The depositions of James Shepherd and others, taken before me, Bradford Kilby, a Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond in the State of Virginia, at my office in the Town of Suffolk, Virginia, on the 26th. day of May 1908, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 6 P. M. , to be read as evidence in behalf of Sarah J. Williams in a certain suit in equity depending in the Circuit Court of Nansemond County in the State of Virginia, wherein John R. Williams is defendant and Sarah J. Williams is plaintiff.

Present:

Lee Britt, Attorney for the plaintiff.

No attorney for the defendant.

Sarah J. Williams, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

Q. What is your name, age, residence, and occupation.

A. Sarah J. Williams, 35 years old. residence on Third Street in what is known as Jericho, near Suffolk in Nansemond County in the State of Virginia, occupation house-keeper.

Q. Are you the plaintiff in this cause and the wife of John R. Williams, the defendant?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Please whether or not he is now living with you and if not, when did he leave you and how long has it been since he lived with you?

A. No sir. He left me in January 1898, about ten years ago, and he has not lived with me since then.

Q. Prior to his leaving you in 1898, did he state whether or not that he intended to leave you, and if so, what did he state and why did he say that he was going to leave you?

A. Yes sir, he said he was going away to leave me. He said that he has mortgaged my place and he could not pay it back and thought that I was going to put him in trouble, and he got to loving another woman. He did leave me and has not been back since.

Q. Have you written to him since he left, and if so, was your letter answered by him?

A. Yes sir, I have written to him once, but my letter was not answered.

Q. Were you always faithful and true to him as his wife, and did you give any cause to leave you?

A. Yes sir, I was always faithful and true. I did not give him any cause to leave me.

Q. Do you know where he is now living?

A. No sir, but I heard he was living in Philadelphia in Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you ever seen him since he left you in 1898?

A. No sir.

Q. How long have you lived at your present home continuously from this time back?

A. About twelve years.

And further this deponent saith not.

James Shepherd being duly sworn ,deposes as follows:

Q. State your name ,age residence, and occupation.

A. James Shepherd,48 years old, live on Third Street in what is known as Jericho near Suffolk in Nansemond County in the State of Virginia, occupation laborer.

Q.Do you know the parties to this suit? and are you related to either of them?

A. I know the parties and I am not related to either of them.

Q. How near do you live to Sarah Williams and how long have you lived there from this time back?

A. I live on the opposite side of the street from her and have lived there 18 years.

Q. In the bill in this cause,the plaintiff,Sarah J. Williams,alleges that the defendant,John R. Williams,willfully abandoned and deserted her in January 1898,and has not lived with her since that time. Please state what you may know,if anything, about such charge?

A.I know that he went away in January 1898 and has not been back since. I met him in Portsmouth and he said he was going to Philadelphia to live,that times were pretty dull about here. He said he was going to take a lady with him.

Q. What is the ground of your statement that the defendant,John R. Williams,left his wife and has not lived her since that time?

A. He told me he was going to leave her,and I know that he has not been back because I live just across the street from her and see her every day and know that he could not have come back to live with her because I would have seen him.

Q. State whether or not,if you know,that the plaintiff during the period her husband,John R. Williams,lived with her,was constant faithful and dutiful as a wife to him at all times?

A. I know that he left her and he told me before that he was going to leave her. I can not say that it was in January 1898, but I thought it was about 12 years ago. He has not been here since that time.

Q. Are you in a position to know positively whether or not John R. Williams has been here and lived with his wife since that time?

A. Yes sir, I know that he has not been here. She and my wife are good friends and we were all raised up together. She visits my home and we visit hers, and we see her two or three times a week.

Q. When John R. Williams told you that he was going to leave, did he give any reason for leaving his wife?

A. Yes, he told me that he had borrowed money on her property and that he could not pay it back, and that he was going to leave.

Q. What caused ^{you} to state that it had been about 12 years since the defendant left Sarah Williams, his wife?

A. I said that because I have been living in Pleasant Hill about 12 years and he left her in January before the June I moved there.

Q. Then are you positive that John Williams told you that he was going to leave Sarah Williams, his wife, in January before the June when you moved to Pleasant Hill.

