LURA E. RABEY.....COMPLAINANT :
vs. :
: IN
: CHANCERY.
GEORGIANNA RABEY, SARAH R. DUKE, and :
E.K. RABEY.....DEFENDANTS :

The joint and separate answer of Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke to an amended Bill of Complaint exhibited against them and E.K. Rabey in the Circuit Court of Nansemond by Lura E. Rabey, complainant.

These respondents reserving to themselves the benefit of all just exceptions to said Bill of Complaint as amended, for answer thereto, or to so much thereof as they are advised that it is material they should answer, answer and say:

(1). That as to paragraph "First" that the said Emeline E. Rabey left surviving her nine children; this is true but said Bill fails to enumerate more than eight; that the name omitted is J.S. Rabey.

(2). That they believe that the description of the property of which Emeline E. Rabey died seized and possessed as set out in paragraph "Second" is correct but call for strict proof thereof.

(3). That they believe as true the allegations as set out in paragraph "Third", "Fourth" and "Fifth".

(4). That the complainant and your respondents are each seized of seven twenty-fourths interests in the said land subject to the terms and conditions of the contract referred to in paragraph "Ninth" and filed as Exhibit "A" with the Bill, but deny that E.K. Rabey is seized of any interest therein.

(5). That from the time of the death of A.J. Rabey Senior in 1892 until the death of A.J. Rabey Jr. in 1926, the complainant, your respondents and said A.J. Rabey Jr. lived together with different children of Emeline E. Rabey on said land and from 1901 to said death of A.J. Rabey they lived there without any of the other children of said Emeline E.

Rabey and as a general rule the profits arising therefrom were equally divided in four parts but on several occasions when the yearly profits were supposed to be equally divided they were not.

(6). That after the death of A.J. Rabey Jr, in 1926, the complainant and your respondents continued to live together on said farm until November 1st, 1926, when the complainant freely and voluntarily left the said farm against the wishes of your respondents and despite their earnest solicitations that she remain. That the complainant had expressed a desire often during the ten years prior to her departure to have all parties concerned to dispose of the said farm and live among surroundings of more ease and comfort during the remainder of her life as she was tired of the inconveniences of country life and the hard work incident to the operation of the farm and domestic cares therewith connected, and in the year 1919 when there was great activity in real estate at a time when an offer was made to purchase the farm at a fancy price she became very much vexed with the other parties in interest because they were unwilling to sell. That from said time on she was very much dissatisfied with remaining thereon realizing that the proceeds derived from such a sale would enable her to live some place else more to her liking. That the complainant has always been of a domineering nature and disposition and was accustomed to make plans and have the others accede thereto and therefore managed to a great extent the actions of the other occupants relative to matters about the house and farm. She to a great extent handled the finances of the parties and resented very often the requests of the other occupants for information concerning an accounting of the finances. That a few months before the death of A.J. Rabey Jr. in June 1926, the complainant became very much incensed with the said A.J. Rabey Jr, and things then reached an acute stage because the said A.J. Rabey Jr. requested of her an accounting, or explanation of some trivial financial undertaking and repeatedly before his death declared the then present year would be her last on the farm. That after the death of A.J. Rabey Jr. the complainant took complete charge of financial matters and failed and refused to consult the remaining two co-tenants residing there, which failure the respondent, Georgianna Rabey, would resent and because the complainant could not further continue to dominate matters without some objection on the part of Georgianna Rabey she gave that as an excuse for leaving. That at the time of her departure your respondents attempted in every way they could to get her to remain but were unsuccessful. That the real reasons for the complainant leaving was because she could not absolutely dictate the conduct of the others and especially because she thought she would be able to have a portion of the said land assigned her for her separate estate therein, that she could dispose of same by deed and with the proceeds thereof live in the city the rest of her years amid comforts and convenience and escape any drudgery or hard tasks incumbent on her amid her then surroundings. They deny that Susie L. Rabey came back to the farm after the death of A.J. Rabey Jr. but state that on or about the 4th day of March, 1926, and therefore more than sixty days prior to the death of A.J. Rabey Jr., the said A.J. Rabey Jr. then being sick and the complainant Lura E. Rabey then being also ill, they felt themselves handicapped in the domestic affairs of the household by reason of the extra duties because of said illness in the home, they requested the said Susie L. Rabey to return to them, which the said Susie L. Rabey did at a great personal sacrifice it being necessary for her to refuse several flattering offers of positions in her chosen profession of teaching and during the illness of said A.J. Rabey Jr. did a great deal of the necessary nursing. That after his death the said Susie L. Rabey remained with the complainant and your respondents, she having been requested by the said A.J. Rabey Jr. while on his death bed so to do and she having promised him that she would. They deny that said Susie L. Rabey ever claimed equal authority with the complainant and your respondents but on the other hand dispatched and fulfilled all the duties and tasks requested of her by the others and lived there subject to the wishes and desires of the said parties. That had the said complainant made an honest effort to co-operate in the management of the joint affairs and restrained to some extent her dictatorial manner in the conduct of their joint affairs matters would have run as smooth as ever but your respondents state that the complainant had become dissatisfied with rural life and whereas she was loathe to leave while her brother was living she began after his death to bring about discord with her sisters so that a sale could be made of the place. That since she left said farm the same has been operated in as successful a manner as before her departure, except as to such difficulties brought on by her departure, despite the fact that her departure was at an inopportune time. That there is no reason why the complainant cannot live on the said farm if she has a real desire to do so. Your respondents were very much grieved at her departure and would welcome her return.

(7). Your respondents are very much opposed to partition in kind or sale of the said farm and emphatically deny the right of the complainant to have partition by reason of the said paper writing mentioned in paragraph "Ninth" of the Bill of Complaint. They state that said writing while ineffectual as a will of the real estate it is a legal, lawful, binding contract, binding upon each of the parties thereto and deny that the same is against public policy and therefore void and unenforceable as being unjust, oppressive, provocative of fraud, strife and ill feeling and breaches of the peace or as constituting undue restraint upon alienation or for any other reason. That to allow the complainant to compel partition in kind or sale of said farm would violate the terms of said contract or agreement and would render null, void and of no effect the very objects for which the same was executed. Under the terms of said paper writing the interests of the complainant and your respondents are so interwoven in the right given by said paper writing for the joint occupancy of the said land that there is no separate and severable interest in any of the parties interested during the time any of them remain on the said farm such that a court could declare a partition in kind or a sale thereof. That by the terms of said paper writing the complainant has forfeited the right to any benefit in said real estate so long as she remains therefrom and your respondents or either of them remain thereon, as she has become dissatisfied and has caused dissension. She is left to her remedy of either accepting the sum of Three Hundred Dollars for her benefit therein or disposing of her interest in said land subject to the rights given your respondents under the terms of said paper writing, or awaiting such a time as your respondents depart therefrom for a partition of said land. Your respondents deny that they have done anything to compel departure of the complainant therefrom. The respondents state that the complainant has always with her dealings with those who disposed of their interest therein contended that they forfeited their benefits therein by their departure therefrom and that she is now estopped to claim that she has any rights in the benefits therefrom so long as she remains away therefrom. They allege that she does not seek the aid of a court of equity with clean hands.

(8). That your respondents deny that the purposes of said contract have wholly failed and that they are incapable of managing and operating the said farm. They state that even though they were incapable of managing and operating the said farm, the objects or purposes of said contract would not fail as they could still have a home there and continue to get an existence without actual farming operations, the purposes of said contract being to insure a home for those who cared to remain thereon. They state that they have been operating and managing said farm successfully with such knowledge of advanced farming as has been so freely given them by said Susie L. Rabey. They deny that they have yielded their rights and prerogatives to said Susie L. Rabey or that said Susie L. Rabey has virtually succeeded in taking entire control of the operations of said farm. They state that said Susie L. Rabey is subservient to their wishes and is a great benefit to them in fulfilling such duties and tasks as are assigned her by them; that by her study and perusal of farm journals and scientific books on farming her advice has been of incalculable benefit to them and that no waste or financial loss has occurred by reason of any advice so given to them by said Susie L. Rabey. They deny that any unfortunate conditions of affairs exist other than such, if any, as might have been brought on by the acts of the complainant herself. If the allegations of the Bill to the effect that but for the alleged interference and assumption of authority by said Susie L. Rabey the affairs of the complainant and her two sisters would continue to run smoothly and successfully are true then your respondents allege that the relief sought in said bill should not be granted the complainant as the said Susie L. Rabey is without any legal rights either of title or possession and occupancy of the said land and the complainant can demand that the said Susie L. Rabey withdraw herself therefrom and in the event she refuses to do, the Courts of this Commonwealth can enjoin her from remaining thereon.

(9). The chattel property on said farm does belong to the complainant and your respondents, provided the complainant returns thereto but by reason of said contract or paper writing, your respondents believe the right to the benefits thereof is postponed until there remains no party upon the said farm.

(10). That the reason there has been no accounting by the complainant and your respondents since the death of A.J. Rabey Jr. is due to the fact that the complainant had charge of all of the finances and that she left without making an accounting and has refused to account to your respondents since her departure, and subsequent to her departure, your respondents contend that the complainant is not entitled to receive any of the benefits arising from said farm since said departure, she having forfeited the same and has not contributed any towards the accumulation thereof.

(11). Your respondents deny that the interest of those entitled to said real estate will be promoted either by a division in kind of the land or a sale and division of the proceeds and state that the interest of all would be promoted by the return of the complainant to the homestead and a resumption of the mode of life prior to the departure of the complainant and that the complainant should be denied any relief in the premises as she is not entitled to the same.

And now having fully answered the complainant's bill, these respondents pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable costs in this behalf expended.

DEMURRER OF GEORGIANNA RABEY and SARAH R. DUKE

The respondents, Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey by their attorney come and say that the bill of complaint in this cause filed is insufficient in law and for grounds of demurrer assign as follows:

First: That the allegations of the said bill of complaint together with the exhibit there^{with} filed marked "Exhibit A" and made a part of the said bill of complaint show that the complainant is not entitled to enforce partition in kind of the real estate mentioned therein or entitled to enforce sale thereof and division of the proceeds, if division in kind is impracticable, because the paper writing executed between the parties thereto dated September 23rd, 1892, a copy of which is made a part of said bill, is a valid, subsisting and enforceable contract, which this court is without power to ignore and by which all parties thereto were and are bound.

Second: That from the allegations and facts stated in said bill of complaint the complainant is not entitled to enforce partition in kind or to enforce sale and division of proceeds if division in kind is impracticable because even though it should be held that the paper writing, a copy of which is filed with and made a part of the Bill of Complaint were to be held a contract against Public Policy and therefore void and unenforceable, the complainant is estopped, by her acts and conduct in dealing with the parties in reference to same, from denying that the paper writing is a valid, subsisting and enforceable contract.

Third: That the complainant is not entitled to maintain this suit in equity for any accounting between the parties thereto for the farming operations for the years 1926 and 1927 because she has a complete, full and adequate remedy at law by virtue of Section 5440a of the Code of Virginia.

Fourth: That before the complainant is entitled to enforce partition or sale of the real estate mentioned in the bill of complaint she must allege and prove that a court of competent jurisdiction shall have declared void and unenforceable the paper writing, a copy of which is filed with said bill marked "Exhibit A", in a suit instituted and conducted for that express purpose.

Fifth: That the bill of complaint is multifarious.

Sixth: That the bill shows that the complainant is without equity and that she does not come into equity with clean hands.

BILL

Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke,
and E. K. Rabey.....Defendants.

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES L. MCLEMORE, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT
OF THE COUNTY OF NANSEMOND:

Your complainant, Lura E. Rabey, respectfully represents the following facts:

First: That Emeline E. Rabey died intestate in September, 1892, in Nansemond County, Virginia, leaving her husband, A. J. Rabey, and nine children, as follows: Peter F. Duke, Sarah R. Duke, E. K. Rabey, J. W. Rabey, A. J. Rabey, Jr., Lura E. Rabey, Georgian-na Rabey and E. S. Rabey.

Second: That said Emeline E. Rabey died seised and possessed of certain land in Holy Neck Magisterial District, Nansemond
County, Virginia, consisting of about four hundred and thirty-two (432) acres, the quantity being a mere estimate, the land not having been surveyed, which said land consists of four tracts or parcels, they being separately described as follows:

(1) The land known as the "Home Tract", estimated to contain two hundred and seventy-five (275) acres, bounded on the North by the county road leading from the new Somerton Road to the old Somerton Road, on the East by the main channel of what is known as "Screech Branch", on the South by the land formerly owned by Burlock Hollins (now Henry Woodward land), and on the West by the lands of Sidwell, Turner and Savage, it being the first tract described in the deed from Sarah Rebecca Duke to Emmeline E. Rabey, dated May 12th, 1884, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County in Deed Book Number 13, page 272.

(2) The land known as the "Fourth Farm" separated from the above described land by the "Screech Branch", containing by estimation one hundred and twenty-five (125) acres, bounded on the North by the lands of R. C. Bunch, on East by New Somerton Road, South by land of Jack Johnson (formerly Savage tract), and West by Main Channel of "Screech
Branch", it being the same land conveyed to Emmeline E.
Rabey by Alexander L. Duke and others by deed dated April
22, 1884, and duly recorded in said Clerk's Office in Deed
Book Number 21, page 188.

(3) That certain parcel of land lying on the north side of said County road connecting the old and new Somerton

Roads, containing by estimation twenty-eight (28) acres and described by B. P. Parker, surveyor, in his survey made May 20, 1876, as follows: "Beginning at a point on the road, a corner with C. E. Sumner and along a ditch N 55° E 3.00 three chains, or 12 poles to a pine, thence N 30 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° E 3.10 to a pine, thence N 35° E. 3.18 to a pine, thence N. 50° E 1.36 to a pine, thence N. 40° E. 4.55 to a pine, thence N. 35° E 2.90 to a pine, thence N. 42° E. 2.88 to a Red Oak, thence N. 40° E. 2.86 to a pine, a corner with C. E. Sumner on the Elisha Duke land, thence N 50 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° W. 5.10 to a pine, thence N. 59 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° W. 4.90 to a pine, thence N. 54° W. 2.60 to a Dead Red Oak, corner with the Elisha Duke land, Parker Duke and C. E. Sumner, thence S. 37 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° W. 19.80 (the Black on the plot) to the road, thence along the Road S. 35° E. 13.02 to the Beginning and contains 26 acres, 2 Roods and 18 Poles."

(4) That certain small parcel of land containing by estimation four (4) acres bounded on North by lands of Woodward and Duke, on the East by a ditch separating this land from the land of Liberty Spring Church and by the New County Road, on the South by the Whaleyville and Leesville County Roads, and on the West by the land formerly belonging to Wilson Duke and being the third tract described in the aforesaid deed from Sarah Rebecca Duke to Emmeline E. Rabey.

Third: That by deed dated November 11, 1892, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County in Deed Book 26, page 99, said Peter F. Duke conveyed his undivided interest in said land to the eight other children of said Emmeline E. Rabey; that later and by their respective deeds dated respectively May 9, 1898, November 15, 1901, and 31st day of August 1903, the undivided interests of J. W. Rabey, Emeline S. Doughtrey and J. S. Rabey were conveyed to Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, A. J. Rabey, Jr., and Sarah R. Duke, the J. W. Rabey deed being recorded in Deed Book Number 40, page 450, and the Emmeline S. Daughtrey deed in Deed Book Number 50, page 482.

Fourth: That A. J. Rabey, Senior, died October 18th, 1892, shortly after the death of Emmeline E. Rabey, he being her second husband.

Fifth: That A. J. Rabey, Junior, died June 22, 1926, leaving a will which was duly probated in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County by the terms of which the testator devised his interest in said land to Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, in which will Lura E. Rabey was named as executrix, she having settled her account before Lee Britt, Esquire, Commissioner of Accounts for Nansemond County.

Sixth: That said land is now owned by E. K. Rabey, Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke in the following proportions, namely, E. K. Rabey, one-eighth and Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke seven twenty-fourths each.

Seventh: That from 1901^{or thereabout} until the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, in 1926, the said Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and A. J. Rabey, Junior, lived together on said land, they having purchased the other interests as aforesaid save the interest of E. K. Rabey, the profits at the end of each year being divided among said four parties equally, A. J. Rabey, Junior, receiving in addition a salary of $100.00 per year for his services as manager of the community affairs; that E. K. Rabey, although retaining his interest in said land, has not lived thereon nor shared in the profits therefrom; that the daughter of E. K. Rabey, namely, Susie L. Rabey, was cared for, reared and educated by the aforesaid Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and A. J. Rabey, Junior, she having made her home with these said parties since 1895 when she was approximately fourteen months of age.

Eighth: That after the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, in 1926, your complainant, Lura E. Rabey, and the defendants, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, continued to live together on said land until November 1st, 1926, when the lack of co-operation became so pronounced and the inability of the parties to agree in the management of the farm affairs brought matters to such an acute stage that your complainant was compelled to leave the farm temporarily; that after the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, as aforesaid, the said Susie Rabey, who had been teaching school for a number of years, came back to the farm and began active participation in its operation; that the affairs of the said three sisters which had run so smoothly theretofore and during the life of A. J. Rabey, Junior, were now being operated by four women, each of whom claimed equal authority with every other; that thus an impasse was reached in the activities of said three sisters and in the management and operation of said farm, resulting in the withdrawal temporarily of your complainant which seemed necessary by reason of the cross-purposes of said parties on the farm, ranging from small details to larger affairs and by reason of the attitude assumed toward your complainant by the other co-tenants.

