VIRGINIA,

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF NANSEMOND COUNTY.

Dempsey Reid

vs.

Jennie Reid

In Chancery.

To the Honorable James T. McLemore, Judge of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County:

Your orator humbly complaining would respectfully show unto your honor that:-

F I R S T

He resides in Nansemond County, Virginia, and has been domiciled in this state more than one year next preceding the institution of this suit.

S E C O N D

On the 1st day of November, 1908, in the County of Nansemond, Virginia, your orator was married to the defendant as will appear from a copy of the marriage license herewith filed in this with whom he lived and cohabited until the ___ day of May, 1919. exhibit A.

T H I R D

During their said marriage, to-wit: on the ___ day of May, 1919, in said County of Nansemond, Virginia, where they last cohabited and likewise where the defendant now resides, your orator's said wife disregarding her marriage vow did abandon and desert him without justification, cause or excuse, wherein she did deliberately and voluntarily leave his house and place of abode and went to Huntersville, Virginia, to live, where she has since that time resided and does now reside.

F O U R T H

Since the desertion aforesaid, your orator has repeatedly been to prevail upon and request his said wife to return which she has equally repeatedly declined and refused.

F I F T H

Wherefore, ^{for}asmuch as your orator is remediless, save in a court of equity, where matters of this sort are properly cognizable, he prays that his said wife, Jennie Reid, be made a party defendant to this bill and be required to answer the same, but an answer under oath is waived; that upon the hearing, your honor will grant unto your orator a divorce a mensa et thoro from the said defendant, Jennie Reid, and that thence this cause may be dismissed from the docket with leave to your orator to have the same reinstated in the absence of reconciliation or reconviction when three years shall have elapsed from the date of desertion aforesaid, to the end and for the purpose of applying to this court for a permanent divorce from the bond of matrimony.

And your orator prays for such other, further, and general relief as in equity is meet and proper, and your orator will ever pray, etc.

Dempsey Reid.
