which by a previous decree has been regularly submitted to the judge of this court for such proceedings, orders and decrees in vacation as might be entered in term

This cause came on this day, by ~~consent of all parties,~~ ~~entered of record,~~ to be heard on the papers formerly read, as well as on the report of Bradford Kilby, one of the Commissioners of this court, to whom the papers in said cause had been referred, which said report was filed on the---29th---day of November, 1909, and to which no exception has been filed, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof, it appearing that all parties in said cause have been given due notice, by personal service by Bradford Kilby, Commissioner as aforesaid, who has also fully complied with the order of the court, by publishing notice of the time and place of making the inquiries required by the last decree in said cause, once a week for four successive weeks, in the Suffolk Herald, a newspaper published in Suffolk, Virginia, and no creditors, claimants, or other persons having set up any claim to the estate, of the said Z. T. Holland, deceased, other than the defendants named in this cause, and the said Commissioner having reported that the said heirs at law, of Z. T. Holland, who are the defendants named in this suit, are the only proper and legal distributees of said estate, and entitled to receive the same, the court doth ratify, approve, and confirm the said report, and doth order, adjudge, and decree that the said estate of the said Z. T. Holland, be paid by the said Administrator to the said heirs at law, and distributees named in said report or their assigns.

And it further appearing that the order of the court, made by its last decree, entered on the 22d day of October, 1909, for the creditors, and all claimants, and all other persons interested in said estate, to appear and show cause, if any they could, why the estate in the hands of the Administrator should not be paid and distributed to the said heirs at law, and distributees, of said Z. T. Holland, named in this cause, has been duly published in the said Suffolk Herald, a newspaper published in Suffolk, Virginia, once a week for four successive weeks, as required by said decree, and prescribed by law, and no creditors, claimants, or other persons whatever having appeared or shown cause against said payment and delivery, it is ordered that the said estate of Z. T. Holland, which is or might come into the hands of the said Administrator, shall be paid and delivered to said heirs and distributees, of said Z. T. Holland, ^{named} ~~named~~ in this cause, or their assigns, according to law without a refunding bond.

The court doth further, order, adjudge, and decree that the said Administrator shall pay the collateral inheritance tax, which is provided for by the statute law of this state, on the gross sum of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars, as reported by said Commissioner Kilby, and shall also pay the usual state and county taxes, on said personal estate, and the cost and expenses of this suit, including the sum of seven hundred and fifty ($750.00) dollars, attorney's fees, which have been agreed on by all parties in interest.

And it further appearing from said report that S. E. Everett has made an offer of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars net, to the said heirs and distributees, for the residue of the entire personal estate of said Z. T. Holland, which is now or might legally hereafter come into the hands of the said Administrator, which said offer is said to be a fair and just price for said estate, and is recommended by said Commissioner to be accepted, and which said heirs have agreed to accept for said personal estate, in full of all claims against said

Administrator therefor, the court doth order, adjudge, and decree that the said R. H. Rawles, Administrator, be and is hereby authorized to sell to the said S. E. Everett, the said residue of said personal estate, of said Z. T. Holland, for the said sum of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars net, including cash on hand, bonds, notes, and all other personal estate, of said decedent, which said sale shall include the interest of the infant defendant, as well as the interests of the adult defendants, the said sum, the said Administrator shall, when collected by him, distribute to the said heirs at law, and defendants stated in said report, according to their respective interest therein, which said payments when so made by said Administrator shall be in full discharge and release of said Administrator from all further claims or demands whatever, of any and all of said defendants, and heirs at law and distributees, and the said Administrator shall take from said heirs at law, receipts for such payments, and file the same herein.

And the said Administrator is required to report his actions under this decree, to this court, and this cause is continued.

In Chancery.