Ninth: That your complainant is advised and believes that the defendants object to partition of said land and deny the right of your complainant to have partition of same by reason of the provisions of the will of A. J. Rabey, Senior, which was probated in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, Virginia, in 1892, copy of which is hereto attached marked "EXHIBIT A" and prayed to be read as a part hereof; that said paper writing purporting to be the will of said A. J. Rabey, Senior, was signed, not only by the testator, but, at his request during his last illness by the children and heirs at law of Emeline E. Rabey, deceased, including the parties to this suit; that the defendants rely upon said paper writing as a contract binding each of the parties to this suit not to seek partition of said land except by consent of the other parties and binding each party who for any reason leaves the land and does not reside upon it to relinquish further rights to the use and enjoyment of the rents and profits of said land, leaving such party only the right to accept the sum of $300.00 for his interest in the land if he so desires.

Tenth: That A. J. Rabey, Senior, did not own the land in question, and, of course, could not dispose of it by will or otherwise; that none of the provisions of said will could possible affect said land or the relationship of the parties thereto; that the fact that said will was signed as aforesaid by the aforesaid parties did not render the same a binding and enforceable contract; that if said paper is to be construed as a contract of the parties executing it, then same is against public policy and is void and unenforcable as being unjust, oppressive, provocative of fraud, strife, ill-feeling and breaches of the peace and as constituting undue restraint upon alienation, and for other reasons, is void and unenforceable; that said paper writing should not be construed as depriving your complainant of the right to have partition of said land or of binding her to accept the sum of $300.00 for her interest therein.

Eleventh: That said four parties who lived together upon said land from 1901 ^{or thereabout} until the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, purchased the shares of all the other parties save E. K. Rabey prior ^{and during} to 1903 for the sum of $300.00 each, said shares being purchased at the request of those selling and the purchase price being entirely adequate; that during the past twenty-five years said land has grown greatly in value; that for your complainant and her two sisters to continue to live together on the farm and operate the same is highly impracticable, and to further attempt to do so in present circumstances not only means financial loss but also places your complainant under mental strain and anxiety that must inevitably reach the breaking point; that your complainant has no alternative save what practically amounts to a forfeiture of her rights, if your complainant is denied partition by reason of the existence of the aforesaid paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of A. J. Rabey, Senior.

Twelfth: That there has been no accounting by the parties hereto as co-tenants of said land since the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, as aforesaid.

Thirteenth: That the said real estate is, as the complainant believes, susceptible of partition among the parties entitled thereto, but should said property not be susceptible of division in kind, complainant believes, and here states, that the interests of those who are entitled to the said real estate, or its proceeds, will be promoted by a sale of the whole of the same, or by an allotment of part and the sale of the residue.

In consideration whereof and forasmuch as your complainant is remediless in the premises save by the aid of a court of equity, she prays that the said Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and E. K. Rabey may be made parties defendant to this bill and required to answer the same, but not on oath, answered under oath being hereby waived; that proper process issue; that the parties hereto render an accounting for their transactions as co-tenants of said land for the years 1926 and 1927; that the said land be divided among the parties entitled thereto, or else, if it cannot be so divided, that it may be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties entitled according to their respective rights; that all proper orders and decrees may be made, accounts taken, and inquiries directed; and that your complainant may have such further and other and general relief in the premises as the nature of her case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke,
and E. K. Rabey.....Defendants.

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES L. MCLEMORE, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT
OF THE COUNTY OF NANSEMOND:

Your complainant, Lura E. Rabey respectfully represents
the following facts:

First: That Emeline E. Rabey died intestate in September, 1892, in Nansemond County, Virginia, leaving her husband, A. J. Rabey, and nine children, as follows: Peter F. Duke, Sarah R. Duke,
E. K. Rabey, J. W. Rabey, A. J. Rabey, Jr., Lura E. Rabey, Georgian-na Rabey and E. S. Rabey. J. S. Rabey

SECOND: That said Emeline E. Rabey died seised and possessed of certain land in Holy Neck Magisterial District, Nansemond
County, Virginia, consisting of about four hundred and thirty-two (432) acres, the quantity being a mere estimate, the land not having been surveyed, which said land consists of four tracts or parcels, they being separately described as follows:

(1) The land known as the "Home Tract", estimated to contain two hundred and seventy-five (275) acres, bounded on the North by the county road leading from the new Somerton Road to the old Somerton Road, on the East by the main channel of what is known as "Screech Branch", on the South by the land formerly owned by Burlock Hollins (now Henry Woodward land), and on the West by the lands of Sidwell, Turner and Savage, it being the first tract described in the deed from Sarah Rebecca Duke to Emmeline E. Rabey, dated May 12th, 1884, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County in Deed Book Number 13, page 272.

(2) The land known as the "Fourth Farm" separated from the above described land by the "Screech Branch", containing by estimation one hundred and twenty-five (125) acres, bounded on the North by the lands of R. C. Bunch, on East by New Somerton Road, South by land of Jack Johnson (formerly Savage tract), and West by Main Channel of "Screech
Branch", it being the same land conveyed to Emmeline E.
Rabey by Alexander L. Duke and others by deed dated April

(3) That certain parcel of land lying on the north side of said County road connecting the old and new Somerton Roads, containing by estimation twenty-eight (28) acres and described by B. P. Parker, surveyor, in his survey made May 20, 1876, as follows: "Beginning at a point on the road, a corner with C. E. Sumner and along a ditch N 55° E 3.00 three chains, or 12 poles to a pine, thence N 30 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° E 3.10 to a pine, thence N 35° E. 3.18 to a pine, thence N. 50° E 1.36 to a pine, thence N. 40° E. 4.55 to a pine, thence N. 35° E 2.90 to a pine, thence N. 42° E. 2.88 to a Red Oak, thence N. 40° E. 2.85 to a pine, a corner with C. E. Sumner on the Elisha Duke land, thence N 50 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° W. 5.10 to a pine, thence No. 59 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° to a pine, thence N. 54° W. 2.50 to a Dead Red Oak, corner with the Elisha Duke land, Parker Duke and C. E. Sumner, thence S. 37 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° W. 19.80 (the Black on the plot) to the road, thence along the Road S. 35° E. 13.02 to the Beginning and contains 26 acres, 2 Roods and 18 Poles."

(4) That certain small parcel of land containing by estimation four (4) acres bounded on North by lands of Woodward and Duke, on the East by a ditch separating this land from the land of Liberty Spring Church and by the New County Road, on the South by the Whaleyville and Leesville County Roads, and on the West by the land formerly belonging to Wilson Duke and being the third tract described in the aforesaid deed from Sarah Rebecca Duke to Emmeline E. Rabey.

THIRD: That by deed dated November 11, 1892, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County in Deed Book 26, page 99, said Peter M. Duke conveyed his undivided interest in said land to the eight other children of said Emmeline E. Rabey; that later and by their respective deeds dated respectively, May 9, 1898, November 15, 1901, and 31st day of August, 1903, the undivided interests of J. W. Rabey, Emmeline S. Dougherty and J. S. Rabey were conveyed to Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, A. J. Rabey, Jr., and Sarah R. Duke, the J. W. Rabey deed being recorded in Deed Book Number 40, page 450, and the Emmeline S. Daughtrey deed in Deed Book Number 50, page 482.

FOURTH: That A. J. Rabey, Senior, died October 18th, 1892, shortly after the death of Emmeline E. Rabey, he being her second husband.

FIFTH: That A. J. Rabey, Junior, died June 22, 1926, leaving a will which was duly probated in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County by the terms of which the testator devised his interest in said land to Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, in which will Lura E. Rabey was named as executrix, she having settled her account before Lee Britt, Esquire, Commissioner of Accounts for Nansemond County.

SIXTH: That said land is now owned by E. K. Rabey, Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke in the following proportions, namely, E. K. Rabey, one-eighth and Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke seven twenty-fourths each.

SEVENTH: That from 1901, or thereabout, until the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, in 1926, the said Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and A. J. Rabey, Junior, lived together on said land, they having purchased the other interests as aforesaid save the interest of E. K. Rabey, the profits at the end of each year being divided among said four parties equally, A. J. Rabey, Junior, receiving in addition a salary of $100.00 per year for his services as manager of the community affairs; that E. K. Rabey, although retaining his interest in said land, has not lived thereon nor shared in the profits therefrom; that the daughter of E. K. Rabey, namely, Susie L. Rabey, was cared for, reared and educated by the aforesaid Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and A. J. Rabey, Junior, she having made her home with these said parties since 1895 when she was approximately fourteen months of age.

EIGHTH: That after the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, in 1926, your complainant, Lura E. Rabey, and the defendants, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, continued to live together on said land until November 1st, 1926, when the lack of co-operation became so pronounced and the inability of the parties to agree in the management of the farm affairs brought matters to such an acute stage that your complainant was compelled to leave the farm temporarily; that after the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, as aforesaid, the said Susie Rabey, who had been teaching school for a number of years, came back to the farm and began active participation in its operation; that the affairs of the said three sisters which had run so smoothly theretofore and during the life of A. J. Rabey, Junior, were now being operated by four women, each of whom claimed equal authority with every other; that thus an impasse was reached in the activities of said three sisters and in the management and operation of said farm, resulting in the withdrawal temporarily of your complainant which seemed necessary by reason of the cross-purposes of said parties on the farm, ranging from small details to larger affairs and by reason of the attitude assumed toward your complainant by the other co-tenants.

NINTH: That your complainant is advised and believes that the defendants object to partition of saidland and deny the right of your complainant to have partition of same by reason of the provisions of the will of A. J. Rabey, Senior, which was probabted in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, Virginia, in 1892, copy of which is hereto attached marked "EXHIBIT A" and prayed to be read as a part hereof; that said paper writing purporting to be the will of said A. J. Rabey, Senior, was signed, not only by the testator, but, at his request during his last illness by the children and heirs at law of Emmeline E. Rabey, deceased, including the parties to this suit; that the defendants rely upon said paper writing as a contract binding each of the parties to this suit not to seek partition of said land except by consent of the other parties and binding each party who for any reason leaves the land and does not reside upon it to relinquish further rights to the use and enjoyment of the rents and profits of said land, leaving such party only the right to accept the sum of $300.00 for his interest in the land if he so desires.

TENTH: That A. J. Rabey, Senior, did not own the land in question, and, of course, could not dispose of it by will or otherwise; that none of the provisions of said will could possibly affect said land or the relationship of the parties thereto; that the fact that said will was signed as aforesaid by the aforesaid parties did not render the same a binding and enforceable contract; that if said paper is to be construed as a contract of the parties executing it, the same is against public policy and is void and unenforcible as being unjust, oppressive, provocative of fraud, strife, ill-feeling and breaches of the peace and as constituting undue restraint upon alienation and for other reasons, is void and unenforceable; that said paper writing should not be construed as depriving your complainant of the right to have partition of said land or of binding her to accept the sum of $300.00 for her interest therein,

ELEVENTH: That said four parties who lived together upon said land from 1901, or there about, until the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, purchased the shares of all the other parties save E. K. Rabey prior to and during 1903 for the sum of $300.00 each, said shares being purchased at the request of those selling and the purchase price being entirely adequate; that during the past twenty-five years said land has grown greatly in value; that for your complainant and her two sisters to continue to live together on the farm and operate the same is highly impracticable, and to further attempt to do so in present circumstances not only means financial loss but also places your complainant under mental strain and anxiety that must inevitably reach the breaking point; that your complainant has no alternative save what practically amounts to a forfeiture of her rights, if your complainant is denied partition by reason of the existence of the aforesaid paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of A. J. Rabey, Senior.

TWELFTH: That the objects and purposes of said contract have wholly failed by reason of the matters and things herein alleged and further by reason of the inability of the defendants, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, to manage and operate the said farm; that said defendants have yielded their rights and prerogatives to said Susie Rabey, who has virtually succeeded in taking entire control of the operation of said farm by reason of her influence upon said defendants; that, if said Susie Rabey had the right to take charge of said affairs, her lack of experience in such matters has jeopardized the welfare and comfort of your complainant and her two sisters and has resulted and will continue to result in waste and financial loss to the aforesaid parties; that this unfortunate condition of affairs is due to the wrongful conduct and attitude of said defendants, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, and that but for the interference and assumption of authority by said Susie Rabey the affairs of this complainant and her two sisters would continue to run smoothly and successfully as during past years; that the wrongful conduct of the aforesaid parties amounts to the substantial denial of your complainant's right to use and enjoy her own property, THIRTEENTH: That the complainant and the defendants, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, are joint owners or tenants in common of the chattel property located on said farm.

FOURTEENTH: That there has been no accounting by the parties hereto as co-tenants of said land since the death of A. J. Rabey, Junior, as aforesaid.

FIFTEENTH: That the said real estate is, as the complainant believes susceptible of partition among the parties entitled thereto, but should said property not be susceptible of division in kind, complainant believes, and here states, that the interests of those who are entitled to the said real estate, or its proceeds, will be promoted by a sale of the whole of the same, or by an allotment of part and the sale of the residue.

In consideration whereof and forasmuch as your complainant is remediless in the premises save by the aid of a court of equity, she prays that the said Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and E. J. Rahey may be made parties defendant to this bill and required to answer the same, but not on oath, answers under oath being hereby waived; that proper process issue; that the parties hereto render an accounting for their transactions as co-tenants of said land for the years 1926 and 1927; that the said land be divided among the parties entitled thereto, or else, if it cannot be so divided, that it may be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties entitled according to their respective rights; that the aforesaid chattel property be divided among the parties entitled according to their respective rights, or if same cannot be so divided, that said property be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties entitled; that all proper orders and decrees may be made, accounts taken, and inquiries directed; and that your complainant may have such further and other and general relief in the premises as the nature of her case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

A. Yes.

Q. During the year 1926, who lived on that farm, as co-tenants?

Q. Who else was living there?

A. Susie Rabey.

Q. She was not, however, one of the co-tenants?

A. No, sir, not supposed to be.

Q. When did Mr. A. J. Rabey die?

A. The 22nd of June, 1926.

Q. Prior to that time the three of you you have named, together with Mr. A. J. Rabey, were the four co-tenants on this farm?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you leave the farm?

A. I left the first of November, 1926.

Q. When you left in 1926, did you have in your possession any funds which were joint funds, that is to say, funds which had been realized from running the farm?

A. Well, I had some funds in the bank that were realized from the farm and I had collected some more and then spent it on the farm during the time I was there.

Q. You don't mean to say that all the funds in the bank were spent on the farm while you were there?

A. The funds that were in the bank that I collected while I was there was spent most of it but the funds that were turned over to me were not spent. As I collected I added to that fund and then used most of what I collected on the place before I left there.

As I collected it I used it on the place. The books show for it, what was in my hands and what was in the bank.

Q. Look at this statement, marked "Exhibit A", and state whether or not the statement shows items deposited in The American Bank & Trust Company to your credit.

A. Yes, that is what I had in hand when I left there and what deposits I had and what checks I gave.

Q. These funds represent joint funds?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. This statement shows the amount expended by you for the estate, or $217.17?

A. Yes.

Q. And that the balance of $605.12 remained of the total amount collected by you after said expenditures. Is that true?

A. Yes.

Q. Look at this statement, marked "Exhibit B", and state whether or not the items found thereon make up the amount of $217.17 expended by you?

A. Yes.

Q. In what name were the funds carried in the bank?

A. Carried in my name as Treasurer.

Q. During the year 1926 state whether or not the Front, or Road, Farm was rented out to Mr. J. C. Ballard?

A. It was rented to Mr. Ballard.

Q. Look at this statement, marked "Exhibit C", and state whether it shows the amounts received from Ballard as tenant of the Road Farm, the amount collected by you while you were on the farm, the amount spent for quano, the amount collected from Mr. Ballard by those left on the farm after you left the farm and another amount collected by those remaining on the farm?

A. Yes.

Melvin E. Cruser, Attorney for defendants: I object to any statement as to the witness testifying as to what was received by those remaining on the farm from Mr. Ballard, unless she knows, it is hearsay.

Cleaton E. Rabey, Administrator etc.: As to the latter part of the question, concerning the amounts collected after she left the farm by others, which undoubtedly must be hearsay, it is objected to on that ground and as hearsay.

J. R. Saunders, Counsel for complainant: Is there any objection to the folks filing a statement as to what they collected, any denial that they did collect amounts after she left?

Q. Please state why you say that the four items shown on this statement as having been collected after you left were actually collected by them?

A. I heard two say so. Mr. Ballard said they collected it and Susie acknowledged it.

Cleaton E. Rabey, counsel for defendants, objects on the ground that it is hearsay testimony.

J. K. Hutton: If she cannot show by the man who rented the place plus those who received the money I don't know who she can prove it by.

C. E. Rabey: We except to it and will introduce a complete statement of all transactions that occurred on the farm after she left.

Q. When you left the farm can you say what crops remained from the 1926 crop?

A. What remained at what place, the Home Place?

Q. Yes.

A. All the crops remained there that we raised there and all that Mr. Ballard raised was carried there, a third. Part of it was carried before I left and part after I left because they acknowledged it to me.

