BILL

Hannah L. Faison.....Defendant.

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF NANSEMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA:

Your complainant, John N. Faison, respectfully represents:

(1) That on the 26th day of December, 1895, your complainant and the said defendant, whose maiden name was Hannah Lavinia Parker, were lawfully married in Nansemond County, Virginia, as will appear from a certificate of marriage herewith filed, marked "EXHIBIT A", and made a part of this bill; and,

(2) That continuously from date of said marriage until the 15th day of April, 1918, your complainant and the said defendant lived together as husband and wife in Nansemond County, Virginia; and,

(3) That the said Hannah L. Faison has wilfully deserted and abandoned your said complainant for a period of more than three years; that is to say, that on or about, to-wit: the 15th day of April, 1918, the said Hannah L. Faison did voluntarily, wilfully and without any justification whatever leave your said complainant's home in Nansemond County, Virginia; that the time she left she intended to leave permanently and has many times subsequent to leaving expressed her intention to leave him and never return to him, and she has never returned and continually expresses her intention to never return; and,

(4) That your complainant last lived with the said Hannah L. Faison, as man and wife, in Nansemond County, Virginia; and that your complainant has not lived with her since the 15th day of April, 1918; and,

(5) That your complainant has resided and has been domiciled in this state since the aforesaid marriage, and for more than one year next preceding the commencement of this suit, and is domiciled and now resides in this state, in Norfolk County, Virginia.

In consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your complainant is remediless in the premises save in a court of equity, your complainant prays that the said Hannah L. Faison may be made a party defendant to this bill, and required, but not on oath, to answer the same, the oath being hereby waived; that proper process may be issued; that a divorce from the bond of matrimony which was created by the aforesaid marriage be decreed him, and that your complainant may have all such further, and other, and general relief in the premises as the nature of his case may require, or to equity or good conscience shall seem meet.