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read, and on the second report of R. H. Rawles, Administrator of the estate of Z. T. Holland, deceased, showing account of his transactions as such Administrator, which said report was filed on the 9th day of October, 1909, and to which no exception has been filed, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof the court doth approve and confirm the said report, and doth order, adjudge and decree that the papers in this cause be again referred to one of the Commissioners of this court, who after due notice to all parties in interest is hereby required to inquire into and report to court who are the proper and legal distributees of the estate of the late Z. T. Holland, deceased, and to whom the said Administrator shall pay over and turn over the cash on hand, and all other personal property belonging to said estate, and now remaining in his hands.

And the said Commissioner is hereby required to publish notice of the time and place of making said inquiry and of taking and stating said account, once a week for four successive weeks in the Suffolk Herald, a newspaper published in the town of Suffolk, Virginia, before the taking of the same.

And it appearing that more than one year has elapsed since the qualification of R. H. Rawles, as Administrator of the estate of the said Z. T. Holland, deceased, and that his accounts as such Administrator have been filed in this cause, together with an account of the debts and demands against the said estate, it is ordered that all creditors of said Z. T. Holland, and all claimants and other persons interested in his estate, do appear before the Judge of this court, at his office, in Suffolk, Virginia, in vacation, on the 30th day of November, 1909, and show cause, if any they can, against the payment and delivery of the said estate of the said Z. T. Holland, deceased, to his distributees, named in this cause, without a refunding bond, and that a copy of this order shall be published once a week for four successive weeks, in the Suffolk Herald, a newspaper published in Suffolk, Virginia.

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read, as well as on the report of Bradford Kliby, one of the Commissioners of this court to whom the said papers had been referred, which said report was filed on the 1st day of March, 1909., and to which no exception has been filed, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof the court doth confirm said report:
And it appearing to the court, from said report that on account of pending and threatened litigation concerning said estate, of the said Z. T. Holland, deceased, it is difficult for the said R. H. Rawles, Administrator of Z. T. Holland, deceased, to make safe, and beneficial investments of the cash now in his hands, as such Administrator, the court doth order, adjudge, and decree that the said R. H. Rawles, Administrator as aforesaid, shall deposit the cash now in his hands, and which from time to time may hereafter come in his hands, in Farmer's Bank of Nansmond and The Bank of Suffolk ~~in bank,~~ on 4% interest, and where the same shall remain subject to the further order of the court. And the said Administrator shall take ~~from~~ from said bank or banks, slips of deposits, showing when and where said money has been deposited, and the amount deposited. And the said Administrator is directed to make a report to court of all his transactions under this decree, and this cause is continued.

A. A. HOLLAND and OTHERS.

This cause came on this day to be heard on the bill taken for confessed as to the adult defendants, they still failing to appear, plead, answer or demur, upon the answers of the infant defendants by S. E. Everett, their guardian duly appointed at rules by the clerk of this court ad.litem, and of said guardian ad litem, with replications thereto, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof, the court doth adjudge, order and decree that the papers in this cause be referred to one of the commissioners of this court who is directed to inquire into and to report to court the following accounts:

1st. An account of the transactions of R. H. Rawles, administrator of Z. T. Holland, deceased. showing the amounts now in his hands as such administrator, the bonds and evidences of debt now held by him and how secured, the loans made by him as such administrator and how secured, and the credits allowed by him on debts collected from notes and bonds where said notes or bonds do not show credits on their face.

2nd. The proper parties among whom the said estate shall finally be distributed and the respective proportions thereof to which each of said parties may be entitled.

3rd. An account showing whether or not it will be to the interest of the parties to allow the funds now in the hands of the said administrator to be deposited in bank and to bear interest at the rate of four per cent.

In Chancery.