M. E. Cruser? Who are "they"?

A. Susie acknowledged it to me and Mr. Ballard took his crop there, one-third. There was none brought away by me.

Q. Please look at "Exhibit C" and state whether or not the items on that statement referred to as 1926 crops received at home place by the defendants actually remained there when you left?

A. They were surely there.

M. E. Cruser: I object to any testimony as to the crops on the place except it be testified when the crops were sold by the parties who remained there and the money realized therefrom.

C. E. Rabey: Counsel for Georgianna Rabey notes his objection as to the statement marked "Exhibit C" on the grounds that so far as the testimony is introduced it is hearsay and not the direct knowledge of the witness as to the crops, when and where they were hauled away and sold and receipts taken therefor.

J. R. Saunders: Do I understand that you deny they were there?

M. E. Cruser: We don't have to say that at this point.

Q. Please state whether or not the amounts placed opposite these items referred to in the last question represent a fair market value for said crops?

A. Yes, it was and at the minimum price of things that were selling then, that is how it was calculated.

Q. Please state whether or not the items referred to in "Exhibit C" as received from Ballard before you left the farm were expended in the operation of the farm from day to day.

A. It was.

Q. Have you a book of accounts kept at the time which shows this fact?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you the book with you?

A. Yes.

Q. In making this statement as to the item just referred to, did you take that from your book of accounts?

A. Yes, it came from my book of accounts.

M. E. Cruser: I object to that testimony unless it is proved by the witness that the items were entered on the book at the time they purport to be and by her in person.

J. K. Hutton: Q. Were the items entered by you on the book at the time they are purported entered and by you in person?

A. Yes.

Q. In other words, the items were made contemporaneously with the transactions?

A. Yes, daily.

Q. Will you consent to turn these books over to the Commissioner to be used as evidence?

A. Yes, and they are introduced, marked "Exhibit D-1" and "Exhibit D-2".

Q. Miss Lura, was the Road Farm rented by Mr.

J. C. Ballard for the year 1927?

A. Yes.

Q. Who rented the farm to him?

A. I rented it to him with the consent of the others.

Q. Did you have any understanding about the receipts from the Road Farm for that year?

A. I was to have what was produced on there and they were to have what was produced at home.

Mr. Ballard told me they were willing to have him go there and Miss Beck told me to rent it to him.

Q. Look at this statement, marked "Exhibit E", and state whether the items shown thereon are the crops received by you from Mr. Ballard as rent for 1927 and is the amount expended for fertilizer, plaster and bags and the net amount received by you as rent for that year?

A. That is what we settled at and that is right.

Q. Did Mr. Ballard sell the crops himself and account to you for the money?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, do the items shown here by you comprise all that you have received from that estate since you left the farm?

A. That is all I have had.

Q. And you left in November, 1926?

A. Yes, and the crops were all housed except the peanuts. They were in shocks. The hogs were in the field to be killed before I left there.

Q. Was the road farm rented out for the year 1928?

A. I understood from them that a part of it was rented out.

M. E. Cruser: Who? Say who you refer to?

A. My co-tenants, Miss Annie Rabey and Miss Susie.

M. E. Cruser: That is hear say.

A. It was evident. I saw a man cultivating some corn and he told me he had rented it, a Mr. Taylor. He told me he had rented it from them.

M. E. Cruser: When you say "them" always say who you mean.

A. There are two and I don't know who is boss.

Q. Did Mr. Ballard rent it for 1928?

A. No, he did not rent it for 1928.

Q. Did you attempt to rent it to him for 1928?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you know they had some discussion about renting it to him for 1928?

A. No, sir, because they had done sent him away. Hold on, I am a little confused, in 1926 I moved, 1927 he rented it and he rented it for 1928 and they put him out.

Q. Didn't he come in here to see you and discuss it with you?

A. Yes, he did. He rented it for 1928. Hold on, here is a contract between Lura E. Rabey and J. C. Ballard and Fanny Ballard for the year 1928.

Q. Is this paper, marked "Exhibit F", the agreement you entered into with Mr. Ballard for the Road Farm in 1928?

A. Yes, this is the agreement,

Q. Is that signed by Mr. Ballard?

A. Yes.

Q. Why did he refuse to stay on the farm?

A. I can tell what he said. He said he was afraid to stay there, they had threatened him and he was scared of his life; that they had absolutely ordered him to get away from there. He said Susie told him not to put a plow in that ground, that is what he told me, and he became frightened to stay there. He and his wife told me so.

Q. You do know, as a matter of fact, that they objected to you renting the farm for 1928?

A. I found it out afterwards. That agreement was signed in August or somewhere like that. He gave it up, after he was ordered off the place by them.

Q. Was the Road Farm rented out for 1929?

A. There was a part of it rented out. I saw a part of it cultivated.

Q. Don't you know that Mr. Harcum rented it for the year 1929?

A. What year was it the house went vacant? Mr. Ballard left it in 1928 and the house went vacant that year and there was a part of it rented that year. Mr. Harcum rented it for 1929.

Q. For how much?

A. $350.00 he told me.

Q. Did that include the land allotted to you by the Court in this suit together with a few extra acres taken from the land not allotted to you,?

A. That is what he said. I did not see the contract he had.

Q. It is agreed that $175.00 was collected by you folks and there is $175.00 in the National Bank of Suffolk in the name of Miss Lura Rabey and yourself. (Speaking to Mr. Cleaton E. Rabey.)

M. E. Cruser: Who is "you folks". I don't know.

Q. It is understood that the Road Farm, with a few acres adjoining was rented out to Mr. Harcum for the year 1929, and that one-half of the rent, viz: $175.00, was collected by Miss Georgianna Rabey in July, less $42.50 which Mr. Harcum withheld, that the Rebecca Duke estate owed him. The remaining one-half, of $175.00, is deposited in the National Bank of Suffolk to the credit of Cleaton E. Rabey and John K. Hutton.

Cleaton E. Rabey: That is correct.

Q. State whether Mrs. Mary D. Rabey has paid any rent for certain of the land that she rented for the year 1927, and if so, how much?

A. $40.00 is what I understood.

Q. Who rented that to her?

A. Well, she took it on my say-so. She says they wrote a contract for her to sign, Now I say "they". I should say "Sarah Rebecca Duke, Georgianna Rabey and Susie Rabey" wrote a contract for Mary Rabey to sign to rent it and she would not sign with those three with Susie Rabey in it, and she brought the contract to me ~~and signed~~ to sign, and I says I don't rent it that way but if you will rent it from me you can use it. She did not sign it and neither did I but she used the piece of land.

Q. Was that a part of the Road Farm?

A. Yes, right in front of them.

Q. That is a part of the land the Court agreed you should have?

A. Yes.

Q. When you left the farm, did you leave any chattel property in which you were interested?

A. Left all we had there that I was interested in.

Q. Look at this statement, marked "Exhibit G", and state whether or not that represents the chattel property, in the main, on the farm when you left?

A. Yes.

Q. That does not include any property in the house?

A. No, no household things, things out on the lot or the yard and in the stables.

Q. What is your interest in that property?

A. One-fourth.

Q. Why is it one-fourth instead of one-third?

A. It is one-fourth because it was there when I left and when my brother's estate was settled he had a fourth and all of us had a fourth in it. There were four of us and his one-fourth was bought in by the other two, therefore, I only hold my natural one-fourth in this property.

Q. You mean by that you sold your one-third interest in E. J. Rabey's estate in the chattel property.

A. Yes.

Q. Are you prepared to list to the Commissioner today the articles of personal property inside of the house in which you are interested?

A. No, that is hard for me to say unless I had a list of them.

Q. Miss Lura, what would you say was a fair rental value of the farm during the years 1927-1928 and 1929?

A. Well, we have always rented for $300.00 for the whole farm, house and all for the road farm.

M. E. Cruser: I object to the evidence as the contract for two years shows what it was actually rented for.

Q. What would you say is a fair rental value on the whole farm?

M. E. Cruser: I object to any testimony along this line as being irrelevant to a decree of reference.

A. For the whole farm, both places I call it? Well, between $900.00 and $1,000.00 for the whole two farms. The home would rent easily, I suppose, for $600.00 and the Road Farm for $300.00. It has never been rented.

Q. You have a Liberty Bond, have you not, that belongs to all three of you?

A. Yes.

Q. How much is that for?

A. $100.00.

Q. You have that in your possession?

A. It is in the Farmers Bank vault.

Cross-examination by Cleaton E. Rabey.

Q. As I understand, Mr. A. J. Rabey died June 22nd, 1926?

A. Yes.

Q. And that on, or about, November first, 1926, you left?

A. Yes.

Q. Prior to that time, and on October 8th, 1926, you actually left?

A. I don't remember exactly what date. I was sent for and left hurriedly.

Q. And after that time you did not go back to take any part in the conduct of the farm and other operations in the home place until November first, when you went back and carried away most of your individual possessions?

A. I did not carry away anything but my clothes and a few papers, Cleaton, and I went back on several occasions.

Q. When you left on October 8th, or approximately, and on November first, just what did you carry away?

A. I brought away myself. I did not bring my papers until I went back afterwards. I just had my clothes in my possession. I did not have them all. The last time, I don't remember what date it was, I brought the papers away because I did not want them to be lost.

A. (Con't.) They were in that little sachel that stayed in my wardrobe. My father used to carry it around with him. That Liberty Bond was in there. There were some deeds in there I have had to use and a few little trinkets which I always kept in that sachel.

Q. Do I understand from your answer that you merely carried away your individual, or personal, belongings?

A. Not anything else. If I did, I don't know it. These papers had been in my possession and I was called for often to produce them and I never failed to do so.

Q. What papers do you now refer to?

A. The deeds everyone gave for their interest in the farm, the deed my father got it from and I think there is an old deed that has never been recorded since the fire here; that Liberty Bond and these insurance papers.

Q. Were they all yours individually?

A. Not a bit more theirs than mine and I could furnish them any time they wanted them and have done so.

Q. Are you positive that is all you carried away?

A. All I know anything about. I told you there were a few little trinkets. I brought my clothes and a few things. I was under bond for Jack, all of his papers were in there too. It would be a mighty hard matter to mention every paper in there.

Q. Since you did mention that you carried away articles that were not yours personally, did you not make some kind of a list or inventory of those things in which others might have been interested?

A. I will produce them at any time. It was not necessary.

Q. We now call for the introduction of those things in which others might have been interested?

A. What are they?

Q. Then you do not recall the items you did carry away in which others were interested?

A. I recall all I can remember. I know there was a One Dollar gold piece that was given to my brother when he was born, given to him by my father. He told me to keep it for him. There were two 3-cent pieces, one was Annie's and one was mine, given to us by our step-grandfather when we were children. There were a few little trinkets in there my father got from the War; there is a penny in a little bag that was left from my half-brother's baby, and that is all the money that was in there.

Q. Before the death of A. J. Rabey he had been the manager of the farming and other operations there, had he not?

A. Certainly, and I co-operated with him.

Q. What was the extent of your ^{co-}operation?

A. Anything he demanded of me that he wanted. He wanted my ideas, etc.

Q. Did you not keep a record of the accounts of the farm and other transactions?

A. No, not the farm transactions, Cleaton. I will tell you how we did. We did not keep a farm account. We did our deals cash/^{but the money in the family pocketbook}and he managed it himself and whatever he said went no matter what our ideas was and at the end of the year when it come to a settlement, all of the money he had in his pocket~~book~~ and what was in the pocketbook, after paying up all of our expenses we divided it.

Q. When did you ordinarily make this division?

A. It was done generally about January because he always tried to get his affairs off as much as possible and not carry them over into the next year.

Q. At the time of his death that mode of handling the affairs was still in operation?

A. It was as long as he lived and I intended to carry it out and did as long as I could.

Q. You assisted him in handling these transactions?

A. Yes, I knew what he wanted and what he did not.

Q. At the time of his death, can you say how much money there was in the house in cash in what was known as the family pocketbook?

A. I cannot say because on his sick bed he sent several times to get money when I happened to be out and I do not know the exact amount that was left in the drawer. I do know that everyone went to it whenever there was a call. I did not have it in my possession. It was hung on the door right in his room most of the time. He kept it in his overcoat pocket up-stairs.

Q. Do you know that there was $76.50 in there at the time of his death?

A. No, but I was told there was.

Q. Do you know what became of that money?

A. I know what became of part of it, but I do not know what became of all of it because everyone went to it. I can tell you from this little hand book what went with part of it. He died the 22nd. June 25th, 1926, Outland $9.40; J. T. B. $5.00; White $2.20; Soda, Outland, $6.00, total $23.00 paid out of the money left in the pocketbook.

Q. Did your sisters know this money was spent?

A. They were right there.

A. (Con't.) Here comes August. There was one month that I don't think anybody kept the books. We were going on just piggly-wiggly. Well, here is $2.00 for a well, picking up apples 10¢, pulling fodder, gas $2.12. There is no need to read out all of those little items. It went for current expenses on the farm as far as I know.

Q. In addition to the money which was kept in the bureau drawer, known as the family pocketbook, did not Mr.

A. J. Rabey have some money in addition to that?

A. If he did I don't know of it.

Q. Did he ~~xx~~ not, just shortly prior to his death, collect $500.00 from Margaret Byrd?

A. No, sir, If he did he put it in his bank account.

Q. Did he have any in one of these bags you spoke of?

A. What bags?

Q. One of these bags you carried away, this sachel which was kept lying around.

A. It was not kept lying around.

Q. It was not in your suit case?

A. My suit case was down here.

Q. Were they not to your knowledge at the time you left and in your possession a certain sum of money in ^{bills} hundred dollar/which had been recently brought to the house by A. J. Rabey and in your possession ?

A. No, sir. I never saw it and never had it and they never did either.

Q. On the day you left did you not take away with you three hundred dollar bills?

A. I did not. There is absolutely nothing to that. Where they could have got it I don't know. That is a shame.

Q. The Liberty Bond of $100.00 you did carry away?

A. That Liberty ^{bond}/looks like a gold seal and says $100. on there and that must be what they thought was money. I never had three hundred bills in my house in my life.

Q. You said there was money in bank belonging to the family amounting to the sum of $605.12 in your name as treasurer?

A. I gave the correct amount. I don't recall the figures now, I don't carry them in my head. The bank book will show it.

Q. Shortly after you left you sold to Mr. Howerton a cow and calf? What did you do with the money?

A. That cow and calf was sold soon after Jack died. I put that in bank and paid for rubberoid.

Q. What was the amount of the sale?

A. $60.00, the book will show it.

Q. You also sold to a man by the name of J. S. Powell a certain hog?

A. Yes, I can show you right here where that hog went, "male hog, $19.00".

Q. You sold two pigs to a man by the name of Brown?

A. Two pigs for $10.00, paid in work. Here it is.

"Paid in work $3.00; balance due $7.00; two days work on pigs, $3.00; balance due $4.00; four days/ $4.00., total $10.00" Brown worked it off.

Q. Did you sell to a man by the name of John Ballard a brood pig?

A. He said he paid $10.00. I reckon he paid it, I don't know. He did not pay it to me.

Q. Are you positive he did not pay you for them?

A. I don't think he did.

Q. Will you refer to your records and see?

A. I am sure he did not.

Q. You had the transaction with him?

A. Yes, but he paid for it after I left.

Q. How do you know he settled with somebody else?

A. He told me and it was settled for.

Q. Did you sell any meat to John Ballard?

A. Yes, here is the list as he got it.

Q. What price did you sell it to him for?

A. I have it down here as he got it. He paid it in work, $37.74.

Q. You sold also to a Mrs. Love certain hams?

A. Yes.

Q. What was the total amount received for the sale of the hams?

A. Sallie Love, $21.87½, or $22.00.

Q. You sold to J. E. Hanrahan and others certain hams and shoulders?

A. J. E. Hanrahan, $13.88 for two hams.

Q. Did not Mr. Hanrahan have some people with him at the sale?

A. Do you want a list? He bought a big amount and carried it away and the people he bought it for did not like it and he returned it.

Q. You received from Joe Cutland a certain check for cotton?

A. Yes, that is on my bank book, $70.97. We settled up and in the settlement I gave him my check for a difference of $5.00.

Q. For what?

A. To make the change because it was not due the family. The family owed him that much back.

Q. Going back to this question of meat sold to Hanrahan and others, I hand you what purports to be an account of that transaction in your handwriting. State whether or not that is your handwriting?

A. You call that my handwriting? That is not mine.

Q. Whose writing is that?

A. I don't think it is mine. There are some things look like it. I never made a 4 like that in my life. I have put all of these sales down here. ~~xxxx~~ I will show you right on this little book where I put it.

Q. Do you deny that is where you figured it in the smoke house?

A. I do.

Q. You deny ever having seen it?

A. Yes. I don't remember it.

A pasteboard plate, with figures on it, introduced in evidence, marked "Exhibit 1".

Q. Would you deny that was the computation between you and Mr. Hanrahan?

A. I deny anything but on that book. You understand that? I put it down in that book like it was and I stand by that.

Q. Some Irish potatoes were sold on July 1st, 1926.
What was the amount received from those?

A. $35.00

Q. Then you received a check of $37.89 for cotton, did you not?

A. Yes, that shows it.

Q. Did you sell the meat to L. Parker for $19.16?

A. No, sir. I do not know who he is and never sold him a pound of meat in my life.

Q. You have no knowledge of a sale to L. O. Parker amounting to $19.16, and for which you received the money?

A. No, sir.

Q. May I refresh your memory by telling you that the sale was made by Georgiana Rabey, who gave you the money?

A. I deny it.

Q. Did you receive $8.55 as cotton money from Ballard?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you either sell or take from the smoke house during July, 1927, an 8½ pound ham for a Mrs. Parker?

