Present, E. E. Everett, attorney for the ~~defendant~~ complainant.

Present, Robert C. Vick in person.

Annette Crocker, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Q. Give me your name, age, residence, and occupation, and are you related to the parties in this suit?

A. Annette Crocker, 40 years old , Nansemond County, Housekeeper, and the mother of Lily.

Q. Does Lily live with you?

A. She does.

Q. Has she lived with her husband since he was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary in 1905?

A. She has not.

Q. Have you been in a position to know?

A. I have.

Q. Has she at all times been a faithful and dutiful wife?

A. She certainly has. ~~She declared she would not, and said she certainly was.~~

~~Her testimony closed.~~

Q. How do you know that said Hebert E. Vick was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary?

A. Besides knowing it of my own knowledge I herewith file a certificate of the clerk of court, showing that he was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary. And further this deponent saith not.

SUPPLEMENTAL BILL.

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT R. PRENTIS, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF NANSEMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

Complaining, sheweth unto you Honor your oratrix, Lillie G. Vick, wife of Robert S. Vick, the following case:

That she has been a resident of the State over one year and last cohabited with the said Robert S. Vick, her husband, in Nansemond County; that in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety five your oratrix was married to the aforesaid Robert S. Vick in Nansemond County, and since that time she has been a faithful wife to the said Robert S. Vick until March, one thousand nine hundred and three. Since one thousand nine hundred and three, she has not lived or cohabited with the said Robert S. Vick. During the March term of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County the said Robert S. Vick was convicted and sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for three years which time he served out in the penitentiary. Your oratrix has been advised that the fact that her husband's being convicted and sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary entitles her to a divorce from her husband.

In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your oratrix is remediless in the premises save in a court of equity, who prays that the said Robert S. Vick may be made a defendant to this bill and required to answer the same upon oath; that your oratrix may be divorced from the said Robert S. Vick a vinculo matrimonii, and that all other, farther and general relief may be afforded your oratrix as the nature of her case may require or to equity may seem meet.

Your oratrix further states that this suit was instituted in the name of Minnie Vick, by which name your oratrix is sometimes called, but her true name is Lillie G. Vick, and your oratrix signed a notice for the taking of the depositions in this case as Lillie G. Vick. And your oratrix further prays that this cause be amended by inserting the right name Lillie G. Vick in the place of Minnie Vick, and that all orders be entered in the name of Lillie G. Vick.

Your oratrix further states that her husband is better known as Solomon Vick. The marriage license has it Solomon Vick, but his true name is Robert Solomon Vick.

And your oratrix will ever pray, etc.

MANCHESTER COUNTY.

I, S. E. Everett, a Notary Public for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that Lillie G. Vick, the complainany in the above bill, has this day appeared before me in my county and State and made oath that all the facts stated in the above bill are true.

Given under my hand this 17th day of August, 1906.

S. E. Everett

Notary Public.

My term of office expires the 20th day of July 1907.

To the Honorable ROBERT R. PRENTIS, Judge of the Circuit Court of Rockingham County, Virginia.

Complaining, showeth unto your Honor your oratrix, Lillie Vick, wife of Robert S. Vick, the following case:

That she has been a resident of this State over one year and has cohabited with the said Robert S. Vick, her husband, in Rockingham County; that in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five your oratrix was married to the said Robert S. Vick in Rockingham County, and since that time she has been a faithful wife to the said Robert S. Vick until March, one thousand nine hundred and three. Since one thousand nine hundred and three your oratrix has not lived or cohabited with the said Robert S. Vick, but during the March term of the Circuit Court of Rockingham County the said Robert S. Vick was convicted and sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for three years, which time he served out in the penitentiary. Your oratrix was been advised of the fact that her husband was convicted and sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary [illegible] to a divorce from her husband.

In tender consideration thereof and for as much as your oratrix is remediless in the premises save in a court of equity, she prays that the said Robert S. Vick may be made a defendant to this bill and required to answer the same upon oath; that your oratrix may be divorced from the said Robert S. Vick a vinculo matrimonii, and that all other, further and general relief may be afforded your oratrix as the nature of her case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

And your oratrix will ever pray, etc.