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read, as well as on the third report of R. H. Rawles, Administrator, of Z. T. Holland, deceased, which said report was filed December, 30th, 1909, and to which no exception has been filed and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof, it appearing to the court from said report that the said R. H. Rawles, Administrator of the estate of Z. T. Holland, deceased, has in obedience to the last decree entered in this cause paid off, and discharged all the cost and expenses of this suit, including the attorney's fees directed by said decree, that he has paid all the taxes on the personal and chattel estate of said Z. T. Holland, as well as the Collateral inheritance tax due thereon, that he has paid all the bills, and demands presented against said estate, and that he has filed in the papers in this cause, proper vouchers, for each and all of said payments and disbursements, that he has sold and delivered to S. R. Everett, all the personal and chattel estate of said Z. T. Holland, remaining in his hands, including cash on hand, bonds, notes, and all evidences of indebtedness, including bonds representing loans made by said Administrator, and all other uncollected bonds, and notes, and certificates of stock, and that he has filed herein a receipt for such delivery from said S. R. Everett, that he has received from the said S. R. Everett the price of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars, for all of said estate, as directed by said last decree, and that he has fully paid out and disbursed the said sum of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars, to the proper heirs at law, and distributees of said Z. T.

Holland, deceased, according to their respective interest therein, as set forth in the last report of Commissioner Bradford Kilby, and that he has also filed with the papers in this cause proper vouchers from each and all of said heirs at law, and distributees showing said payments to each of them in full, and releasing and discharging said Administrator from all further obligations, or demands as such Administrator, the court doth confirm the said report and doth order, adjudge, and decree that the said Administrator, having fully administered the said estate which came into his hands, be discharged from all further obligations as such, and nothing further remaining to be done in this cause, it is ordered that the same be stricken from the docket.

The answer of Gladys Brackett and Clyde W. Brackett infants under the age of twenty-one years, by J. E. Brown (a discreet and competent attorney at law), their guardian ad litem assigned to defend them in this suit, and the answer of the said J. E. Brown, guardian ad litem of the said infant defendants, to a bill of complaint exhibited against the said infants and others by R. H. Rowles Adm'r of the Estate of J. J. Holland in the Circuit Court of the County of Nausemond

For answer to the said bill the said infant defendants by their said guardian ad litem answer and say that being of tender years they do not know what their true interests are in relation to the subject matter of the said bill, nor do they know whether the statements therein contained are true or not. They confide the protection of their interests therein to the care of the court. And the said guardian ad litem of the said infant defendants for answer to the said bill answers and says that he knows nothing as to the truth or falsity of the statements in the bill contained. He prays full protection for the infant defendants. And now having fully answered, these defendants pray to be hence dismissed with their costs, etc.

R. H. RAWLES, administrator of the estate of E. T. Holland, deceased,

vs.

A. A. HOLLAND, JOSEPH G. HOLLAND, OWEN C. HOLLAND, LETTIE H. ELAM, ANNIE EVERETT, SARAH C. JOYNER, I. A. LUKE, W. R. LUKE, ALICE L. SYKES, JOHN B. BROCKETT, FLORA H. McMULLEN, B. GUY BROCKETT, GLADYS BROCKETT, infant, and CLYDE W. BROCKETT, infant.

Your complainant, respectfully complaining, shows unto the court the following case:

That on the _____ day of _____, 1908, E. T. Holland departed this life, so far as your complainant knows or believes, intestate, leaving as his heirs at law and nearest of kin the following persons: A. A. Holland, Joseph G. Holland, Owen C. Holland, Lettie H. Elam, Annie Everett, Sarah C. Joyner, I. A. Luke, W. R. Luke, Alice L. Sykes, John B. Brockett, Flora H. McMullen, B. Guy Brockett, Gladys Brockett, infant, and Clyde W. Brockett, infant, and that the said heirs at law are the nephews and nieces and the children of the nephews and nieces of the said decedent.

That soon after the death of the said decedent, at the request of the said heirs at law, your complainant duly qualified in the mode prescribed by law as the administrator of the said estate and gave bond with approved security. A copy of the order showing such qualification and the giving of said bond is herewith filed, marked exhibit "A" and prayed to be read as a part hereof.

That the said decedent left a large estate, consisting partly of real-estate, but mostly of money, bonds and other personal property.