A. I took- No, sir, I did not.

Q. You deny having taken that either with Mrs. Parker or alone, or otherwise?

A. I remember an $8\frac{1}{2}$ pound ham that Sis Becky gave me to take to Nellie Daughtrey, that was an 8 pound ham.

Q. Did you sell any meat to Spencer?

A. Yes, side meat, $5.55.

Q. Do you know anything about a transaction amounting to $30.00 with one Ella McShane, in which the funds were taken out of the family funds and not returned?

A. That was the nurse. That was paid from this bank account because I could not use Jack's money then. I paid the nurse when she left and when I settled with Jack's estate I deducted from his estate and left it on this bank account so they could have it. Mr. Britt, when he made out the account knew that. That check is not a voucher against anybody but one time.

Q. You received from Mary V. Rabey on account of the 1926 rent the amount of $26.00?

A. Yes. The bank shows that.

Q. You sold to J. C. Ballard 390 bundles of fodder. How much did you receive for that?

A. $5.85.

Q. You also received a check from J. C. Ballard, a cotton check amounting to how much?

A. $15.72.

Q. Then you received also the rent from the Road Farm for the year 1927, amounting to how much?

A. $90.00. All those checks went to the home place.

Q. What was the amount of rent that was to be paid for the year 1927 for the Road Farm?

A. I could not possibly tell. It was rented on shares.

Q. Wasn't the amount due and payable for the Road Farm for the year 1927 $150.00?

A. No, sir.

Q. How did you arrive at the sum of $90.00?

A. When he sold the produce and divided it and gave me my portion.

Account of amount received by Miss Lura Rabey from Ballard on rent introduced in evidence, marked "Exhibit E".

Q. Was not the rent, after a computation of the figures, approximately $150.00?

A. No.

Q. And did you not make certain adjustments for fertilizer in your statement?

A. I paid him part of the fertilizer, a third. I had one-third of the crop share and paid a third of the fertilizer and he the other. When he sold the stuff he gave me my third and when we settled he paid his fertilizer bill and I paid mine.

Q. Have you, at any time, for the items which you say you have collected, made any statement of the account, or settlement, with the other parties who are interested in the things so sold?

A. For what year?

Q. For all years.

A. They were interested and I gave it for 1926, but for 1927 I did not consider they had anything to do with it. Of course I looked after that farm and and if they want it they can have it.

Q. It is a fact that since 1925 you and the other parties interested have had no accounting of the farm transactions?

A. Nothing since 1925. Jack settled then. I tried to get a settlement in 1926 and all this has been the outcome.

Q. Now going over those items I have just inquired about you have admitted having received money from certain of them at least. What has become of the money?

A. I paid it on the farm as it needed it to run its bills.

Q. Have you a statement of those items of expenditure which you claim to have made of the money received from the farm, including the years 1926 to and including the year 1929?

A. Yes, I have them down in my two account books.

Q. We ask for them and for such a statement.

A. I will make up a statement from the two books introduced into this evidence, marked "Exhibit D1" and "Exhibit D2", which exhibit to be made will be called "Exhibit 2", to be filed later.

Q. Among those papers which you state you carried away, I believe you mentioned some insurance policies. Will you state what these insurance policies were and what disposition has been made of them?

A. Does that belong in this thing? I call them independent of those farms and when it comes time to tell that I will.

Q. Did I understand you to say there were certain insurance policies you carried away?

A. I took away a National Mutual Life policy and a Penn Mutual policy.

Q. On whose life and what amounts?

A. Has that got anything to do with this case? I won't tell that unless you tell me I have to do that. I will tell about that in the insurance business.

J. K. Hutton, Counsel for Complainant: The two Insurance policies under discussion, one in the Penn Mutual and the other in the National Mutual Company of New York, one of which is made payable to parties interested in this suit, together with another party who is not interested in this suit and who is not a party to this suit, which check is now in my hands, made payable to these four parties. The check was collected of course since the bill of accounting was entered in this cause. The other policy is made payable to Miss Lura E. Rabey for $1,000.00 in round numbers. That policy is being collected at this time on behalf of Miss Lura E. Rabey. The question is whether these insurance policies are involved in this accounting.

M.E.Cruser: We ^{tend} cond these premiums were paid out of joint funds.

Cleaton E. Rabey: On behalf of Georgianna Rabey and the other parties not represented, in reply to Mr. Hutton's statement, we desire to say that the purpose in asking this witness about the two insurance policies referred to is to develop from her as an adverse witness the status of these two life insurance policies, the names in which the policies are taken, if any funds derived therefrom have come into their hands and to whom the proceeds therefrom, if any, belong, and the reason your contracts which were in existence with respect to these two policies, or there inderstandings were not carried out, and how and from what funds the premiums on both the policies were paid.

J. K. Hutton: In reply to that as to one of the policies, I will say that one of the interested parties is not before the Court and her rights are being litigated.

W. M. Birdsong, Commissioner: I don't see how you can litigate the rights of a party who is not before the Court.

M. E. Cruser: We are not trying to litigate. There is no question as to the right of this absent party.

J. K. Hutton: If you are going to prove the interest of each party/^{she}~~he~~ would be vitally interested.

M. E. Cruser: There will be no attempt to adjudicate.

Cleaton E. Rabey: Counsel for Georgianna Rabey states that we are not attempting to litigate or interfere with the rights of any parties not before the Court or to these proceedings, but merely to develop the understanding that existed in respect to the payment of premiums on the two policies referred to and from whom the funds came to pay such premiums, and to whom, according to such understanding a division of the proceeds when collected should be made between.

Q. In respect to the two policies, one in the principal sum of $1,000.00 and the other in the principal sum of $2,000.00 on the life of J. S. Rabey, will you state how and where the funds were supplied for the payment of the premiums which have been paid on these policies?

A. Will you give me one at the time? The Mutual Life Insurance Company, there are eight first premiums was paid by J. S. Rabey and when he turned over these eight to me he had borrowed $259.29 to meet a payment in his business and when he gave these over to me I marked it. There is his check "payment by eight premiums Policy No. 760936, J. S. Rabey." That is when he went in bankruptcy and he had paid this much on this policy and he borrowed this much from me and turned these over to me in payment. Afterthat the joint premiums was paid by four of we girls until these last three premiums. There was no funds given me to pay with with and I paid them.

Q. That is the receipt of the Mutual Life Insurance Co.?

A. Yes.

Q. What about the Penn Mutual?

A. The Penn Mutual Life policy, seven premiums of $29.09, which were paid jointly.

Q. By whom?

A. By Sarah Rebecca Rabey; Annie Rabey and myself.

Q. In other words, in respect to the Penn Mutual policy, there were three parties who paid seven premiums jointly?

A. Yes.

Q. And in respect to the Mutual Life insurance there were four?

A. Sarah Rebecca Duke, Nellie Daughtrey, Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey.

Q. Then will you explain to the Commissioner in respect to the policy in which you were made the sole beneficiary why any of the premiums were paid jointly by the three of you.

A. Yes. After, when this boy had sold, or at least pawned-

J. K. Hutton: I object to the reason why. She has told the amount paid jointly and he is just trying to develop-

W. M. Birdsong, Commissioner: I sustain that objection.

Cleaton E. Rabey: We except.

Cross-examination by M. E. Cruser:

Q. Miss Rabey, the statement marked "Exhibit B" filed by you states an item, March 27, 1927, Mutual Life Insurance Co. $20.89. Was that a premium on the $2,000.00 policy?

A. Yes, in 1925 before I left home, the 1925 premium.

Q. You have here on the item 1926.

A. Yes, but the premium says 1925. Hold on, now, what I mean that is 1926, that policy came out of the bank for the 1926 payment. Do you understand that?

Q. That was paid in 1927, is that right?

A. ~~XXXXXXXX~~ Whenever I put it down there.

Q. That was paid by you but the check was payable on the joint funds.

A. I paid it myself to the joint benefit of the parties. Nobody gave me anything to pay it with. I can testify to what is on that paper.

Q. I will ask you this question. You have on "Exhibit B" an item, March 27th, 1929, $20.89. Did you pay that money on that day?

A. I paid it on that date, certainly.

Q. What premium was that?

A. I have it on the book.

Q. You made out this account, didn't you?

A. I did not. I submitted it.

Q. Was that money paid on that date?

A. Yes.

Q. For what year was that premium paid?

A. The year it says so. I thought first it was 1926 and then made it 1927.

Q. As a matter of fact didn't you pay all of the premiums on both policies with your individual checks or joint account checks, but to be checked on the joint accounts?

A. That is the way I did the whole thing. They gave me the money and I paid my individual checks.

Q. How can you state whether the individual checks are for yourself or for all together?

A. How can you tell what you pay? We had some memorandums.

Q. Now you said you paid the last three premiums yourself?

A. I did.

Q. These premiums on the $1,000.00 policy were paid by you with your individual check?

A. All of them were.

Q. What memorandum have you there then as to which of your premiums you were paying for each year and which year you were not?

A. There is written on the receipt "Miss Lura E. Rabey".

Q. All of them have that writing on them?

A. No, sir, that it is written on the back when I paid it, and when I unfolded them there is the receipts, some of them made out of him and some of them to me.

Q. Do you introduce these receipts in evidence?

A. Yes.

Q. Take the policy for $1,000.00 and take the receipt for the year 1920 and tell me whose name that receipt is in and produce the check by which you paid for it.

A. I won't testify to anything except what these papers say. There were seven my sisters paid one-third of.

Q. Take the year 1914, will you find the receipt and check for that year on that policy?

A. Check and receipt produced.

Q. Is that receipt made in your name?

A. We called it all J. S. Rabey. I introduce check, dated July 7th, 1914, at Suffolk, Virginia, payable to Diggs & Moseley for $29.09, executed by Miss Lura E. Rabey, marked "Exhibit III" and receipt for that check.

Q. That check went to pay the premium for the year 1914 on the life insurance policy of Jobe S. Rabey.

A. Yes, it was given for a premium on Penn Mutual.

Q. Do you know that they money was put up by you individually and not given in part to you by the other two or three parties interested?

A. I know when it commenced because I marked it down ~~on~~ to note.

Q. When they commenced to help you marked it down?

A. Yes, when they commenced to help me on it I marked it on the back of the check.

Q. You marked it on the back of a check?

A. Yes, and I keep that for a memorandum like you keep things for a memorandum.

Q. The only way you knew that this was your individual money and not refunded to you was the fact that it was paid before that July 12th when they began to help you?

A. Yes, and I remember it pretty well although I did not expect to rehearse it.

Q. Can you certify that they memorandum on the back of that check was written there when the event occurred?

A. Yes, and I did not even know it was there until I went there to look the receipts over.

Q. If you did not know it was there how can you say it was made the date it occurred?

A. I did not remember it the other day because I did not remember the whole thing in my head, it would have busted open, but when I saw it I remembered it at once.

Q. Now you cannot testify as to when it was put there exactly?

A. No, sir, I could not.

Q. You don't know when you put it there?

A. I know they paid me when I put it there.

Q. When did they begin to pay part of the $2,000.00 premiums?

A. You have to wait until I can think. I think that shows for itself somewhere or other. If he paid eight premiums it ought to be easy to tell when we began.

Q. He assigned it to you and they have paid ever since then?

A. Until these last three premiums.

Q. You said you loaned him $250.00 and he assigned it to you?

A. Yes, and that is all I ever got,

Q. Was that before or after bankruptcy?

A. Before.

Q. Did he list you in the bankrupt proceedings?

A. Yes, he filed his petition and I was on some notes ~~and~~ for him and the notes was collected, but this note I ~~have~~ had nothing to show for it and he was good enough to turn these vouchers over to me so I would not lose on this $259.00. There was nothing in the bankruptcy to show for it.

Q. How were these notes paid by him?

A. I don't know. You will have to see his estate.

Q. How did you happen to lend him $259.00?

A. When he wanted to pay a bill in the store.

Q. I hand you check dated November 19th, Suffolk, drawn on the Farmers Bank of Nansemond by Miss Lura S. Rabey to J. S. Rabey, and marked Loan. The check is endorsed with the name of J. S. Rabey in ink. A space of about an inch and a half and then is written "Payment by eight premiums of policy No. 760936, J. S. Rabey." Was that memorandum made on this check at the time you gave it to Mr. Rabey?

A. At the time he turned over these eight premiums ~~to~~ to me.

Q. Then he did not turn these insurance premiums over to you at the time you loaned him this money?

A. No, sir, I was down in 1903 in November when he asked me for the money and I let him have it.

Well, he failed in 1904 before he ever paid me that and he could not ever get enough money together to pay me so he gave me this policy and then that voucher is what I had to show for what he owed me.

Q. He never saw this, did he?

A. Yes, after the check was cashed when he turned over these premiums to me.

Q. What date?

A. It was the day he turned over these premiums.

Q. Why did you put that on there?

A. To show what I had done and what he had done.

Q. What day did you put it on there?

A. I don't know the exact date.

Q. How do you know it was that day he turned the policy over to you?

A. I could not have done it before and I could not have done it afterwards.

Q. This money that check ~~XXXXXXXX~~ covered, was that your personal money?

A. Yes, that was my personal money. It was to come out of this and they all knew it and we had an agreement made to that effect and the first one who had broken the will is her and that is all the trouble. It was to come out of this policy at his death and if I died before then I wanted them to have it and it was in my will so.

Q. Did you have any other evidence of the debt before this check?

A. No, sir.

Q. You just loaned it to him?

A. Yes, like I have done many a thing and been wrong.

Q. They trusted you implicitly?

A. Yes, and they had a right to do it.

Q. They never questioned your integrity?

A. No, sir, I did the best anybody could to keep this policy alive for all of them.

Q. You have also been keeping another policy alive out of the trust fund?

A. Part of it.

Q. I hand you "Exhibit A" for your information and request you to state how much was in bank to the joint fund at the death of Mr. A.J. Rabey.

A. This tells you.

Q. I am asking you to say.

A. At the death of Mr. A. J. Rabey $797.29.

Q. At the time of Mr. Rabey's death when you took over things $543.71 was in bank in the joint account. How much is at the present time in bank to this joint account?

A. You mean in what bank? That account was in the American Bank.

Q. Is it there now?

A. No, sir.

Q. Where is the account now?

A. In my pocketbook. I will stand for it.

Q. How much was to the credit of that account at the time it was closed?

A. $797.29

Q. What items went to increase that account?

A. I must not understand you.

Q. When your brother died you had $543.71 in bank.

What items increased that account to $797.29?

A. I have that exhibit in evidence.

Q. On July first deposited for Irish Potatoes $35.00.

Where did that come from?

A. It tells you.

Q. What Irish Potatoes, how many Irish potatoes?

A. I cannot remember how many. I had my little book. I put down the items and send the check to be deposited.

Q. You have a deposit of a cow, you did not deposit the cow?

A. Cow, $60.00.

Q. Was it a cow alone?

A. Cow and calf.

Q. You have an item of July 28th, Hanrahan Hams $12.00, and August 4, Love Hams. You mean you received from Mr. Hanrahan $12.00 for some hams you sold him and that you received from Mr. Love $22.00 for some hams you sold him?

A. Yes.

Q. On Oct. 18th, "Note and Cotton" $70.79. What note and what cotton?

A. It was a note of Joe Outland's for a horse and cart was sold him for $55.00. He paid me the $55.00 for that and the balance was for cotton. The bill come to $70.97 and I turned around and gave him a check of $5.00 to make change as I did not have any change in the house.

Q. "Cotton, $37.89" What cotton was that?

A. Cotton from the home.

Q. "October 25th, Cotton, $15.72." What cotton was that?

A. October. I have cotton on October 18th, 25th and on the 4th it was the Farmers Union cotton. October 15th was home cotton.

Q. 1927, Jan. 20th, Rent from M. V. Rabey, $25.00. Is that all the money you collected from that farm from Mr. Rabey's death until January first, 1928?

A. You mean the Road Farm?

Q. No, ma'am, is the amount you made, bringing the total from $543.71 to $822.29 all of the money you collected on either the Road or the Home Farm between the time of Mr. Rabey's death until Jan. first, 1928?

A. It is all I deposited and all I had in checks to deposit, only what was spent in current expenses and supplies which this little book shows.

Q. How much did you collect that was not deposited in that time?

A. I cannot tell you.

Wm. M. Birdsong, Commissioer: I understand you are going to file that in a statement which Mr. Hutton is going to prepare?

J. K. Hutton: Yes.

M. E. Cruser: It is understood that at the next hearing a statement of all money received by Lura E. Rabey from the date of Mr. A. J. Rabey's death, June, 1926, to the first of January, 1929 and all expenses made on the farm.

Q. Outside of that is in the record?

A. I cannot tell you anything of 1929. I only collected for 1926 and some for 1927.

Q. What amounts did you collect in 1928?

A. Nothing.

Q. What amounts did you collect in 1929?

A. Nothing. I only collected for 1926 and 1927.

Q. What did you collect for 1927?

A. $90.00 from Mr. Ballard and $25.00 from Mary for 1926 rent.

Q. In 1927 you collected $90.00 and $25.00, that is all you collected in 1927?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, Miss Rabey, you testified that you had an understanding with Miss Rebecca Duke and Miss Georgianna Rabey that for the year 1927 you were to receive the rent from the Road Farm for your interest in the property?

