vs.)
)
J. S. Rabey and E. B. Rawles, Sheriff.)

This cause having come on this day to be heard upon the original and amended bills of complaint, the exhibits filed with each, the answer of J. S. Rabey, and the testimony of various witnesses taken by consent of counsel for the complainant and the defendants orally in open court, and was argued by counsel, on consideration whereof the court doth order, adjudge and decree that those two certain judgments appearing of record in the Clerk's Office of Nansemond County, one against S. A. Moore and the other against R. J. Moore alone in favor of the said J. S. Rabey, respectively, for $500.00 as of September 10. 1920, and disclosed in judgment lien docket number 4. page 72; and for $100.00 as of September 28, 1920, and disclosed in judgment lien docket number 4, page 73, together with the executions thereon, the resultant levies by the sheriff, and the powers of attorney therein expressed, purporting to authorize the confession of the said judgments be, and they are hereby annulled and avoided without prejudice, however, to either party as to any further issue involved herein, or as to any further or later effort on the part of the said J. S. Rabey to collect or enforce the collection of any sum of money which he may claim to be due and owing to him by the said R. J. Moore.

And the clerk of this court is directed to endorse on the margin of the book where each of the above judgments are docketed, "annulled by decree of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County," thence subscribing the number of the order book in which this decree is entered and its page.