That the decedent had a large number of notes, bonds and other evidences of debt secured and unsecured; that disputes are constantly arising as to credits to which the makers thereof are entitled, and that your complainant desires, in the settlement of said disputes, the advice and instruction of the court.

That some of said notes, bonds and other evidences of debt are of doubtful solvency, and it will be necessary for your complainant and best for said estate to compromise some of these claims, and in order to do so your complainant will, from time to time, desire to report to court such compromises as he may deem it advantageous for the estate to make, and to have the same ratified and approved by this court.

That your complainant has in hand certain sums of money collected for said estate, amounting to something like thousand dollars, and will, from time to time, as your complainant verily believes, make other collections. That since the death of the said decedent a dispute has arisen as to whether or not the decedent left a will at the time of his death, and proceedings having already been instituted to perpetuate testimony with the view of hereafter instituting a suit involving this contention, your complainant desires the advice and instruction of the court as to the disposition of the funds now in his hands.

Your complainant has been notified that if an improper distribution is made of said estate he will hereafter be held liable therefor, and in as much as no distribution can be made of said estate pending said litigation, it will be necessary, from time to time, to have the funds now in your complainant's hands properly invested.

Your complainant believes and is advised that he has a right, with reference to such investments, to seek the advice and instruction of this court.

Your complainant further alleges that he holds for said estate some bonds and notes already secured by deeds of trust on real-estate, and he is advised that he is entitled to the advice and direction of this court as to whether or not these investments shall be continued or said bonds and notes collected and other investments made.

Your complainant is further advised that there may be some dispute as to the proper parties among whom said estate shall be distributed and the proportions to which the parties may be entitled, and your complainant is advised that he is entitled to have it determined by this court as to what parties are entitled to share in the said estate and the respective portions of said estate to which each may be entitled.

Your complainant further seeks the advice and direction of the court as to the general administration of said estate, and believes that he is entitled to have, and that it will be to the interest of all parties to have, his accounts and transactions as administrator settled under the direction of and in accordance with the instructions given from time to time by this court.

In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your complainant is remediless in the premises save in a court of equity where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable, your complainant prays that the said A. A. Holland, Joseph G. Holland, Owen C. Holland, Lettie H. Elam, Annie Everett, Sarah C. Joyner, I. A. Luke, W. R. Luke, Alice L. Sykes, John B. Brockett, Flora H. McMullen, B. Gay Brockett, Gladys Brockett, infant, and Clyde W. Brockett, infant, may be made parties defendant to this bill and required to answer the same, but an answer under oath is waived; that a proper guardian ad litem may be assigned the infant defendants to defend their interests in this suit, who shall also answer the same; that an account may be taken showing what parties are entitled to share in the distribution of said estate and their respective interests therein; that the said complainant may be advised from time to time with reference to investments to be made or continued for the benefit of said estate; that compromise settlements of doubtful claims recommended from time to time by your complainant and deemed to be to the interest of the said estate may be ratified and approved; that accounts may be taken from time to time of the transactions of your complainant as the administrator of the said estate and that the administration thereof may be had under the direction and advice of this court; that other proper accounts may be taken from time to time and other proper inquiries directed; that proper process issue; that proper counsel fees be allowed to counsel prosecuting this suit, and that all such other, further and general relief may be afforded your complainant as the nature of his case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

And your complainant will ever pray, etc.

R. H. RAWLES, ADMINISTRATOR , of the estate of Z. T. Holland, deceased:

We the only heirs at law of Z. T. Holland, deceased, have sold out to S. E. Everett, our whole and entire interest in the personal and chattel property of said Z. T. Holland, for the sum of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars, and we order and request that upon the payment of that sum, you will deliver to said S. E. Everett all the cash, bonds and notes of said estate now in your hands, after the payment of taxes, debts, liabilities, and cost of pending suit. Said S. E. Everett is to pay all other and further liabilities and demands which may come against said estate. In settlement with us, we agree to accept our own notes and bonds which we may owe said estate, as so much cash. When the settlement is carried out we agree to release and discharge said R. H. Rawles, as Administrator, from all further liability or demand whatever. Nov. 29th, 1909.