A. Yes.

Q. Where were you when that agreement was reached?

A. You mean when I rented it to Ballard?

Q. You stated that Miss Georgianna Rabey and Miss Rebecca Duke agreed with you that you should receive the rent for the road farm for the year 1927. Where were you and when was that agreement reached?

A. I cannot tell you the date but I can tell you the understanding. What day it is I cannot remember but the day I went home it was in August, 1927. When the subject came up my sister and Authur Daughtrey were there. The conversation arose and I told them then right at the end of the table. They were getting dinner. Nellie Daughtrey was in there and Susie and Sis Beck stated that the best way to do was for me to take part of the farm, and when I went back I told them Mr. Ballard wanted the Road Farm and they said it was all right. Sis Beck said so and so did Annie's mouth-piece, Susie, she was talking for her, she and Sis Beck and Mr. Ballard acknowledged that they wanted him to stay there.

Q. You mean to state to this Commissioner that you had such an agreement as you say?

A. Yes, I had to live and I could not live there, but I went back and that is what we agreed on when I ~~left~~ left there. That was in August before I left in November.

Q. They agreed to that in August before you left in November that you were to have the Road rent?

A. It is so long and so many things have happened. If you try to cross examine me and get a lie out of me you will have to do it, but if I am not confused it was in August, 1927, when I was up there.

Q. After you left?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was the first time you had any agreement about about renting it to him again?

A. But I had an agreement before I left about renting because they proposed it to me one day sitting in the porch .

Q. You never testified to that in the previous trial?

A. I reckon I did. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. You remember so clearly, though, when the payments began out of your own pocket?

A. When I ~~don't~~ remember I do like you or anybody else and check it up and I know that I did it honestly when I did it. Don't you do that way?

Q. I am not on the stand. What I do is not what you do.

A. I am sure Susie went there to the bowl where I kept them and copied nearly every one of them.

Re-direct Examination by Mr. J. K. Hutton:

Q. That receipt on that $1,000.00 policy, you stated that the last seven premiums were paid jointly, did you not?

A. Yes.

Q. You stated also that you made this memorandum on one of the checks or receipts at the time that the sisters began to pay the premiums.

A. I sure did, or else I would not have known it.

Q. A few days ago in looking over the papers you saw that memorandum?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know before a few days ago that it was the last seven or eight or how many?

A. You asked me one day and I told you I had a way to tell.

Q. Didn't you tell me it was seven or eight?

A. Yes, I did.

And further this deponent saith not.

Hearing continued until Saturday, September 27th, 1930, at Ten-thirty O'Clock, A. M.

September 27th, 1930, hearing continued:

Present: The same parties as were present at the first hearing on September 24th, 1930.

Lura E. Rabey again called to take the stand.

Questions by Mr. J. K. Hutton.

Q. I hand you a statement purporting to be expenditures by Lura E. Rabey from June 22nd, 1926, the date of J. E. Rabey's death, to the date you left the farm, and ask you if that is a statement of your distributions according to your books? I introduce this statement, marked "Exhibit H".

A. Yes.

Q. I hand you a paper purporting to have entered thereon collections of Lura E. Rabey from June 22nd, 1926, the date of A. J. Rabey's death, to the date Miss Lura E. Rabey left the farm, and I ask you if that represents the collections made by you during this period, as shown by books introduced in the evidence? (This paper marked "Exhibit I")

A. Yes.

Q. It is to be observed that "Exhibit H" does not include disbursements made from money deposited in American Bank & Trust Company by Lura E. Rabey, that being shown by a former exhibit, and that "Exhibit I" does not include Amounts deposited in American Bank & Trust Company by Lura E. Rabey, this being shown by a former exhibit.

Q. (Con't.) Miss Lura, "Exhibit C" shows that you collected from Ballard, as tenant of the Road Farm, three items, viz: $8.55; $7.89 and $2.11. Please state whether or not the items of $7.89 and $2.11 are shown in the statement of collections marked "Exhibit I".

A. Yes.

Q. As to the remaining item of $8.55, please state whether or not that item appears on either "Exhibit H" or "Exhibit I".

A. No.

Q. Please state what became of that $8.55?

A. It was paid out for picking cotton and labor on the place.

Q. Who collected the items shown on "Exhibit C" as receipts from Ballard, which items make an aggregate of $69.42?

A. Collected by Susie Rabey.

Q. The statements which you have just introduced contain accounts after June 22nd, 1926, the date of A. J. Rabey's death. Please state whether you are in a position to file a statement of the transactions occurring on the farm before A. J. Rabey's death?

A. No, sir, and nobody else.

Q. Who had charge of such matters before A. J. Rabey's death?

A. A. J. Rabey.

Q. When did you begin to keep accounts?

A. The latter part of June.

Q. Do you mean by that that you began immediately after the death of A. J. Rabey?

A. Yes, I think I began the 25th of June.

Q. During the period of time from A. J. Rabey's death to the time you left the farm, did you use any of the money collected for your own individual purposes?

A. No, sir.

Q. These exhibits show that you collected $63.93 during this period and that you expended, or rather that disbursements of $123.13 were made. From what source was this money paid other than collections ~~and~~ made by you?

A. From what I collected and what was left in the pocketbook.

Q. In other words you used such common funds as were available in paying from day to day?

A. Yes.

Q. Of course the amount spent by you out of the funds deposited in American Bank & Trust Company has been shown as an exhibit in this case?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you Executrix of the will of A. J. Rabey?

A. Yes.

Q. That is you were the Executor named in the will?

A. Yes.

Q. Has that estate been settled?

A. Yes.

Q. Before whom was your account filed?

A. Mr. Lee Britt.

Q. Can you remember when it was filed, approximately?

A. I cannot. I have no date of it.

Cross-Examination by M. E. Cruser:

Q. I hand you "Exhibit A", which I will thank you to keep before you, and "Exhibit C", Miss Rabey, the exhibit filed by you today, marked "Exhibit I", does not include any money you collected after you left the place does it?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is there anything in the records showing the collections made by you not covered in the bank account and not covered in that statement filed this morning?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make any collections?

A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you admit that you collected $90.00 from Ballard in 1927 on the rent?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that in that statement?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is that on the bank account?

A. No, sir, it is not on the bank account.

Q. Is there anything in the records showing it?

A. I have an account of 1927, marked "Exhibit E".

Q. Have you a statement in here showing everything you collected other than the rent from from Mr. Ballard, what is shown on your bank deposit and what is shown on "Exhibit I"?

A. Mr. Cruser, I have exhibited or given every account I have on earth one place or another. I cannot remember which exhibit it is on.

Q. Miss Rabey, in "Exhibit C" you have an item there marked "receipts from Ballard $69.42" that does not represent who received it?

A. Susie.

Q. Did she receive that in money?

A. I suppose some in money and some in proceeds that were carried to the house.

Q. Where did you get that information?

A. Part from her and the other part from Ballard.

Q. What is this $87.97 collected by you?

A. It was $8.55 for cotton, and if you will get that book it is all marked down. If you will get that long list on the statement this morning I think you will find it.

Q. That is included in "Exhibit H"?

A. I think it is mentioned in there.

Q. That is what was received by you from Ballard?

A. Yes.

Q. And you spent for guano $56.50 leaving $31.47.

A. He told me it was spent for guano.

Q. Who spent it?

A. He bought the guano and that is what was spent for it.

Q. You paid for it or the defendants paid for it?

A. They paid for it.

Q. They had $31.47 left in their hands you contend, and after you left they collected $56.00 for ^{corn} ~~fodder~~; $4.85 for fodder; $12.00 for ahog, and $10.00 for potatoes, leaving a total of $114.32 more than they spent out in your opinion?

A. Yes.

Q. You don't know whether they spent anything else out of this?

A. I gave you what I knew or what was brought to me.

Q. What you thought?

A. I did not.

Q. From such memorandum as you had?

A. I had a part from her own mouth and part from Mr. Ballard himself.

Q. You don't contend that you know it do you?

A. As far as that went.

Q. You have charged them with 482 bundles of fodder at $1.50 per hundred, and in "Exhibit I" you only charged yourself with $5.95 for 390 bundles of fodder, can you explain that?

A. It was according to the price of the fodder at the time.

Q. Why did you charge them $1.50 per hundred?

A. Because it was selling at that in 1926.

Q. Well, yours is in October, 1926. Was there that much variation in the price daily?

A. I don't understand what you are speaking of.

Q. The 1926 crop was gotten up in the Fall?

A. Certainly.

Q. And you charged the defendants with $1.50 per bundle?

A. I charged according to the price then and the amount of bundles they told me.

Q. What day was that?

A. I don't know.

Q. I am trying to get you to tell the Commissioner why, in the same month, you charged them with $1.50 per bundle and only charged yourself less than ten cents per bundle.

A. It was figured as they told me and at the price it was bringing at the time.

Q. It looks like you only charged yourself 2¢ per bundle, is that right?

A. I don't know.

Q. And you charged them with $22.20 for 482 bundles?

A. I remember that a small amount was some 1926 fodder and there was some 1927 fodder.

Q. So when you headed this item 1927 you have erred?

A. I have not erred at all, sir.

Q. What should it be?

A. I don't know.

J. K. Hutton: That is my error in computation.

Q. Then the first item under 1226 crop on "Exhibit C" should be corrected to read $7.23?

A. Yes. I never sold it over $1.50 per hundred in my life.

Q. Hay at $5.00 per load, ten loads, where did you get your information about that?

A. When Mr. Ballard told me about the loads of hay it was placed at $5.00. He said it was a fair price.

Q. You don't contend they got this price?

A. It was put in the barn and they fed it away. It was part of it fed before I left there. It all went into the barn.

Q. You are not putting in any claim for "Exhibit H" and "Exhibit I", the difference between $63.93 and $123.13 plus $34.09?

A. There is not any of my personal money spent in there.

Q. And did not come out of the bank account there?

A. No.

Mr. J. K. Hutton: I want to call the Commissioner's attention to the fact that the error in the bundles of fodder is obvious on the face of the Exhibit in as much as it is entered "482 bundles @ $1.50 per 100". It is clearly an error in computation.

Q. I understood you to testify that the crops left in possession of the defendants on the home place for 1926 were either used by them or sold and the money realized?

A. Certainly it was in their possession. I don't know what they done with it.

Q. The values you have placed on these crops are what you regard as the market value at the time?

A. Sure so.

Q. You have never received anything from these crops, have you?

A. No, sir.

And further this deponent saith not.

Susie E. Rabey, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Questions by Cleaton E. Rabey:

Q. Your name is Susie E. Rabey?

A. Yes.

Q. State in what capacity you have been connected with the parties and the subject matters of the suit of Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey and others, pending in the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, Virginia.

A. I have kept the books and records.

Q. Since when?

A. October 8th, 1926.

Q. At whose direction have you kept such books?

A. At the direction of my late aunt, Sarah R. Duke and my aunt, Georgianna Rabey.

Q. Are they the only parties under whose direction you have ever at any time kept any records concerning the operations on the farm in question?

A. No.

Q. If not, whose other direction have you kept books or accounts?

A. Under the direction of my uncle, A. J. Rabey.

Q. When did A. J. Rabey die?

A. June 22nd, 1926.

Q. How long prior to the time of his death was it that he gave you any directions in respect to the keeping of any accounts in reference to the farm or family transactions?

A. About the first of May, 1926, Aunt Lura being away at that time on a visit.

Q. When you say Aunt Lura, whom do you mean?

A. Lura E. Rabey.

Q. Can you explain to the Commissioner why at that time during her absence you were given these directions. I mean by that, was she then in the habit of keeping the records?

A. She did not keep a full record but kept the records as he wished them, I suppose.

Q. State whether or not, from and after the death of A. J. Rabey in 1926 to, and including, the year 1929 you have kept a statement of operations and transactions on the farm in which the parties to this suit were interested?

A. I have.

Q. State whether or not you have, from such records, a statement of these transactions?

A. I have, in detail.

Q. The defendant introduces "Exhibit 4" and asks that it be filed as a part of the evidence in this matter, and attached to which there are certain separate vouchers. I hand you "Exhibit 4" and ask you to state if that is an accurate and complete account of the transactions occurring in respect to the subject matter of this suit and this hearing from the time of the death of A. J. Rabey in 1926 to and including the year 1929?

~~Mr.~~ Mr. J. K. Hutton: We ask for the original books.

Mr. Cleaton E. Rabey: We are going to introduce them.

A. Yes.

Q. I ask you if there are any other items of receipts or expenditures whatever of which you have not a record in "Exhibit 4" introduced?

A. I have no other records. I have passed them all on to Mr. Cruser.

Q. Then do I understand from your answer there may be additional receipts or expenditures on the part of Miss Sarah R. Duke, deceased, records of which may be in the possession of her Administrator, M. E. Cruser?

A. Yes.

Q. The defendants introduce the original book of entry or accounts concerning the farm and other operations and accounts which are the subject matter of this suit and hearing from the time of the death of A. J. Rabey, in 1926 to and including 1929, which is marked #Exhibit 5". Who made the entries in this book of accounts, described as "Exhibit 5"?

A. I did.

Q. State when and how the entries were made therein by you, or the sources of the information therein.

A. Well, the first ones came from Aunt Lura. She had a little book, which is now in Exhibit and from October 8th to October 30th came from that book. When I was asked to keep books I copied what items I could find from her books and then as we paid the labor I put it on a calendar(I can produce this calendar) and then at the end of the week I would take that book and write it up.

Q. In other words I understand that your original sources the little books ended on October 8th, 1926 and thereafter you made your own entries from your own knowledge?

A. Yes.

Q. And thereafter you used a calendar for the daily records and then put it on this book of accounts?

A. Yes.

J. R. Saunders: We would like to have the calendar.

Q. You have the calendar?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you it with you?

A. No, I have not but I will bring it.

Q. State whether or not there may be any other items originating from any source whatsoever belonging to the farming operations and family operations in question but which you may not have any knowledge of by reason of your personal handling thereof?

A. I don't know of it.

J. K. Hutton: I want to enter an objection to the admission of that book marked "Exhibit 5" as not being the best evidence, as not being original entries and as containing material which the witness says was copied from someone else's book of accounts.

C. E. Rabey: We want to state that the entries are technically entries in a ledger. The witness has testified that the entries were made from daily blotter or record and posted therefrom. In certain instances, except when they were copied from a book kept by the complainant herself to October 8th, 1926 and thereafter kept by the witness as original entries made in the particular book introduced as "Exhibit 5". Will you state whether or not the book from which you copied the entries to October 8th is, or has been, introduced in the evidence during this hearing?

A. It is "Exhibit D2"

Q. Describe the book from which you copied such entries.

A. A little gray book.

Q. I hand you two books, one marked "Ex. D1 and the other marked Ex. D2, and ask you to state to the Commissioner whether you used either of the books in making the records.

A. Both of them.

Q. State how you knew they were records of the account referred to for that part of your record?

A. Aunt Lura herself kept them.

Q. State whether or not there is attached to and made a part of "Exhibit 4", introduced, any summary of these transactions, showing any balance and from whom that balance may be due in the division, etc.

A. Yes, it is.

Q. State whether or not the year 1928-1929 is contained on the account or statement thereof in ink is included as any part of that summary?

A. It is an addition thereto.

Questions by M. E. Cruser:

Q. You have a number of items marked with a star, a number of other items marked with a check mark, and a number of other items marked with an "O" in Exhibit 4. You state to the Commissioner the title of which is "Cost of Upkeep and Repairs after Lura E. Rabey left Home 1926" that the items marked with a star were paid by Sarah E. Duke individually; that the items marked with a check mark were paid by Georgianna Rabey individually and the items marked with an "O" were paid for together. Is that true?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know that of your own knowledge?

A. Yes.

J. K. Hutton: We object, first as to the introduction of all items of up-keep after the departure of Miss Lura E. Rabey from the farm and particularly the items of up-keep expended by Sarah R. Duke, deceased, on the grounds that, as to Sarah R. Duke deceased, such items would not be allowable in her favor in this procedure.

Q. Miss Rabey, on the sheet I just referred you to, you have an item of painting the house, first coat by Lee Bros. $80.00. Do you know of your own knowledge that that item was paid by Sarah R. Duke?

A. Yes, I have the contract, too.

Q. The item, Cleaning out well by J. Butt and son, $11.00, do you know of your own knowledge it was paid by Sarah R. Duke?

A. That was paid for by both.

Q. Out of the joint receipts?

A. Yes, the check will show for it.

Q. On the sheet headed Or entitled "Cost of Upkeep and Repairs for the year 1927" the item "Well Cleaned out on Road Place by Horace Babb" $1.50, do you know of your own knowledge that Sarah R. Duke paid that?

A. I saw her pay it in cash.

Q. On the sheet just named, the item of Digging Holes for telephone by J. T., $3.50. Do you know of your own knowledge that Miss Duke paid that money?

A. Yes, she did.

Q. Is that true of "Gas line, $5.00" also?

A. Yes.

Q. The sheet marked "Up-keep and Repairs for the year 1928", the item "Paint for Kitchen, $1.75", do you know that Sarah R. Duke also paid for that and "Repairing Gas Lines, $3.50"?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge that Sarah R. Duke paid $45.40, one-half of the taxes for that year?

