In Chancery

Nansemond County - Circuit Court.

To the Honorable Robert R. Prentis
Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond;

Your commissioner (the defendant duly acknowledging service of notice of the time and place of executing the decree made in the above entitled cause on the 10th day of April 1900, copy of said notice being returned herewith) proceeded at his office in Suffolk, Va. on the 15th day of September, 1900 to perform the duties required of him by said decree.

In making the enquiry therein directed he took the examination of Annie J Darden, formerly Annie J Everett, Guardian of Edna E. Everett, Lillie May Everett and Charles Thomas

Everett which examination is returned with this report. The Decree requires an account of the transactions of the said Guardian showing a statement of her receipts and disbursements as such guardian with the amount in which she is now indebted to her wards together with any matter specially stated deemed pertinent by the commissioner or required by any party to be stated.

From the evidence furnished your commissioner he reports respectfully to Court that the defendant is the mother of the wards, and that the wards were children of tender age, one five years another three and another six months at the time of her qualification as their guardian, and that the moneys coming into her hands were the proceeds of a life insurance policy on the life of the father of the children, W. T. Everett deceased, and the share of the wards in the rental of a farm of which their father died seized and possessed until the same was sold under Court proceedings in April 1899.

On the 16th Nov. 1892 the guardian married Albert G. Dardon of Nanermond County. Prior to this marriage the children lived with the said guardian. There has been no regular yearly accounts returned by the said guardian and for all disbursements made prior to her marriage to Mr. Darden no vouchers have been presented by the guardian who makes oath however to amounts which she believes were expended in their maintenance and support. After her marriage to Mr A.G. Darden he took charge of the children and the guardian has paid a yearly sum to him for their board, clothing and tuition and for his years tuition of the oldest child Edna and vouchers for the amounts so paid have been filed with the commissioner. From these facts the guardianship account of said Annie J. Darden formerly Annie J. Everett has to the best of your commissioner's ability been made out and is herewith submitted, as follows.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF NANSEMOND.

TO THE HON. ROBERT R. PRENTIS, JUDGE OF SAID COURT.-

Your complainants, Edna E. Everett, Lillie May Everett and ~~William~~ Charles T. Everett, infants, by Albert G. Darden, their next friend, respectfully show unto the Court the following case:

That some time in the year 188__, your complainants' father, William Thomas Everett, departed this life; that the said William Thomas Everett left a small personal estate, and a policy of insurance on his life for the benefit of his wife, Annie J. Everett and your complainants; and that said policy of insurance has since been collected by your complainants' guardian.

That on the 16th day of February, 1888, Annie J. Everett was duly appointed and qualified as guardian of your complainants, and gave a bond with W. N. Harrell, Richard L. Ames and Elisha Everett as her sureties thereon. A copy of the order showing such appointment and qualification and also a copy of the bond given are herewith filed, and prayed to be read as a part of this bill.

Your complainants allege that the said Annie J. Everett, acting as their guardian, collected on the policy of insurance above referred to for their benefit, the sum of two thousand dollars at least, and may also have received as such, certain other amounts on account of the other personal estate of your complainants' father.

The said Annie J. Everett, your complainants' guardian, has never rendered any account of her transactions as such, and your complainants do not know what amounts, other than the insurance money, have been received by her.

Your complainants have resided with the said Annie J. Everett, their mother and guardian, since the death of your complainants' father, and the said Annie J. Everett as such guardian, has doubtless expended for their benefit, on account of board, clothing, tuition and other necessaries, a part, at least, of the amounts held by her for their benefit as such guardian. But the said Annie J. Everett has never rendered account of her transactions showing what amounts have been so expended, and in what amounts she is now indebted to your complainants.

The said Annie J. Everett has also since her qualification, intermarried with one Albert G. Darden, and is now a married woman. Your complainants have no desire to raise the question as to her right to continue as your complainants' guardian, and do not ask for her removal as such, unless the court shall be of the opinion that she cannot continue as such under the law. But your complainants allege that they are entitled to have a true and accurate account of her receipts and disbursements, and a statement of the present amount of her indebtedness to them.

In tender consideration whereof, and for as much as your complainants are remediless in the premises save in a Court of equity where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizible, your complainants pray that the said Annie J. Darden, formerly Annie J. Everett, guardian of Edna E Everett, Lillie May Everett and ~~William~~ Charles Thomas Everett be made parties defendant to this bill, and required to answer the same, but answer under oath is waived; that the said Annie J. Darden, formerly Annie J. Everett, guardian, may be required to render before one of the commissioners of this Court, a true and accurate account of her transactions as such guardian, and also the amount in which she is now indebted to your complainants; that the court may determine what amounts the said Annie J. Darden, guardian, is entitled to be credited with in her settlement with them on account of expenses incurred by her for board, clothing, tuition and other necessary expenses; that the said Annie J. Darden, guardian, may be required to pay and account for to any guardian that may be appointed for your complainants, in the event she cannot continue to act as such guardian, such amounts as it may be determined she is indebted to your complainants; that proper process issue; that proper counsel fees may be allowed for the institution and prosecution of this suit; that all proper accounts may be taken, and proper decrees may be made, and that all such other, farther and general relief may be afforded your complainants as the nature of their case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

And your complainants will ever pray, &c.
