of twenty one years, the wife of William G. Slam, who sues by Richard L. Woodward, her next friend.

Against. In Chancery.

William G. Slam and others.

This cause came on this day to be heard, in vacation with the consent of the parties, as provided by the statute, on the answer of William G. Slam, and joint and several answers of Sallie G. Holland, Augustus W. Holland and Mamie Holland, Annie C. Verett and Paul M. Verett, Sallie C. Joyner and Albin Joyner, Joseph G. Holland and Owen G. Holland, with general replication thereto by the plaintiff, and was argued by counsel: on consideration whereof the Court doth order, adjudge and decree that the papers in this cause be referred to one of the commissioners of this Court who is directed to inquire into and report to Court, 1st: whether the interest of the minor, Lettie Slam, will be promoted by a sale of the standing timber on the tract of land in the proceedings mentioned or any part thereof and the investment of the proceeds of sale in safer property.

2nd: Whether the rights of any person will be violated by such sale: which inquiries the said commissioner shall make and report to Court together with any matters deemed pertinent by himself or required by any of the parties to be specially stated.

plainant has been unable to sell the said timber unless and until she could obtain the order of this Court authorizing such a sale.

That the said farm is near the village of Holland on the railroad which makes it valuable and will always be in demand; but it will sell for nearly as much with the timber cut off as it will now, as the cutting of the timber can in no way affect the land for farming purposes, that your complainant and all interested believe that the timber and farm will sell for at least one third more if not half by selling the two separately. Your complainant states that it would not only be to her interest to have the said timber sold while it will bring a good price, but it will be to the interest of all concerned, and that the interest of your complainant or the proceeds of the sale of her interest can be re-invested in other property and securities that will be more profitable than the timber as it now stands.

In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your complainant is remediless, save in a Court of Equity where matters of this kind are properly cognizable your complainant prays that William G. Eiam, husband of your complainant, Sallie C. Holland, widow of the said William G. Holland, deceased, Augustus A. Holland and Mamie Holland, his wife, Sallie C. Joyner and Eliza Joyner, her husband, Annie B. Everett and Paul L. Everett, her husband, Joseph G. Holland, and Owen C. Holland may be made parties defendant to this bill and required to answer the same, but answer under oath waived; that the standing timber on the said tract of land may be decreed to be sold and the proceeds of your complainant's interest be re-invested as the Court may direct; that proper counsel's fees be allowed as this will be ask for in the progress of the suit; that proper process issue and all proper orders and decrees and inquiries may be made and directed; and that all such further and general relief may be granted your complainant as the nature of her case may require or to equity may seen meet and your complainant will ever stay, etc.

to the Hon. Robert A. Trentis, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Hansemond, Virginia.

Lettie Eiam, a married woman under age of twenty one years, the wife of William G. Eiam, who sues by Richard B. Woodward, her next friend, against..... In Chancery.

William G. Eiam, husband of Lettie Eiam, Sallie C. Holland, widow of William F. Holland, deceased, Augustus A. Holland and Mamie Holland, his wife Annie A. Everett and Paul B. Everett, her husband, Sallie C. Joyner and Blind Joyner, her husband, Joseph G. Holland, and Owen G. Holland.

Your complainant, a married woman under the age of twenty one years, the wife of William G. Eiam, who sues by Richard B. Woodward, her next friend shows unto the Court the following case:

That some time in June in the year eighteen hundred and ninety nine William F. Holland died intestate leaving a widow, Sallie C. Holland, Augustus A. Holland, who married Mamie Norfleet, Sallie C. Joyner who married Blind Joyner, Annie A. Everett, who married Paul B. Everett, Lettie Eiam who married William G. Eiam, Joseph G. Holland and Owen G. Holland, his children and heirs at law; that at the time of his death he was seized and possessed in fee, a certain tract of land near Holland in Hansemond County, Virginia, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Bounded on the north by the lands of Abram Holland and John Holland, on the east by the lands of Abram Holland and W. T. Parker, on the west by the lands of A. A. Holland, Z. T. Holland, and F. B. Carr, on the south by the lands of Z. T. Holland and others; and that the said William F. Holland, deceased, left a small personal estate amounting to about one thousand dollars and that your complainant's interest in the personal estate and real estate left by the said William F. Holland, deceased, is all the estate of your complainant.

Your complainant further states that there is a lot of valuable standing timber on the said tract of land above described, that at this time lumber is high and that there is a great demand for such lumber- it being near the railroad and will command a great and good price: but your com-