In Chancery.

A. A. Holland and others,

Defendants.

Commissioner's office,

Suffolk, Va. November 27, 1909.

To Honorable James L. McLemore, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond:

In pursuance of the decree of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond pronounced on the 22nd. day of October 1909, in the suit in chancery pending in said court between R. H.
Rawles, Administrator of the estate of Z. T. Holland, deceased, Complainant and A. A. Holland and others, Defendants, the undersigned, Bradford Kilby, one of the commissioners in chancery of said court, respectfully reports as follows:

That on the 27th. day of October 1909, your commissioner gave notice to the parties to said suit that he would proceed on the 27th. day of November 1909, at his office in Suffolk, Va. to make the several inquiries required by said decree to be made by one of the commissioners in chancery of said court, and that on the same day he gave notice to all other parties interested in the distribution of the estate of Z. T. Holland, deceased, by publication of ^{similar} same in the Suffolk Herald for four successive weeks.

That sufficient and legal service of the notice was duly accepted by the parties to said suit as will appear by the endorsations on the various notices returned herewith and made a part of this report.

That from the information which your commissioner has obtained, he reports as follows:

That no person or persons appeared to set up any claim or demand as to the estate of said Z. T. Holland, or any part thereof, except the heirs at law and distributees of said Z. T. Holland, deceased, and therefore he reports that the following are the only heirs at law and distributees of said estate and that they alone are entitled to receive said estate and that the said R. H. Rawles, Administrator, be directed to pay the said estate over to them in the proportions indicated below, to-wit:

To A. A. Holland	One tenth
" J. G. Holland	One tenth
" Owen C. Holland	One tenth
" Annie Everett	One tenth
" Sallie C. Joyner	One tenth
" Lettie H. Elam	One tenth

The above named six people are the only children of W. T. Holland who was the only brother of Z. T. Holland, deceased.

To I. A. Luke	One tenth
" W. R. Luke	One tenth
" Alice Sykes	One tenth
" the children of Mrs.

Brockett.	One tenth.
-----------	------------

The said I. A. Luke, W. R. Luke, Alice Sykes, and Mrs. Brockett are the only children of Mrs. Luke, a sister of Z. T. Holland, deceased.

Mrs. Brockett being dead, her five children are, each entitled to received one-fifth of her distributive share or one-fiftieth of the entire estate, as follows:

John B. Brockett	One fiftieth
Flora H. McMullin	One fiftieth

D. Guy Brockett	One fiftieth
Gladys Brockett	One fiftieth
Clyde W. Brockett	One fiftieth

A paper or document having been filed in this cause, signed by all the adult defendants, showing that an offer had been made to them to pay them the gross sum of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars for the entire personal and chattel estate of said Z. T. Holland, deceased, and upon investigation, it appearing that this offer is a fair and just value of said personal estate, including cash on hand and evidences of debt, your commissioner recommends that said offer be accepted, and that the administrator be allowed to sell and dispose of said personal estate for that sum, said sale to include also the interests of the infant defendants who are hereafter to be settled with on that basis.

Your commissioner deems it pertinent to report that the personal estate is liable for a collateral inheritance tax under section under section 44a, page 2219 of Tax Bill of the Code of Virginia. This tax would amount to $2500. on $50,000.00 the same being 5% on every $100.

There are no other matters deemed pertinent to report by your commissioner or required by any party to be so reported.

Respectfully submitted this day of November 1909.

Bradford Kilby

Commissioner in Chancery.

Return to R. H. Rawles Suffolk Va

Commissioner's Office,

Suffolk, Va.

March 1st. 1909.