A. Yes, she paid and she has the receipt for her half.

Q. Check payable to Treasurer of Nansemond County for $45.40 and receipt, marked Exhibit 6-1 and Exhibit 6-2, introduced as evidence. Also would like to introduce check of Sarah R. Duke to O. O. Rhea for $60.00 with notation thereon "Paid for Rodding barns and house", marked "Exhibit 7". I would like to introduce, marked "Exhibit 8" and "Exhibit 9" a statement showing the disbursements made by Sarah R. Duke during the year 1928 and part of the year 1929 on account of the farm, that are not included in the statement filed, marked "Exhibit 4" and checks and receipts or receipted bills attached to said Exhibits, showing the said payments of Miss Sarah R. Duke.

J. R. Saunders: It is understood we have an objection in there covering all of these items.

Q. I hand you "Exhibit 8" and ask you if these items for material purchased were for the Rabey farm during the years 1928 and 1929?

A. Yes.

Q. All of them?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you familiar with the personal property now in the homestead known as the Rabey Homestead?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you also familiar with the chattel property such as the farming implements not included in the house itself?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you a list of all of the said property in your possession?

A. Yes.

Q. I would like a list, first of the household effects or chattels within the mansion-house itself.

A. I gave it separately to my brother. I had it in this book over here. I revised it since we built a new kitchen on.

Q. I hand you "Exhibit 5" and ask you to turn to the pages marked XX and YY and ask you to state from that what household furniture belonged to the parties in this suit jointly and what individually?

A. I will and will hand you a statement showing the same.

Q. Miss Rabey, the electric light or lamp on said premises belongs to Miss Sarah R. Duke individually?

A. Yes.

Q. From whom did she purchase it?

A. Crumpler & Taylor.

Q. Is there a small green rug on the premises that belonged to Miss Sarah R. Duke individually?

A. Yes.

Q. From whom did she purchase that?

A. Victor Altschul. Receipt marked "Exhibit 10", introduced as evidence.

Q. Do you know whether or not there is a rocker or straight chair that belongs to Miss Sarah R. Duke individually?

A. There is one there she said her brother gave her.

J. K. Hutton: I object to anything she said. I reserve the right to other objections until such time as other statements are made by the witnesses.

Q. Did you ever hear her, in the presance of the other two parties to the suit state what was her property?

A. Yes, they know it.

Q. Was it denied by them?

A. The day the Commissioners were there it was denied by Miss Lura E. Rabey.

Q. Did you state whether or not there was a heater and rug on the premises that was the individual property of Sarah R. Duke?

A. Yes, she bought both from the store.

Q. From Brothers & Pruden?

A. Yes, or else from this Jew.

Q. And do you know whether or not there is on the premises a wardrobe that belonged to Miss Sarah R. Duke individually?

A. She claimed one but it is denied.

Q. Did you ever hear Miss Sarah R. Duke say it was her wardrobe?

A. It was always known as Aunt Beck's wardrobe.

J. K. Hutton: I object to that, your Honor. That is a little bit too remote to squeeze in under such a rule of evidence.

Q. Do you know a mattress, bed-springs and bureau that belongs to Sarah R. Duke?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know whether or not there was a ham and shoulder in the smokehouse or on the property that was the individual property of Miss Sarah R. Duke?

A. Yes.

Q. The items I have asked you about are the only items on the premises, except a "2 in 1" cultivator that Sarah R. Duke owned individually?

A. You did not mention her lounge.

Q. Do you know it to be a fact that the lounge was her's?

A. I don't know it was but they always called it her's.

J. K. Hutton: I would ask that the witness confine herself to the things she knows.

Wm. M. Birdsong, Commissioner: Confine yourself to the things you know.

Q. Did you, on one occasion, make a copy or inventory filed appraising the estate of A. J. Rabey?

A. Yes.

J. K. Hutton: We object to the introduction of the appraisement except for the purpose of showing what chattel property belonged to the estate of A. J. Rabey, deceased, in which Miss Lura E. Rabey sold her interest to Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey.

M. E. Cruser: Q. Is this the copy you made?

A. Yes.

Q. I introduce that copy as "Exhibit Eleven", and the bill of sale as "Exhibit 12". Tell if that property is still on the premises.

A. Some of it is and some is not.

Q. Which is and which is not?

A. The 2 horses and mules are not on the place; the oats, hay, live hogs, the 2 cows, the poultry, the bacon, one buggy is not there. I don't know what farming implements there are on there except the mowing machine was brought to Brothers-Pruden and could not be repaired so I suppose it is still around there in junk.

Questions by C. E. Rabey:

Q. I ask you to look at "Exhibit 4" on the page designated "Clearview's Claims against Lura E. Rabey" and explain to the Commissioner the first item thereon of $76.50.

A. That is the amount left in Aunt Lura's bureau drawer at my Uncle's death. Shall I tell you how I know it?

Q. I want you to tell fully all of your knowledge concerning that item.

A. After being repeatedly asked by her two sisters how much money was in the house after his death, she went into the bureau drawer and took out the envelope containing the money and asked me to count it and I did so, and it was $76.50.

Q. When you refer to "she", whom do you mean?

A. Aunt Lura.

Q. So you know of your own knowledge that $76.50 was the amount of money there at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. And what became of that if nobody took possession of it?

A. Aunt Lura had it in possession.

Q. Do you know whether or not she has ever returned that $76.50 to any of the interested parties, in any manner whatsoever?

A. She has not to my knowledge.

Q. I ask you to refer to the next item on that page, amounting to $543.71, and explain your knowledge concerning that item.

A. It was the amount because I had the account changed for Aunt Lura at her request from my Uncle's name to her's, several weeks before he died, and only one check had been given, the check which she gave to his nurse, a check of $30.00, a check which I made out and she signed it, therefore I know it was $543.71.

~~xx~~ J. K. Hutton: This is not in dispute.

Q. I ask you to refer to the same page and to the next item thereon, amounting to $300.00, and tell the Commissioner what you know in respect thereto.

A. I know she had $300.00 on July first, 1926, in her hand counting it. I did not count it. She spoke of it as $300.00 which she said belonged to her. She said, "Susie, you know I paid your hospital bill and the place was to pay me back for it." I said, "Yes, ma'am, I know you paid out around $300.00 for my hospital bill but I also know that the place gave you $270.00 which you deposited last month for that." She seemed to be infuriated with me for the time being but soon said, "Well, this place owes me a lot of money and Jack told me to take it." I said, "Well, Aunt Lura, how about the money Aunt Margaret paid him the last time he went to town, is that it?", and she said she never heard of any money from Margaret Byrd, and I said "He gave it to you in a little paper bag.", and she said, "If Jack says that it is a lie."

Q. I understand in your answer just given that Aunt Lura, to whom you refer as having been in conversation with in reference to this $300.00, is the complainant, Lura E. Rabey?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know what became of that particular $300.00?

A. I do not. I have never seen it or said anything about it since she told me not to mention it to Annie or Beck because that was between her and Jack.

Q. Do you know if the complainant has ever made any accounting of this $300.00 to the other parties in this suit?

A. She denied their having any interest in it, yet she admitted in her testimony that between from $300.00 to $500.00 was kept in the house.

Q. When did the complainant admit this?

A. In a prior hearing in this suit.

J. K. Hutton: Your Honor will take cognizance of the testimony in this suit.

Q. Do I understand from this item, as listed, that that $300.00 was, at the time you saw it and at the time of this conversation, either immediately before or immediately after, in a certain suitcase kept locked by the complainant, Lura E. Rabey?

A. It was not in the suitcase, but was kept out in a little sachel, On the morning of July first when she came to qualify as Executrix on my Uncle's estate, she was sitting on a little lounge in her room with the sachel on her lap and she had this $300.00 in her hands. My coming in must have been unexpected because she said: "O, my Lord, I thought you had gone to Lois Rabey's!", and I said: "I am going but I just came in to see when you wanted me to take you to town." She further said: "Sis Beck has just been in here and I cannot have any privacy. If it is not one it is the other."

Q. Do you know what became of the small sachel you have just referred to in your previous answer?

A. She took it to Aunt Nellie's with her on the afternoon of October 8th and it has never been there since she left. She ^{left} ~~took~~ the two little books there but she did not leave the sachel.

Q. Will you state whether or not you have examined all of the accounts and records concerning the estate of A. J. Rabey and those concerning the subject matter of this suit and shether or not that item of $300.00 to your knowledge appears in any of them?

A. It does not.

Cross-Examination by J. K. Hutton:

Q. Do you undertake to tell the Commissioner where that $300.00 came from, or not?

A. I don't know where it came from, but when Sarah R. Duke went to Aunt Margaret Byrd's she told her of having paid my Uncle $500.00 the last time she was in town. I don't think his bank book shows that he ever deposited anything on it, ~~or not~~.

Q. And do you suggest that Margaret Byrd's money is the money in question?

A. No, I don't know whether it is or not. There was some other money there. As she said in her testimony there was always several hundred dollars in the house.

Q. Do you know this money, $500.00, was paid to A. J. Rabey?

A. She said she paid it to him.

Q. So you inquired of Margaret Byrd as to whether she had paid this money or not?

A. I did not inquire. She told me, Sarah R. Duke and myself.

Q. When?

A. She called up and said Mr. Rabey had loaned her money for twenty years and that he said when he was dead to come to me and I said I was sorry I could not help her but maybe Aunt Lura could if she would see her, and then she told me she did not owe Jack, my Uncle, anything, that she had paid him the last time he came to town.

Q. Do you know when that was?

A. The first of May.

Q. And the date of his death was June 22nd?

A. Yes.

Q. You said the first time you saw this $300.00 was on what occasion?

A. On July first, 1926.

Q. How do you know so well exactly what day it was?

A. I have a lot to remember on that date. I might be mistaken about some things, my memory is not always correct, I suppose, but I remember that.

Q. It seems you can remember pretty well. And she was sitting on the sofa and expressed great surprise at seeing you come in?

A. Yes.

Q. And had the sachel on her lap?

A. Yes. I thought she simply did not want to be annoyed while looking over those papers. I did not think she minded me.

Q. You did not mean to imply she had a guilty conscience?

A. No, I had no thought of that. She knew I had never seen inside that sachel and when I came in and she had it open it was unexpected to her.

Q. How could you tell how unexpected it was?

A. I am simply stating what happened.

Q. What did she say to you?

A. She said, "O my Lord, I thought you had gone to Lois Rabey's". Why did she say that?

Q. You are the witness. What else did she say?

A. She had the $300.00 in her hand.

Q. Did you see the $300.00, what denominations was it in?

A. She had a hundred dollar bill in her hand I saw and I had never seen one before.

Q. You had never seen a hundred dollar bill before?

A. No, sir, I had never seen one before. I saw that and she said she had $300.00 there.

Q. Repeat what you just said.

A. I know she had $300.00 in her hand because she said she had $300.00 there and I saw the $100.00 bill.

Q. You know it was $300.00 only because she told you herself?

A. She said "This $300.00 belongs to me. I paid your hospital bill and the place owes it back to me."

Q. How did she pay your hospital bill?

A. With her own personal check.

Q. And she then explained to you that the estate owed her on account of having paid your hospital bills, and you reminded her the estate had paid her to the extent of $270.00?

A. Yes.

Q. She then told you not to tell her two sisters?

A. Yes, she often said, "Don't tell" so and so.

Q. Did she tell you where the money came from?

A. No, sir, she did not.

Q. Did you ask her where the money came from?

A. No, sir I did not.

Q. This was all voluntary on her part, no doubt, wasn't it?

A. Yes, I did not ask her anything about it. It was really not my affair.

Q. It was really none of your business, you might say?

A. It was not.

Q. You told her you would not tell it?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you tell it?

A. No, sir, not until this suit came up, this bill she first made against us.

Q. You mean until the bill was filed in this case?

A. Yes, this bill in which she bitterly denounced me and broke all faith, in addition to breaking faith with her brother and his last request.

Q. This bill was filed on December 7th, 1927, marked filed by Geo. E. Bunting, Clerk. You read that bill?

A. Yes, very painfully.

Q. And thereupon you told them about the $300.00?

A. Not immediately.

Q. How long would you say?

A. The next time I was getting up my accounts, possibly upon advice of counsel, as to what was in that sachel and how much had been taken away.

Q. And of course when you found out your aunts were interested you then of course told them frankly the conversation you had with Miss Lura about this matter, the $300.00?

A. I did not tell them then frankly all about it. I have told that since.

Q. I again ask you when you told them. A few moments ago you said you told them when you became interested with counsel, and then you said you did not tell them until later.

A. It was brought out by counsel during that time. I know that is not very definite.

Q. Who was your counsel at that time?

A. M. E. Cruser. My two aunts were in the office. I don't know whether I had told them before or not.

Q. This was in December, 1927?

A. Yes.

Q. The bill did not discuss any claim Miss Lura had against you. You did not say anything at all to them until the bill was filed?

A. No, not until the question came up as to a settlement between them.

Q. But as soon as the question came up between them as to how the matter stood you told them all about your conversation with Miss Lura?

A. Yes, and about the Liberty Bond, too. I told my counsel.

Q. You mean your aunts' counsel when you say "My" counsel?

A. Yes.

Q. Here is a declaration filed on February first, 1928, in the case of Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey v. Lura E. Rabey, in which they undertake to recover certain counts ~~claimed~~ claimed to be due them. Did you furnish the information upon which these ~~xx~~ counts were based?

A. I suppose I did, some of them I do not recognize and some I do recognize.

Q. From whom else could he have gotten it?

A. Aunt Beck and Aunt Annie.

Q. Did you not particularly say that Mr. A. J. Rabey had requested you to keep accounts and also your Aunt Beck had gotten you to keep accounts?

A. Not all of them at once. I just kept what he asked me to keep.

Q. Did you not supply the information from which the accounts were taken when this difficulty came up between the aunts?

A. Yes.

Q. You of course told them about the $76.50?

A. I told them about that at the time.

Q. Yes, and about the money in the bank?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you see that item of $76.50 in this bill, that you claim was in the sachel when this suit was brought?

A. No, I do not see it.

Q. Can you imagine why it was omitted?

A. Through an oversight, I suppose. I had knowledge of that item. She admitted in her testimony there was around $80.00 there at the time so I don't suppose you doubt that.

Q. Did you give them information about the $300.00?

A. At that time, no.

Q. Didn't you testify a few moments ago that when counsel came you told them about the $300.00?

A. Aunt Beck said, "She will pay that, because Lura told me she would do it."

Q. Then you told your Aunt Beck?

A. Yes, I told her that day.

Q. What day?

A. The day this was filed.

Q. When did you tell your Aunt Rebecca?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Didn't you just say that you had told your Aunt Beck and she said Lura would pay it?

A. Yes.

Q. So you did, then, explain about the $300.00 before the account was filed and this declaration was made?

A. We had discussed it, yes. She said Aunt Lura said, "I will pay you all I owe you. I am responsible."

Q. Didn't you consider your Aunt Lura just as responsible for what you sued her for as for the $300.00?

A. Yes.

M. E. Cruser: Don't confuse the witness.

J. K. Hutton: This witness is just as smart as you are and smarter than I am, and she is not confused.

Q. Of course you would not intentionally have been a party to hold back that information when you knew a fraud was being perpetrated by your Aunt Lura?

A. At first we did not believe she was going to do as she has. We offered to ~~say we would~~ gladly pay her all we owed her if she would pay us. I have that letter now.

Q. You say that item you saw, $300.00, was that when you went in this room?

A. Yes, you won't get me mixed up on that.

Q. You never thereafter saw it?

A. No.

Q. You never saw it in the sachel?

A. I never saw the sachel open before.

Q. You did not see it in the sachel?

A. No.

Q. Did you see the Liberty Bond?

A. Saw it on the couch, $100.00 denomination.

Q. Did you not make claim for two bonds?

A. I don't know. My Uncle Jack said he had two.

Q. You said this sachel had a key?

A. It did not have a key. She kept it in a suitcase that did lock.

Q. The little sachel was unlocked, then?

A. Yes, always and kept the big one that was locked behind the wardrobe.

Q. When she left to come away, did she take the little sachel with her?

A. Yes.

Q. You are quite confident of that?

A. Yes, she brought it to Mr. Britt's office.

Q. When Miss Lura left the farm first for a while, what was the date of her leaving?

A. October 8th, almost night.

Q. She did not come back any more?

A. She came back October 30th.

Q. When did she take the sachel away?

A. October 8th.

Q. Miss Lura will testify she brought it later. You will say she is mistaken?

A. Yes, because those two sisters were getting worried about it, said she has gone and taken everything. Their sales were in there and insurance policies.

Q. When A. J. Rabey's estate was settled, was there any question raised about that $300.00 before Mr. Britt?

A. No, because they did not consider it his.

Q. About the only suggestion you have made here today was that this was money Margaret Byrd paid back to Jack.

A. I also told you Aunt Lura said there was always $300. or $400. in the house.

Q. So you concluded that was the $300.00?

A. I did not tell you that.

Q. You did not see the $300.00?

A. I saw the $100.00 bill and her hand full of bills and she spoke of it as "this $300.00".

Q. You did not think much of her taking $300.00 and not telling her sisters?

A. She asked me not to tell it. She often told me not to tell them things so as not to raise a fuss.

Q. So when you filed all this evidence you received information from other sources?

A. I am not presenting anything on my books except what I can show for, except the labor, and I can produce the laborers. If there is any hearsay there you can strike it out.

