Q. You are the husband of Julia Anderson Dunning and the complainant in this suit, are you not.

A. Yes.

Q. Please state, under oath, whether Bill of Complaint which you have filed in this case is true or not.

A. Yes sir, it is true.

Q. Please state what took place between your wife and yourself on the 5th day of June, 1914, at which time you allege in Bill of Complaint your wife forced you to leave, stating what she did and said to you at that time.

A. Well, you know, she told me to get out of the house and it was then that she took the church money. It was on Saturday, the 5th day of June, 1914.

Q. State the circumstances under which you left the house.

A. The circumstances. Well, I just left, that was when she was carrying on so bad, I just took my stuff and got out and left. I was treasurer of the church and kept my church money in my trunk. She took this money and accused me of taking it from the church, and made a complaint against me in church about this money. My wife told me that she did not need the money but that she just wanted to down me in the church. About six o'clock in the evening on the 5th of June, 1914, my wife told me that she would not live with me again that she did not want me then and that she never would live with me again. She abused me and stated that she w would not live under the roof with me or any other man again. She told me that she could pay her own rent and did not want me to come around her or have anything to do with her. Several times before that when I would come from my work I would find the door locked to keep me out and she would not let me come in. In June, 1914, and for two or three months before that she ordered me away a lot of times and threatened to hit me. She spit in my face and pushed me but I could see that she just wanted me to do something so she could have me arrested. The reason that I took it from her was that I did not want to get in jail or have any trouble of that kind with her. I went back several times and offered to live with her and to take care of her but she refused to allow me to come back at any time. She would not let me in the house, ordered me away.

Q. Did you support her and take care of her to the best of your means as long as she would let you stay with her.

Q. Have you lived with your wife since June, 1914, at any time.

A. No.

Q. Please state where you reside and for how long.

A. I live in Nansemond County, in Virginia, and have lived here since 1914.

Q. Where does your wife, Julia Anderson Dunning, live.

A. She lives in New York State.

And further this deponent saith not.

John T. Dunning

Richard Taylor being duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q. Please state your name, age, residence, and occupation.

A. Richard Taylor, age 47, residence 87 Rockwell Place, Brooklyn, New York. I am chauffeur for an automobile company.

Q. How long have you known the parties to this suit, John T. Dunning and Julia Anderson Dunning.

A. I have been knowing them since 1913.

Q. Please state where you lived in 1913-1914.

A. I lived with John Dunning and Julia Dunning in 1913 and until they separated in 1914.

Q. How often did you see them up to the time of their separation in June 1914.

A. I saw them pretty often until we left. When I was not there my wife was and the day and we both were there nights.

Q. Please state the circumstances of their separation and when it took place.

A. I was living with them at 114 Detroit Avenue, Brooklyn, in June, 1914, when they separated.

Q. State the circumstances of their separation.

A. She did not want John to stay with her any more and she was tired living with him. She had rather live by herself than be with him, and to spite him she went and had a key made to unlock his trunk to take the church money so she could bust him out from going to Mount Lebanon Church, and get him in bad . I was there when the Rev. Brooks, pastor, came to ask her kindly to give him the church money and she told him that she was not going to give it to him now, that she was going to keep it until she got ready to give it back.

Q. How did she treat her husband during the months of April and May, 1914.

A. I was there several months before he left and she did not cook or wash for him. He had to carry his washing out to some of the neighbors and get them to do it. Then she would l lock the door and not let him come in.

Q. What did you hear her tell him.

A. I heard her tell John that she would not wash for him any more that she did not want him to live under her roof where she lives at. She drove holes in the cooking tools to keep him from cooking for himself. She said she did not want him under her roof and that he did not need any cooking. So John, he did not know anything to do and he took his trunk went away to stay. He had two girls, she said he had to take care of them she said he could have the girls she did not want them.

Q. Did he take the children with him when he left.

A. No, she brought the two girls to him but she kept their clothes and John had to go out and buy them some new clothes. After that she stole one of the children back from him. The oldest one has been with her father since she left and he has taken care of her. The oldest one is fourteen years and the youngest one is about seven years old.