A. Yes sir.

A. Yes sir, They lived together about 4 years at that place.

Q. Did either one leave the other while living at that place, and if so, state which left the other

A. John Williams left Sarah Williams.

Q. How do you know that ~~####~~ John Williams left Sarah while they were living at that place?

A. Because he came by my house and told me that he was going away, and he went away that day.

Q. Has he ever been back to live with his wife since that time?

A. No sir.

Q. How long has it been since he left his wife?

A. I think it has been about ten years, since he went away.

Q. When he told you that he was going to leave his wife, Sarah, and that he was going away, did you understand from his language to you, that he intended to wilfully abandon and desert her?

A. Yes sir, that was my understanding.

Q. How do you know that he has not been back and lived with his wife since that time?

A. I know that he has not been back because up to year before last I lived on the lot that backed up against hers and there is a gateway between, and if he had come back, I would have known it. Sarah and my wife were intimate friends and visited each other just as if they were two sisters. And John and I were intimate friends.

Q. You stated that you and John were intimate friends, did he give any reason for leaving his wife?

A. The only reason he gave me, was that he was dissatisfied.

Q. Have you ever seen him since he went away.

A. No sir.

Q. State whether or not, if you know, that she was a constant, faithful and dutiful wife to him, during the time that they lived together?

A. I certainly thought she was, if any body ever was.

Q. How has she conducted herself as a woman, since he left her?

A. She has been a hard working and industrious woman and has behaved herself as a lady, so far as I know, ever since he left her. She is a member of the same church with me.

Q. Then am I to understand from your testimony that John Williams wilfully abandoned and deserted Sarah Williams, his wife, about ten years ago and has not lived with ^{her} since that time and that she gave him no cause for so doing.

A. Yes sir.

And further this deponent saith not.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF NANSEMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA-

Sarah J. Williams-

VS

John R. Williams-

To the Honorable Robert R. Prentis, Judge of said Court:--

Your oratrix, Sarah J. Williams, humbly complaining, sheweth unto the Court the following case:--

That on the 2nd day of February, 1895, in Norfolk County, Virginia, she was united in marriage to John R. Williams, and that the marriage ceremony was legally and duly performed by Rev. O. B. Alston, a minister of the Gospel, authorized to solemnize the rites of matrimony, and that the name of your oratrix previous to said marriage was Sarah J. Holland, all of which will fully appear from a duly certified copy of the marriage license and the certificate of marriage, herewith filed and marked "Exhibit A," which your oratrix prays may be read as a part of this bill.

Your oratrix further shows unto the Court, that, after said marriage, she and the said defendant lived and dwelt together as husband and wife in Nansemond County, Virginia, continuously, until sometime in January, 1898, when the said defendant deserted and abandoned her in the early part of said month of January, 1898, without cause or default on her part, and apparently and certainly without any reason whatsoever, so far as your oratrix knows, but she is advised that he went off with another woman to live in a Northern State.

That she has never seen or heard from him since he deserted and abandoned her, and that she has lived continuously in Nansemond County, Virginia, since he left her, where she now resides, and has resided since her marriage; and that she has resided one year in the State of Virginia, and has been domiciled here at least ^{one} year preceding the commencement of this suit; that she and her said husband last cohabited in Nansemond County, Virginia, and that she is now and has been for more than twelve months a resident of said Nansemond County.

Your oratrix further shows unto the Court that she has been informed and verily believes, and therefore charges the truth to be, that the said defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vow, wilfully abandoned and deserted her in the early part of January, 1898, notwithstanding the fact that she was constant, faithful and dutiful as a wife to him, at all times, leaving her to depend on her own effort for a support.

Forasmuch, therefore, as your oratrix is without remedy in the premises, except in a court of equity, she prays that the said John R. Williams may be made a party defendant to this suit; and required to answer this bill, though an answer under oath is hereby waived; that proper process may issue; that all proper depositions may be taken; and that your oratrix may be granted an absolute divorce from the said defendant; and for such other, further and general relief as in equity is meet and proper, and your oratrix will ever pray &c.