Q. How can you file this $300.00 count in this suit when you are unable to tell the Court whether this $300.00 belongs to the estate of A. J. Rabey or not?

Cleaton E. Rabey: She is merely a witness. She is not suing.

Q. The other items entered here are brought down from these two books?

A. There are a very few things taken from those two books. There are four years of items I know myself.

Q. I understood you to testify that you copied the items from these two books.

M. E. Cruser: She testified that the items down to 1926, October 8th/were from that book.

Q. Here is a $150.00 item, "rent from road farm for 1927" Where did you get that item from, Miss Susie?

A. The Road Farm had previously rented for $150.00. I got it from that. I don't know what her contract was that year but that seemed fair as it had previously rented for that. I have some contracts here from old renters I can show.

Q. You have no reason to doubt Miss Lura's statement that she received only $90.00 from Ballard?

A. ~~Yes~~ I have no reason to accept it.

Q. It was contended in here that the value of the crops collected from it by Miss Lura was $697.25. That was just an estimate?

A. I don't think that was on the Ballard Farm alone.

Q. Will you please point out in this statement entitled "Clearview Claims Against Lura E. Rabey" what items were drawn from other sources than Miss Lura E. Rabey's books?

A. Amount of cash on hand at A. J. Rabey's death, $76.50; Amount in bank at his death, $543.71; amount in small sachel kept locked in Lura E. Rabey's suitcase, $300.00; Liberty Bond, $100.00. (I placed that in the last bill I made up, not because I saw it that morning, but because she herself admitted that in her own testimony, said it was for the three sisters. I did not know they had one belonging to the three sisters before.)

All important papers and deeds

Check for cow and calf sold to Howerton, $60.00; Cash for stock hog sold J. S. Powell, $19.00; (I got that from hearsay of all of the sisters) Brood pig she gave to John Ballard, $20.00; (He came up home and said Miss Lura wants me to have this pig, she thinks it would be a good stock hog. It was a gift, she gave him to him. So my aunts let him take the hog away and he gave us a receipt, saying on it, "Received this pig she had given him. I have it valued at $20.00. That was far more than the pig was worth but I understood she had us charged with thirty hogs at $20.00 each, so that was her own estimate as to what each hog was worth. The pig was worth about $12.00 I would say, market price.)

Cash given her from sale of meat to L. O. Parker, $19.16; (Nannie collected the money for said meat in my presence and in my presence and the presence of Sarah R. Duke, deceased, she gave it to Aunt Lura to go in the family pocket-book.)

Cotton Check from Ballard (Hearsay from Ballard), $8.55; One 8½ lb. ham she took from the smokehouse in July, 1927. I saw her take the key, go in the smokehouse, get it and weigh it, $4.25; Sidemeat sold to C. F. Spencer (Hearsay from Spencer), $5.55. My two aunts, who remained on the place, saw the ⁸⁰meat low and she admitted selling it to him.

Check to Ella MacSheane, taken out of A. J. Rabey's Estate and not refunded to Clearview's account, $30.00; I know that check was given from the joint account or funds. I know that the sisters remaining at Clearview have not been refunded their share of same.

Check for Mary V. Rabey's rent, 1926, $25.00; I saw Mary V. Rabey pay her that money in ~~Miss~~ Mrs. George Daughtrey's sitting room.

Cash for 390 bundles of fodder she sold to J. C. Ballard (Hearsay from J. C. Ballard) $5.85; Rent from Road Farm in 1927, $150.00; I simply estimated that at $150.00 because that farm had formerly rented for that amount, see old contracts.

J. K. Hutton: I want to object to such of the items as are based on hearsay testimony. I would say this to the Commissioner that many of the items mentioned are items shown on the account filed by Lura E. Rabey this morning, there being of course some discrepancy shown there as to the various items.

Q. Did I understand you to say that the $20.00 item for a pig was a gift to John Ballard?

A. Shall I give you his statement?

Q. I believe you stated it was a gift. I object to any statement Mr. Ballard made either orally or in writing.

A. He gave me a receipt stating he had the pig.

Q. Now the item of $19.16 you said was paid by L. O. Parker to Miss Annie and in your presence Annie Rabey gave it to Miss Lura and asked her to put it in the general fund?

A. Yes.

Q. The item of $30.00, which I will call the MacSheane item, of course you are unable to say whether or not that item is not shown by the bank account filed at the last hearing?

A. I did not see the last account.

Q. The item of $4.28 for a ham which I believe you testified she gave to Sister Nellie. Do you know anything about that?

A. I testified that Aunt Lura got it out of the smokehouse herself.

Q. Did she say what she was going to do with it?

A. I thought she was going to take it home with her to eat.

M. E. Cruser: She thought you meant Mrs. Daughtrey.

J. K. Hutton: There are one or two ~~items~~ statements filed here under the title, "Clearview's Claims Against Lura E. Rabey" that are based on sources other than personal knowledge of the defendants. I want to object to them.

M. E. Cruser: I will admit what is not personal evidence.

Q. Is it not a fact that some of the money A. J. Rabey had when he died was in his pocketbook upstairs?

A. No, it was brought down and put in the bureau drawer in the room where he was.

Q. What room was this?

A. Aunt Lura's room.

Q. It was the room in which he was?

A. Yes and the pocketbook was there.

Q. In your Expenses of Clearview Estate, Lura E. Rabey's Credits, you have listed many articles in the nature of crops etc. you have listed many items that were raised on the farm in 1926 and gave the amount for which they were sold. Do these crops represent all that was left on the home place when Miss Lura left?

A. All except possibly what was eaten by the horses.

Q. Any seed peanuts?

A. Some sold to Mr. Ballard, none ourselves.

Q. All except what was eaten by the family and carried over for the use of the following year?

A. Yes. Let me see if I understand what you mean. Everything except what was eaten by the horses and people.

Q. Was there not some portion of the crops left there carried over by all for the coming year?

A. No, nothing but what we ate.

Q. You sold everything on the farm, lock, stock and barrel?

A. No, I have not said that. We had team to feed.

Q. Besides what was eaten, did you have anything except what was sold?

A. Just the things sold, but if you can find anything else that was there and have any way of estimating, we are willing to give her her part of them. If she had been there she would have had it as we did. We want to do what is right.

Q. What team did you have to feed?

A. We had three and then one team the next year.

Q. How many hogs?

A. Two to carry over.

Q. Any other stock?

A. One cow and some chickens.

Q. Could you say how many bushels of corn you carried over to feed the stock?

A. Possibly the man who worked for us and Mr. Ballard could tell you exactly or approximately. Not a great amount because it was a short year and a dry year like this year and we did not have much of a crop.

Q. For the year 1927^(This probably is 1926.)/Lura E. Rabey received the rent from the Road Farm and in the year 1927 it was rented out?

A. C. Taylor rented part of it on shares.

Q. From the income of your farm during 1928 and 1929 you have listed one-third of all income for the years 1928 and 1929 at $102.41, in other words all of the income from your place for the years 1928 and 1929 only amounted to three times $102.41?

A. That is not our place but only a part we had rented out.

Q. A part, what part is that?

A. The cut over near the graveyard,

Q. And then you included the Road Farm for 1929?

A. Yes, the part we are supposed to receive.

Q. With the exception of the cut you just referred to, you have not included any income or profits from what is known as the Home Place?

A. The part Bartemus White has is from the Home Place.

Questions by J. R. Saunders:

Q. Is it not true that in the record so itemized, that all of the expenses that went towards the upkeep and improvements on the farm, included the place where you and Miss Duke and Annie Rabey live?

A. Not all of them but all of the fences. We were told not to tell the Commissioners one bit of the improvement on the place because they would look on it as if Miss Lura put it on there. We got less land because we had a finer house, and greater house than when she went there and she got credit from the Commissioners because they were not told we had put the improvements there. I did not speak to them about it at all.

Q. While you charged her up with all of the improvements and repairs that were made on the property you give her no credit for the income from the Home Place in which you live?

A. Yes, some, the Bartemus White place.

Q. What part did you cultivate or was cultivated?

A. We cultivated a portion of the Home Place.

Q. For the part you cultivated during that period you give her no credit?

A. No, she did not contribute to the expenses or to the labor.

Q. Will you file here what crops were raised on that part of the farm and for which you have given her no credit?

A. Yes.

Q. During the year 1928 you charged her up with a long list of items covered in your "Exhibit 8", did you not?

A. All of this was what was used at the ~~gate~~ ^{gate}, this was Aunt Beck's account. This was not for our place, that is the farm Aunt Lura now has, that is not on our Home Place.

Q. Was this $115.00 for electric wiring on the Home Place?

A. Only $15.00 of that and considering the poles and all she got the benefit of all those things. It is as much on her place as ours.

Q. But during the time that you were making all of these charges and you were expecting to prove them against her in her account, you were giving her no credit, and have at no place in this hearing given any account of the crops raised on the part where you and Miss Annie Rabey and Miss Becky Duke lived?

A. It is all on file in that book. My whole record is in that.

Q. With reference to this book, I believe you said you were going to file a calendar from which you got these items you offer, did you?

A. Yes. I was not expecting to be called on for it or I would have brought it, and that was 1929. J. T. Ballard rented on shares and I kept this book with just the 1929 records in it and I copied the 1929 from this book.

Q. Will you file it?

A. Yes, but there are some 1930 records in it. Introduced into evidence, marked "Exhibit 13".

Q. Now, if I understand you correctly, you copied some of the items from the two little books filed?

A. Yes.

Q. On a page of "Exhibit 5", which I am marking "00", you copied the whole thing?

A. No, just the things I indicated to Mr. Hutton.

Q. Some of the items in this book you have copied from the two little books filed here by Miss Lura E. Rabey?

A. Yes.

Q. There are some other items in this book, covering the 1930 account with Ballard?

A. I have not carried 1930. He was there in 1929 and I copied it. Cleaton asked me to copy from that book to ~~this~~ book. I am willing for you to have everything.

Q. You copied in this book, "Exhibit 5, some from the two little books that Miss Lura E. Rabey furnished?

A. Yes.

Q. And some from the other book you now file, marked "Exhibit 13"?

A. Yes.

Q. And all of the rest of the items in this book were copied from the calendar that you will bring?

A. I will if I can find it. I did not know I needed it.

Q. That calendar was kept by you daily as these transactions occurred?

A. Yes, whenever they did I would mark them.

Q. And were posted by you from time to time?

A. Each week from that calendar.

Q. You posted them each week?

A. Yes, generally on Saturday night/~~XX~~^{after} I came home. You will notice on Saturday night I put my totals on the food and farm supplies. During the week I put the items on the calendar and at the end of the week whenever it was convenient I posted them on to this book. This was our personal income, what we could sell our butter, milk etc., I would keep it right there on that calendar.

Q. You have had this particular book since 1926 and have used it from day to day as you posted your items in there?

A. From week to week, yes.

Q. This book has been in your possession and in constant use by you all during the years 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1929?

A. Yes.

Questions by Mr. Hutton:

Q. Pages "XX" and "YY" in "Exhibit 5" are referred to for the purpose of agreeing between the parties hereto that the articles listed on pages "XX" and "YY" of "Exhibit 5" as belonging to all jointly, with the exception of one clock and one piano. It is agreed that:

One desk in bedroom belongs to Miss Susie;
One ~~Washstand~~^{trunk} in bedroom belongs to Sarah R. Duke estate;
One Washstand to Miss Georgianna Rabey;
One bedstead, white, spring & mattress to Georgianna Rabey;

One Carpet in Bedroom to Susie Rabey;
One Feather Mattress to Sarah R. Duke Estate;
2 Feather Mattresses to Lura E. Rabey;
1 Chifferobe to Susie Rabey;
1 small Victrola to Susie Rabey;
1 Bureau, washstand and bed to Georgianna Rabey;
2 Pillows to Susie Rabey;
1 Frigidaire to Georgianna Rabey;
1 Set of Silverware to Susie Rabey;

The following articles ~~are~~ of household furniture are in dispute:

1 Bureau claimed by Administrator of Sarah R. Duke estate;
1 dining-room table claimed by Georgianna Rabey;
1 Piano claimed by Lura E. Rabey;
One Clock claimed by Mrs. Nellie Daughtrey.

It is further agreed that the hall-rack belongs to Miss Lura E. Rabey, the lace curtains hanging in the parlor and two porch chairs.

It is agreed that Miss Lura E. Rabey and Miss Georgianna Rabey waive any claim on behalf of the group to the bureau claimed by Sarah R. Duke's Estate.

It is further agreed that the dining room table belongs to the group.

Lura E. Rabey, recalled:

Questions by J. K. Hutton:

Q. I understand that you claim that the piano in the home belongs to you. Will you state the basis of your claim to ownership of that piano?

A. I worked for the money and paid for it against their will, some of them. Sis Beck agreed for me to have it but she never paid a dime on it in her life. The organ was given to me by my father because he said I was the first one to play and start music, and he gave it to me.

Q. Do I understand that you traded the organ for this piano at Burk-Hume's?

A. Yes.

Q. When was that?

A. July 21st, 1910.

Q. Is that the day you made the trade?

A. Yes.

Q. This item of $250.00 on this statement, is that the difference between the organ and the piano?

A. Yes.

Q. What was the amount allowed on the organ?

A. $60.00

Q. Drayage was $5.00, cash $185.00, the $250.00 includes the organ and $185.00 represents the cash difference?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you pay this cash difference?

A. I certainly did.

Q. Do you remember if you gave it in the form of check or cash?

A. In cash.

Q. From what bank did you draw the cash?

A. I did not have it in bank. I was canvassing and selling for some man in Philadelphia and making money of my own.

Q. Do you mean to say you got a part of the money or all of it from canvassing?

A. Part of it. I had some.

Q. Who was handling the joint funds of the co-tenants in 1910?

A. I was not. Jack was handling them.

Q. To whom did the organ belong?

A. To me. I was the first one to take music in the family and my father bought it for me.

Q. Did A. J. Rabey keep the accounts up to the time he died?

A. Yes, all the accounts and all of the bills. There was nothing kept, just paid when they came up.

Q. How long back do you claim that the organ belonged to you, when was the gift of the organ made to you?

A. It was done before my father died and he died in 1892.

Q. Did I understand you to say that you were the first of the children to take music?

A. Yes.

Q. Was that when he bought the organ?

A. Yes.

Cross-Examination by Cleaton E. Rabey:

Q. Do you remember the occasion of the purchase of the piano and the purpose for which it was bought?

A. So that Susie and Nellie could have a later date musical instrument to practice on. Everybody else was trading, they were not using organs much then and I preferred to have a piano there to play on.

Q. Do you remember the birth-day of Susie Rabey?

A. I think I do. I think she was born on the 26th of October, 1894.

Q. Was it not at, or about, the time of her twelfth birthday that it was determined by all who were there living on the Rabey Farm that they would buy a piano for Susie?

A. No, sir, there was opposition to it. Jack did not want to trade and never paid a dollar on it.

Q. Then do you deny that the piano was actually purchased by them, all who were there, for Susie Rabey and is her property?

A. No, sir, it never was so in this world. I never heard of such a thing before. Where did you get it?

Q. You contend that the piano was purchased by you for your sole benefit?

A. Not my sole benefit because I wanted all to play on it.

Q. Then if other witnesses would take the stand and say you were mistaken in that statement and that it was purchased by all as a joint property even though you handled the transaction and bought as a gift for Susie Rabey you would deny it?

A. I absolutely deny anything like it.

And further this deponent saith not.

Georgianna Rabey, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Questions by Cleaton E. Rabey:

Q. Your name is Georgianna Rabey?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know anything about the purchase of a piano that is now in the Rabey home?

A. I do.

Q. Will you tell the Commissioner when, where and why it was purchased?

A. That organ was bought by the family for the benefit of my sisters Nellie Duke and Lura Rabey and myself to learn to play, a family piece for all that organ was.

Lura and Nellie was the first to play. I took it up, picked it up. They were taught but I picked it up. Then when the organ was traded away for the piano it was done when Susie Rabey came from school and knew how to play. Nellie Duke played on it some but I don't think I ever heard Lura Rabey play on it.

Q. To whom does it belong today?

A. To all because Sis Beck gave hers to Susie. I gave my part to her. If the organ belonged to all, Jack had a right in it and we have two rights in there now.

Cross-Examination by J. R. Saunders:

Q. Do you know in what year that organ was bought?

A. No, because it has been so long.

Q. About how old were you when it was bought?

A. I was about twenty-five.

Q. Was Miss Lura older?

A. Nearly three years older than I am. I was the one who always stayed in the back when anybody was there and did the work.

Q. Did Mr. Rabey buy the organ when Miss Lura and Nellie Duke were young girls in their teens?

A. No, we did not have any then. It was when Miss Lura Butt was teaching school and Nellie Duke was going to school and taking music from Miss Kate Hayes.

Q. Who purchased this organ?

A. My father and my mother bought it.

Q. How much did you pay for the organ?

A. The organ was bought by my father and my mother as a family piece of furniture in the house,

Q. You did not pay anything on the organ yourself?

A. No, only what my father did.

Q. You don't know how long ago that organ was bought?

A. If I was to go back and look it up possibly I could tell you. Nellie is in her fiftys. I don't know the name of the organ.