To the Honorable James L. McLemore, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond:

In pursuance of the decree of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond in the State of Virginia, pronounced on the 11th. day of January 1909, in the chancery cause pending in said court between R. H. Rawles, Administrator of Z. T. Holland, deceased, Complainant, and A. A. Holland and others, Defendants, the undersigned Bradford Kilby, one of the Commissioners in Chancery of the said court, respectfully reports as follows:

That on the 18th. of February 1909, your commissioner gave notice to the parties to the said suit that he would proceed on the first day of March 1909 at his office in Suffolk, Virginia, to make the several inquiries required by said decree to be made by one of the commissioners in chancery of said court.

That sufficient and legal service of said notice was duly accepted by or served on the parties to said suit as will appear from the endorsements on the copies of the notice herewith returned.

That in pursuance of said decree and notice, your commissioner reports as follows:

I.

That the account of the transactions of R. H. Rawles, Administrator of Z. T. Holland, deceased, has been stated and is returned herewith as a part of this report. The said account embraces the transactions of said administrator up to February 12th. 1909, and shows the cash received by him, ^{and} the disbursements made which disbursements are supported by satisfactory proof and vouchers. It also shows the loans made by said administrator and how secured. The total amount of cash received by said administrator, the disbursements made and the total of loans made, together with balance of cash now on hand, is shown in statement summarizing said transactions, on the following page.

Total cash collected.		$44,998.43
Disbursements supported by satisfactory vouchers.	2,785.79
Loans secured by deed of trust or otherwise.	19,295.37	22,081.16
Balance of cash on hand		22,917.27

The account does not show the bonds and evidences of debt now held by said administrator and how secured, except in regard to those loans made by said administrator from cash collected by him. It also does not show the credits allowed by said administrator on debts collected from notes and bonds where said notes or bonds do not show credits on their face. Information covering the above points will be submitted to the court by the administrator in his final report.

Because of litigation which is, or is about to be instituted by claimants under an alleged will, said claimants not being heirs at law of said Z.T. Holland, deceased, your commissioner is unable to report to court, at this time, who the proper parties are among whom the said estate shall finally be distributed and the respective proportions thereof to which each of said parties may be entitled.

3.

Your commissioner recommends that the administrator be allowed to deposit the cash he now has on hand in bank, on time certificates, to bear interest at the rate of four per cent, in view of the threatened litigation mentioned above which makes it impossible for said administrator to know when and for whom said funds may be needed for distribution.

Respectfully submitted this first day of March 1909.

Bradford Kilby,
Commissioner in Chancery.

In view of pending and threatened litigation over the estate by claimants under an alleged will, and who are not heirs at law of Z. T. Holland, deceased, your administrator is in great doubt as to the best disposition to make of the cash in hand so as to safely keep and have the same when called for. He cannot make beneficial ~~le~~ loans with it to good advantage, because he does not know and cannot tell, when and for whom it might be called in; and he therefore respectfully prays the court to allow him to deposit same at least for a time in bank, at usual bank rates of interest, subject to the further order of the court.

The administrator reports that he has on hand all the bonds and notes due the estate which came into his hands, except such as have been collected as shown in the foregoing report. Most of the bonds are secured by deeds of trust on real estate, and the notes generally by personal endorsement; and in many cases the security is of doubtful value, which fact appears from the report of the appraisers in which they divided said notes into three classes, scheduling them 1st as solvent; 2nd as doubtful; 3rd as insolvent. Your administrator further reports that as to some of the bonds which he has collected he had to accept less for them in payment than appeared to be due on their face, as parties in several instances produced receipts showing they were entitled to credits which the notes and bonds did not show, and in most of these instances, where the parties would allow him to do so, kept the receipts, and will on the final report submit them as showing why the credits were allowed.

Your administrator further reports that he has been greatly hampered in the collection of debts by the fact that certain parties have begun proceedings to perpetuate testimony, with a view of establishing an alleged will of Z. T. Holland, deceased, all of which is respectfully submitted.
