The depositions of Angeline Davis, Spurgon Parker and Olivia Freeman Smith, were taken before me, C.L. Lewis, a Notary Public, in and for the City of Suffolk, State of Virginia, on the 24th day of September, 1925, between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. of that date, pursuant to due notice to defendant by order of publication, published, as required by law, to be read as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain suit in equity pending in the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, Virginia, Virginia, wherein Olivia Freeman Smith is the complainant and Junius Henry Smith is the defendant.

ANGELINE DAVIS, being duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q. Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?

A. Angeline Davis, 43 years of age, Philadelphia Suburbs, Nansemond County, Virginia.

Q. How long have you known Olivia Freeman Smith and Junius Henry Smith?

A. I have known Olivia Freeman Smith for the last nineteen years and have known Junius Henry Smith since he married Olivia Freeman Smith.

Q. Where does Olivia Freeman Smith live now, and how long has she lived there.

A. She lives on Wellons Street Extended which is in Philadelphia Suburbs, Nansemond County, Virginia, and has lived there for about eleven years.

Q. Where were Olivia Freeman Smith and Junius Henry Smith living at the time of their separation?

A. At the time of their separation Olivia Freeman Smith and Junius Henry Smith were living on Wellons Street Extended, Philadelphia Suburbs, Nansemond County, Virginia, at the same place she is living now.

Q. Please state whether they are living together now; if not, which one left the other and under what circumstances?

A. No sir they are not living together now. He left her during the first week in August, 1919. At the time he left Olivia Freeman Smith was sick in bed under Doctor's care. He was lazy and would not work. Olivia Freeman Smith worked all the time and he didn't do anything but loaf during the time they lived together. Then when she got sick and he didn't have anybody to t work for him he left her. While they were living together she supported him and took care of him in every way and he did not work at all. After she became sick and confined in her bed he fussed and quarrelled with her all the time and found fault with her because she could not get up and go to work. I lived the third door from them and saw them often and helped take care of her during her sickness. Her husband would not do anything at all for her. Something like a week before he left he told me that he was tired of being married and living with his wife and that he was going to leave and was never coming back. He left sometime during the first week in August, 1919, and I have never seen him since.

Angeline Davis #2

Q. Do you know whether he was going with any other women or not?

A. I do not know that of my own knowledge but it was the general report in the neighborhood that he was going with some other woman all the time his wife was sick.

Q. Did she give him any cause to leave and what kind of a wife did she make him?

A. No sir she did not give him any cause to leave her at all. She has always been a quiet, settled and hard-working woman ever since I have known her. She is now cooking for Mrs. J.D. McClenney and she worked all the time she was married to Junius Henry Smith until she became sick in bed. She made him a good and faithful wife in every way.

Q. What was he quarrelling about?

A. He was quarrelling with her all the time because she wasn not working. I knew myself that she was unable to work but yet he continued to fuss because she could not and would not get out of bed and work for him which she was unable to do.

Angeline Davis #3

And further this deponent saith not.

Angeline Davis

SPURGON PARKER, being duly sworn deposes as follows:

- Q. Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?
- A. Spurgon Parker, 41 years old, Wellons Street Extended, Hansemond County, Virginia, Jitney Driver.
- Q. How long have you known Olivia Freeman Smith and Junius Henry Smith, her husband?
- A. I have been knowing Olivia Freeman Smith for about fifteen years and I knew him for about two or three months before he married her in April, 1919.
- Q. Where did you live at the time of their marriage and separation and about how often did you see them?
- A. At the time of both their marriage and separation, which was from April 1919 to the first week in August, 1919, I lived the second door from them on Wellons Street Extended and saw both of them practically every day.
- Q. Which one left the other and when?
- A. He left her the first week in August, 1919.
- Q. State the circumstances of their separation?
- A. Well to begin with I was very much surprised when Olivia Freeman Smith married her husband Junius Henry Smith because I knew he hung out with several fast women in Saratoga Place and I knew that she was a quiet woman and a good woman. After he married her he did not do very much work himself but she worked and took care of him and her too. He was a very dissipated man, drank a good deal, gambled and spent a large part of his time with fast women in Saratoga Place, both before his marriage to Olivia Freeman Smith and while he was living with her. I knew of many nights that he did not come home at all but stayed in Saratoga Place. Whenever his wife would ask him anything about where he had been he cursed and abused her and called her many bad names.

Spurgon Parker #2

About three weeks before he left her she was taken down sick in bed and was unable to work. From his talk to me and in my presence he seemed to be much more dissatisfied after that and stated that he was going to leave.

Q. What kind of a wife did Olivia Freeman Smith make her husband Junius Henry Smith?

A. She made him a good and faithful wife, worked hard for him until she became sick and practically supported him. So far as I know she did not give him any cause at all to leave her or to refuse to support her;

Q. What was the character of Junius Henry Smith?

A. He was a man of bad character and bad habits and was considered in that way by the whole neighborhood.

And further this deponent saith not.

Spurgon Parker

OLIVIA FREEMAN SMITH, being duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q. Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?

A. Olivia Freeman Smith, 33 years of age, Wellons Street Extended, Mansemond County, Virginia, Cook.

Q. Are you the complainant in this suit?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Please state when and where you were married to Junius Henry Smith?

A. I was married to Junius Henry Smith on April 19, 1919, on Wellons Street Extended, Mansemond County, Virginia.

Q. Where were you living at that time and how long had you lived there?

A. I was living on Wellons Street Extended at that time and had lived there for five years.

Q. Are you and your husband living together now; if not, which one left the other and under what circumstances?

A. No sir my husband and myself are not living together now. We lived together from the time we were married on April 19, 1919, until the first week in August, 1919, at which time he left me. I was sick in bed under the Doctor's care at that time and was not able to do any work at all. After we got married my husband did very little work. I was working at the time of our marriage and continued to work after that and the house we lived in was furnished to me and I bought the most of the provisions. About three weeks before he left I was taken down sick in bed. As soon as I got so I could not work he began to fuss and quarrel all the time because I was not working. Several days before he left he told me that he was going to leave and was not coming back. I asked him to stay and help me while I was sick and tried to get him to do so but he would not do anything at all for me. While I was sick he received a letter from a woman by the name of "Estelle" which I saw telling him to come home to her and calling him her husband and saying that one of their children had died. I asked him about that while I was sick in bed and he denied that the letter was for him at all, but at the same time said he was going to leave and was never coming back. I have never seen him since he left me nor have I heard from him.

Q. Where were you and your husband Junius Henry Smith living at the time he left you?

A. On Wellons Street Extended in Nansemond County, Virginia.

Q. How long had you lived there?

A. I had lived there for about five years before we were married and I still live there now.

Q. Was he cruel to you in any way while you lived with him as his wife?

A. He quarrelled with me one night about a week before he left and started to hit me while I was in bed but Caroline Smith grabbed him and kept him from striking me.

And further this deponent saith not.
