IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF NANSEMOND, IN THE STATE OF VIRGINIA

CAMP MANUFACTURING COMPANY, plaintiff, against

E. J. Howell and Mary A. Howell, defendants.

The general object of the foregoing suit now pending in the above named court under the style above given is to enforce the specific performance by the defendants of a contract, dated december 14th 1910, made by said defendants with said plaintiff, for the sale of the standing timber, and certain rights and privileges in connection therewith as set forth in said agreement or contract, upon a certain tract of land in Nansemond County, Virginia, in Holy Neck Magisterial District, containing 190 acres, more or less, and bounded by the lands of Mills E. Howell, C. C. Barden and others, it being the same identical tract of land that was conveyed to the said E. J. Howell by Mills E. Howell and wife, by deed bearing date the 7th day of October 1899 and recorded in the clerk's office of Nansemond county, Virginia, in deed book No. 44 at page 113; the timber thus contracted to be conveyed being all the timber except oak on the said tract of land that will measure ten inches in diameter or larger, at the time of cutting, on the tree stump at a point 15 inches above the ground, and the said rights and privileges being such as were set forth in the form of deed used in buying timber by said Camp Manfg. Co., at the date of said contract. The object of this suit being to force the said defendants to comply with the terms of said contract and execute a deed to said plaintiff for the said timber and rights and privileges.

Given under the signature of said plaintiff by P. D. Camp, its President, and under the corporate seal of the said plaintiff, this 31st day of July 1912.

CAMP MANUFACTURING COMPANY, by

P. D. Camp President.

STATE OF VIRGINIA,

Isle of Wight County, Te-wit:

I, C. W. Gary, a Notary Public for the County aforesaid, in the State of Virginia do certify that P. D. Camp, whose name is signed to the foregoing writing, bearing date the 31st day of July 1912, has acknowledged the same before me in my county aforesaid as President of Camp Manufacturing Company, and at the same time made affidavit that he was President of said Company and has full power and authority to sign the said writing and acknowledge same and to make this affidavit.

Given under my hand this 31st day of July 1912.
