SUFFOLK, VA.,-----, 1908.

DEAR SIR:

As Administrator of the estate of the late Z. T. Holland I hold a bond against you secured by deed of trust on your land. The heirs are demanding that I shall proceed to collect all indebtedness at once, so that a settlement may be made. Therefore, I will not be able to continue the loan for you any longer, and you must make arrangements to take up the same.

Come right down to see me and bring enough to pay the interest to date and as much as you can on the principal. The whole must be fully paid up by the Fall of the year. I would suggest that you look around and see if you cannot get some one to take it up for you.

I am always at home on Saturday.

Very truly,

H . Laderberg and J. Strubinsky

VS

B. Laderberg.

Of the Honorable James L. McLeMore Judge of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, Virginia.

H. Laderberg Humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honor your orator H. Laderberg and J. Strubinsky the following case.

Your orators say that on the ²¹~~23~~ day of February, 1910 the said H. Laderberg instituted an action at law against B. Laderberg in said Court for the recovery of the sum of $709.00 and thereupon caused an attachment to be issued from the Clerks Office of the said Court against the goods and chattels of the said B. Laderberg in the said County which said attachment was by the Sheriff of said County levied upon the stock of merchandise of the said B. Laderberg contained in the Jones building on the corner of Main and Washinton Streets in the Town of Suffolk, Virginia; and they further say that on the --- day of February 1910 the said J. Strubinsky on a warrant recovered judgment before J. F. DeBerry, A Justice of the Peace for Nansemond Count Virginia, against the said B. Laderberg for the sum of $20.90 and also had before securing said judgment on the --- day of February 1910 caused an attachment to issue on said warrant agai the said merchandise of the said B. Laderberg which said attachm was levied by the sergeant of the Town of Suffolk, Virginia on said stock of merchandise in the said store.

Your orators further say that the the said stock of merchandise is now liable for rent due by said B. Laderberg to Sallie J. Jones of Suffolk, Virginia, for the use of said premises in the sum of about $180.00 which your orators are informed constitutes a prior lien on said stock of merchandise and they further say that said rent at the rate of $85.00 per month is still accruing against the said B.

Laderberg and the said merchandise ^{they are informed and believe that same} and will continue to accrue at the same rate as long as the said merchandise remains in the said store house; they furthersay that they are informed and believe and therefore allege that there is no insurance on said stock of merchandise and that under the present state of affairs none can ~~merchandise~~ be effected thereon and that the said stock of merchandise is liable at any time to total destruction by fire; they also are informed and believe and therefore allege that a good part of the said merchandise consists of candies, confectioneries and other perishable goods which unless soon disposed of will become worthless.

Your orators further say that they are informed and believe and therefore allege that the said B. Laderberg together with his wife and all the members of his family have absolutely abandoned the said stock of merchandise and have gone to parts unknown to your orators; that the said defendant had made no disposition whatever for the safe keeping of said goods or for the sale thereof nor has he made any effort to pay or discharge the said claims of your orators or any part thereof.

Your orators therefore believe and charge that it will be for the best interests of themselves and all other parties in interest that the said stock of merchandise be committed to the hands of some competent person appointed by this court and that the same be disposed of and converted into cash to be held until the further order of this court.

In tender consideration whereof and forasmuch as your orators are remediless in the premises save by the aid of a court of equity where such matters are alone and properly cognizable your orators pray that the said B. Laderberg may be made a party defendant to this bill and required to answer same though ~~an~~ an answer under oath is hereby waived; that proper process may be issued; that a receiver may be appointed and required to take immediate possession of the said stock of merchandise and all other effects of the said B. Laderberg and dispose of the same after due notice by public auction or private sale either in parcels or in bulk as may seem to said receiver best; that an inventory may be taken of said stock of merchandise and other effects and filed with the papers in this cause; and that the ~~all proper accounts may be taken; and that the proceeds arising from a sale of the said merchandise and effects may be deposited by the receiver in this case in the Bank of Suffolk to the credit of this cause until the further order of this court; and for all such other further and general relief as this case may require or as to equity shall seem meet and proper;~~ and notice is hereby given that the court will be asked to allow a proper and reasonable attorneys fee to compalinants, counsel conducting this cause for services rendered herein;

And your orators will ever pray&.