Q. State whether John came to go back and take care of her after he was driven away and his wife would not have him.

A. John came back to her and offered to live with her and to pay her rent but she said she did not want any dern man under her roof that she could pay her own rent and would not have him back in the house and closed the door in his face. I asked her to let him in to see her but she would not let him come back.

Q. Where does John Dunning live now and how long has he lived there.

A. Lloyd Place, Nansemond County, he has lived there since 1914.

Q. State how John Dunning treated his wife and whether he gave her any cause to threaten him or to drive him away at any time.

A. No, he did not. He treated his wife all right as far as I know.

Q. Did he treat her all right and give her money to spend.

A. Yes.

Q. Was there any way that John Dunning could stay with his wife.

A. No, sir.

And further this deponent saith not.

JOHN T. DUNNING.....COMPLAINANT.

VS.....BILL.....

JULIA ANDERSON DUNNING.....DEFENDANT.

To the Honorable Circuit Court of Nansemond County:

Your complainant, John T. Dunning, respectfully represents:

(1) That on the 10th day of January, 1904, your complainant, John T. Dunning, was lawfully married in Hertford County, North Carolina to Julia Anderson Dunning, whose maiden name was Julia Anderson, as will appear from a certificate of marriage herewith filed, marked "EXHIBIT-A", and made a part of this bill; and,

(2) That continuously from the date of the said marriage until the 5th day of June, 1914, your complainant and the said Julia Anderson Dunning, lived together as husband and wife; and,

(3) That the said Julia Anderson Dunning has wilfully deserted your complainant for a period of more than three years, that is to say, on the 5th day of June, 1914, the said Julia Anderson Dunning, did voluntarily, wilfully, and without any justification whatever leave your complainant; immediately before, the said Julia Anderson Dunning told your complainant to leave her, that he should not stay with her any more, she did not want him and she forced and compelled him to leave the house; shortly before the said separation, the said John T. Dunning was treasurer of a church and kept the church money in his trunk, his wife, the said Julia Anderson Dunning went in his trunk, after having a man come in from the street and make a key for the trunk for her, and took Forty ($40.00) Dollars out of the church money out of your complainant's trunk. After she took this money out, she accused your complainant of taking the money from the church and made that accusation to the church in order to disgrace and humiliate him. The said defendant told your complainant at the time that she did not need the money but that she took the money in order to damage his standing in the church. About 6 P. M. on June 5th, 1914, the said John T. Dunning was forced to leave his wife under the following circumstances: About 6 o'clock P. M. on the 5th day of June, 1914, the said Julia Anderson Dunning told your complainant to leave the house, that the Spirit had told her not to live with any man, she at that time being a sanctified member of the Salvation Army. At the same time she stated to your complainant that she never expected to live with him or any other man under the roof with her. She said that she could pay her own rent and could look out for herself the balance of her time. Your complainant endeavored in every way to make the relations between himself and his wife agreeable, but he was being constantly ordered away and threatened and abused by his wife, she threatened both to beat him and to have him arrested. When he would go to his work and come back she would lock the door on him to keep him out. After leaving, your complainant went back to her and talked with her and asked her to live with him again which she refused to do. Your complainant was compelled and forced by the said Julia Anderson Dunning to leave her and stay away from her in such a way as above outlined as to constitute voluntary and wilful desertion on her part without any justification whatever; and,

(4) That your complainant has resided and has been domiciled in this state for more than one year next preceding the commencement of this suit, and is domiciled and now resides in this state; and,

(5) That the defendant, Julia Anderson Dunning is not a resident of the State of Virginia, and that your complainant is domiciled and resides in the County of Nansemond, State of Virginia:

In consideration whereof, and for as much as your complainant is remediless in the premises save in a court of equity, your complainant prays that the said Julia Anderson Dunning may be made a party defendant to this bill, and required, but not on oath to answer the same, the oath being hereby waived; that proper process may be issued; that a divorce from the bond of matrimony which was created by the aforesaid marriage be decreed him; that your complainant may have all such further and other and general relief as the nature of his case may require, or to equity shall seem meet.