Q. Do you know how much he paid for it?

A. No.

Q. Do you know who he purchased it from?

A. No, sir, I don't know.

And further this deponent saith not.

Susie E. Rabey, recalled:

Questions by CLEATON E. RABEY:

Q. State what, if anything, you know about the piano in question. Are you, or are you not, interested in that piano?

A. Very much. That comes closest to my heart, closer than anything else. My aunts bought it and said they gave it to me when I was a little girl.

Q. Do you recall the circumstances under which it was given to you?

A. I understood that all three of my aunts gave it to me.

Q. Which three?

A. Aunt Beck, Aunt Lura and Aunt Annie.

Q. Have you or not heard any change in that respect until the institution of this suit?

A. I never heard it until the Commissioners came that day is the first time I ever heard it, but I don't want it if Aunt Lura don't want me to have it.

Lura E. Rabey, recalled:

Questions by J. K. Hutton:

Q. You have heard Miss Susie's testimony. Did you ever give her the piano?

A. Never. I told her when I died I would leave it to ~~her~~ who I wanted to, but she could use it all she wanted to , but I never have given it to anybody. And further this deponent saith not.

Susie E. Rabey, recalled:

Questions by C. E. Rabey:

Q. About this particular set of china which is in dispute, do you, or not, know anything?

A. It is mine. I bought it and paid for it with this ^{won} check. I/~~won~~ a Ford car down here and traded it for a coupe. Uncle Jack loaned me the money to trade.

It took me several months to pay for it, but I did pay for it with the first money I made teaching school and here is the last $50.00 she was talking about and she endorsed it. He was with me the day I bought the china.

Q. I hand you check drawn by you February 2nd, 1924, marked "Exhibit 16" and for the sum of $57.00 payable to Bradshaw Hardware Company and has a notation thereon for one set of china. I ask you what that check was given for?

A. This check was given for a set of china.

Q. Which set of china?

A. The only set I own. My Uncle was with me the day I bought it.

Q. State whether that is the set of china which is now in dispute?

A. It is.

Q. You referred a moment ago to certain money borrowed from A. J. Rabey in connection with an automobile. I had you "Exhibit 15" and "Exhibit 17" and ask you what they are for.

A. When I won this car I wanted a coupe. My Uncle loaned me the money, $240.00 was the difference I had to pay. I guess the Elliott Motor Company will show that is what the difference was.

Q. On March 21, 1924, was the last check you paid him?

A. Yes, I taught school at Cypress Chapel and paid him in full and he~~f~~ gave me this receipt.

Q. Why did you mention that in your answer when you first referred to it?

A. I have all of the other receipts. Because the day the Commissioners were there the table was set in the dining-room, and Aunt Lura said, "This is my china, or belongs to all of us." She said, "You know Jack loaned you the money for all of this." I said, "Yes, but I paid him and I have receipts for it." She said, "Yes, you might have paid it but who paid your doctor's bill?" Mr. Hutton was present. I did not know there was any question about my owning it. I paid my Uncle back. I never have paid the doctor's bill. I do not claim to have paid it.

Cross-Examination by J. K. Hutton:

Q. What was the purchase price of the china?

A. $57.00 and I have bought several pieces later at Laderberg's sale.

Q. This check made payable to A. J. Rabey for $50.00, what is the relation of that to the china?

A. On that date, the first Saturday in February, the date the teachers were paid off, I gave him my check that date and went in and bought that china and he went with me. I have ~~XXXX~~ the checks I gave him at home.

Q. This check has on it, "~~Money~~ On Account to date for money loaned on Ford coupe". Were you paying on that loan at this time?

A. Yes, borrowed it on the coupe, not on the china.

Q. This is just used to remind you of the date?

A. No, Aunt Lura said the china belonged to all of them and it is mine. I told Uncle Jack I wanted a receipt for what I had paid him and he said right out "I will give you a receipt" and he gave it to me.

Q. Did you pay him by check?

A. That is it.

Q. That check to Bradshaw is the one you gave him for the purchase of china?

A. Yes.

Cross-Examination by J. K. Hutton: continued:

Q. The money you got when you paid for the coupe was from the family fund, was it not? Who gave it to you?

A. I don't remember, but it must have been Aunt Lura because as she said this morning there was always between $300.00 and $400.00 in the house.

Q. Who did you hand the money back to when you paid it back?

A. I made every check payable to A. J. Rabey because he had the farm account here in the bank.

Q. You have all of those checks?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever give Miss Lura any of this money?

A. No, sir, I made every check payable to A. J. Rabey. The joint fund was in his name.

Q. Will you file these checks in here?

A. Yes, I certainly will. If she wants a pound of flesh I am willing to give it to her. She doubts her brother's own name.

Lura E. Rabey, recalled:

Questions by J. K. Hutton:

Q. Make whatever statement you have to make about the china.

A. Susie wanted a car, she won a car but she wanted a coupe. She wrote to her father so she told me and read the letter to me, to borrow the money for the difference which was $250.00. Her father refused her, she never heard from him she said. She came to me. I told her I could not loan that much but if the family said so that was in the house at that time and Jack she could go to each one and she went to each one. I went to Jack myself with it. He said go along and let her have it. This money came out of that little sachel. It was the last good amount that came out of the sachel. That money was to come back in cash, you will find the little slip and when she paid it it was to go back in there. It was no checks given for it. It was personal and right private there and she was to bring back $50.00 per month until she paid for it. She brought back $200.00 to me and gave me for me to pay his guano bill. The last $50.00 she never brought back but when she came back from town that day she had bought this china and said "I had a good bargain on this china, I spent this last $50.00 for that" and she had bought it for all or they every one gave her the credit for giving us the set of china. Annie and Sis Beck got worried because they did not like her doing this. If this is not true I don't have any memory of anything. If any checks were ever given except for chine I don't know it and never heard it before. The day they first spoke it I said "Poof!" That is all ever came for the last $50.00, that china.

Q. And what have you to say about that receipt for $240.?

A. I don't know a thing about that $240.00. If she got it and borrowed it from Jack is was some extra. I never heard of it.

Georgianna Rabey, recalled:

Q. Did you or did you not, at any time prior or subsequent to Miss Lura leaving the farm, agree for her to take the profits from the Road Farm and you would take the Home Place?

A. No, sir.

And further this deponent saith not.

Susie E. Rabey, recalled:

Q. I hand you "Exhibit G" to examine. How does that square with your record?

A. One Mule, correct; two horses, one sold and one died, gray horse died; one cow, not there now but correct; 163 chickens, I have never known that many to be there in my life except when I had baby chicks. I think she must have made a mistake there.

Q. About how many were there when she left?

A. I know Aunt Beck raised about 35 that year. I don't know how many were there when my Uncle died.

Q. Were the chickens appraised in this estate?

A. Yes. I don't think Aunt Lura counted them either. 163 is a lot of chickens to have and I don't think Aunt Beck ever had that many in her life.

One farm wagon, out of use now. Annie Rabey repaired it and it was used until this year. That is about as old as I am , maybe older.

One engine and picker, the engine we sold to Willard and J. T. Ballard in 1928 and he has credit for it.

The picker is in the back lot and has never been used since my Uncle's death.

One Mowing Machine, that was around in Brothers Pruden's lot. I tried to sell it for junk and no one wanted it.

One Buggy, has been sold in 1929 and she has received credit for that.

Three Carts. I never have had record of there being three carts. In my Uncle's estate it only called for One Cart. In my record I have a pair of Wheels but we have not had since I lived there three carts. One thing she did not include in the appraisal and that is all I know about it and that cart has had $23.50 spent on it. I saw the receipts from Butler Bros, which my aunt had to spend on it to use it.

The Corn Planter might be used if someone would repair it but we have not used it because it did not plant corn just right. The peanut planter we have never used since his death. Two Cultivators, still there, not in use. We have used Mr. Holcombe's for two years.

One Double Horse Drag, is there but not in use. We have one we bought from Mrs. Mary Harrell.

Three Plows, one turn plow could be used. We have had to buy others to farm with.

One Corn Sheller, is still there.

One old shovel, is still there. She does not have that down. That takes in all of the farming implements except what belongs to us and except for the carts and chickens the list seems to be all right.

Q. I hand you here "Exhibit Eleven" in this matter. State what that is.

A. It is a copy of the appraisal of my Uncle's estate.

Q. Does it say anything about the poultry?

A. "One-fourth interest in poultry, $10.00". At the outside that would have been about fifty chickens.

Questions by J. K. Hutton:

Q. Didn't you move some wire from the Road Farm that was used as fence around there?

A. Not to my knowledge. I never heard it. We did let Mr. Ballard have some of ours. We had two rolls left and we let him have one roll and part of a roll. Mr. Ballard went down there and looked at the wire. It never was even brought to the house.

Lura E. Rabey: It was around the bean patch, that came from the cross-fence.

Susie E. Rabey: I don't know anything about that fence so I cannot tell you. I know the old fence is down in the old pasture now.

Lura E. Rabey, recalled:

Q. You heard the testimony of Miss Susie Rabey about the $300.00 item and the conversation you had with her about that $300.00. Please state when you had such a conversation.

A. This is the first time I ever ~~heard~~ heard of such a conversation before. I never had the money. I have never seen the three One Hundred Dollar bills and so far as Mrs. Byrd's money is concerned it was his private money, his personal money. He brought it to the bank and deposited it and he never brought it home.

Q. His personal monies were in the A. J. Rabey estate?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you get the sachel from the farm?

A. I got that sachel the Sunday night, I don't know the date, it was in November. In October George Daughtrey was taken sick. Susie and Annie came down here to see him one afternoon. He was so ill they came back and hurried me off so I could come down and nurse him that night. I came in such a hurry I did not get my things together at all. I went back and told them how ill he was after a week and the first of November when I came back with Emmaline and Spencer was when I brought the sachel.

Q. Did you bring any money away with you at all?

A. No, sir, every penny I had I had in bank and I had to cash a check to get it. I can show the vouchers.

Q. What have you to say about the $76.50 item?

A. That money was in that drawer. Susie Rabey counted it and came and told me about a week after we had all been spending from it. That money lay in that bureau drawer and if it was to go to the store for anything or buy anything everybody went there and got it. It was over a week after Jack died that Susie told me she had counted the money and I think it was around $70.00.

Q. When did you hear there was any claim made against you for the $300.00?

A. When you told me of it, never heard it before in my life.

Q. There is an item supposed to have been collected by you from D. O. Parker. Did you put it in your account?

A. No, sir, and I cannot show it. All objected to it being sold and so far as Annie coming to me and giving me a dollar I never remember it. They said they sold some meat but I don't know who it was to.

Q. You never expended any of that money out of that fund for your personal expenses?

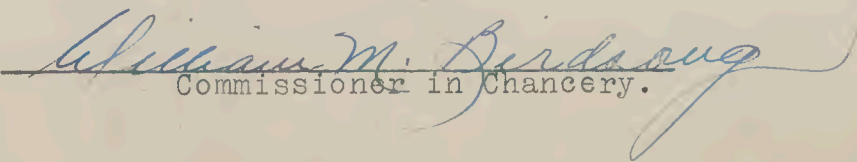

A. No, sir, never.

And further this deponent saith not.

That by virtue of and in strict compliance with the said sideboard was refinished by Susie L. Shearer at a cost to her of $16.64; that the expenditure by Susie L.

Shearer of $16.64 is a preferred claim on this property, as it greatly enhanced its value, and your Commissioner therefore recommends that the said sale be confirmed and the said Susie L. Shearer be reimbursed the sum of $16.64.

Your Commissioner further reports the following receipts from the sale of all the personal property in this cause;

DECREE

Georgianna Rabey, et als.....Defendants

This cause came on this day to be again heard, by consent of all parties, on the papers formerly read, on the report of W. M. Birdsong, Commissioner in Chancery, with exhibits and the depositions of witnesses, filed on the 18th day of March, 1931, and the supplemental reports of said Commissioner filed respectively on the 23rd day of July, 1931, and on the 8th day of January, 1932, and the exceptions thereto duly filed, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof, it appearing to the court from a certain Decree entered in this cause on January 26th, 1932, that all of the court costs in this suit has been paid and there is now remaining in the hands of John H. Powell, Clerk of this Court, the sum of $1,323.12, to which sum Georgianna Rabey and Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator c.t.a. of Sarah R. Duke, deceased, are entitled; and it further appearing to the Court that since said Decree was entered in this cause on January 26th, 1932, that the said parties entitled to said fund have consented to a division thereof, namely, that the sum of $761.56 be paid to Georgianna Rabey and that $561.56 be paid to Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator as aforesaid; the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said John H. Powell, Clerk of this Court, pay to Georgianna Rabey said sum of $761.56 and that said Clerk pay to Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator c.t.a. of Sarah R. Duke, deceased, the sum of $561.56.

Exceptions to Commissioner's Report as Amended.

Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator c.t.a. of Sarah R. Duke's Estate, excepts to the report of William M. Birdsong, Commissioner in Chancery, to whom this matter was referred by decree entered on May 20th, 1930, filed in this cause on the 18th day of March, 1931, as amended by supplemental reports filed on July 23rd, 1931, and January 8th, 1932, respectively, in that the original report states in paragraph two that in the fall of 1926 Lura E. Rabey left the farm and that Georgianna Rabey and Susie Rabey took charge of farming operations for the years 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1929 and that a supplemental report filed on the 8th day of January, 1932, states that it appears from the evidence that Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey were jointly in charge of the farm for the years 1926, 1927 and 1928 and that the items of profit shown as made for those years should be charged to them jointly and that the said Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator of the Estate of Sarah E. Duke, is charged with the sum of $1,136.97 and that the said Georgianna Rabey should be credited with a similar amount, as shown by the original report.

1. The undersigned respectfully submits that the evidence does not sustain the supplemental statement of the Commissioner's report but sustains the second paragraph of the original report as filed.

2. That the evidence in no manner shows that any of the profit arising from farming operations for the years 1926, 1927 and 1928 ever reached the hands of the undersigned or his decedent, Sarah R. Duke.

3. That although the said Sarah R. Duke until the time of her death resided on the farm there is no evidence that she had any active management of the farming operations or had anything to do with the handling of its finances other than to advance certain sums for the up keep of the farm and in the operations of farming.

4. That even if the Court should be of the opinion from the evidence that farming operations for the years, 1926, 1927 and 1928 were conducted jointly by the said Georgianna Rabey and the undersigned's decedent, Sarah R. Duke, then this report should be referred back to the Commissioner to ascertain and report what sum or sums of money arising out of the operation of said farming operations in excess of the expense as shown by the Commissioner to be profits came into the hands of the undersigned or into the hands of his decedent, Sarah R. Duke, and what portion thereof was expended and received by the said Georgianna Rabey, or her agents, as the decree referring this matter to the Commissioner entered on the 20th day of May, 1930, directed him to inquire and report, first, "an account of the transactions of Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, as co-tenants of the property referred to in the bill, since and including the year 1926, and an account of the transactions of Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator cum testamento annexo of Sarah R. Duke, deceased, in connection with the said property jointly owned by the said Lurs E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke," because if this is not done then it would be necessary to attain the ends of justice that a suit be brought for an accounting between the undersigned and Georgianna Rabey, and such a suit could not be maintained because the decree of reference in this matter is sufficiently broad to cover the same and would be treated as res adjudicata of the rights of the parties.

5. That the undersigned excepts to the reports, as a whole, on the grounds that the Commissioner erred in finding that Lura E. Rabey was entitled to any of the profits arising from farming operations during the years 1927, 1928 and 1929 in view of the fact that she left the farm and did not contribute to the maintenance of farming operations, either financially or in services, and that if she is entitled to receive any profits or emoluments arising from her ownership of an interest in said farm then she should only be entitled to receive the fair rental value of her interest therein for said years.

Respectfully submitted.

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES L. McLEMORE, JUDGE:

Your Commissioner, William M. Birdsong, respectfully reports that in making his report in this cause filed on the 18th day of March, 1931, he charged certain funds hereinafter mentioned to Georgianna Rabey, as follows:

For the year 1926.....	$ 234.00
	175.40
For the year 1927.....	640.77
	69.96
For the year 1928.....	1,153.81
Total.....	$2,273.94

That it appears from the evidence that Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey were jointly in charge of the farm for the years 1926, 1927 and 1928, and that the said items should be charged to them jointly. This being true, Georgianna Rabey's account is reduced $1,136.97, and the account of Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator of the Estate of Sarah R. Duke, is charged with $1,136.97, so that the net accounting, showing parties entitled to funds and the respective amounts is as follows:

Lura E. Rabey.....	$1,384.13
Nellie Daughtrey.....	420.98
Sarah R. Duke.....	486.18

V. EXCEPTIONS TO REPORT OF COMMISSIONER IN CHANCERY, WILLIAM M. BIRDSONG, FILED IN THIS CAUSE ON MARCH 18, 1931.

Georgianna Rabey, et als.....Defendants

To the Honorable James L. McLemore, Judge:

The undersigned, Georgianna Rabey, one of the Defendants in this suit, respectfully objects and excepts to the Report of the Commissioner in Chancery, William M. Birdsong, filed in this cause on March 18, 1931, as follows:

FIRST:

Errors apparent on the face of the said Report of the Commissioner in Chancery:-

The summary and net results shown on the last page of said Commissioner's Report is not a correct summary and correct result as shown by the Commissioner's Report itself adopting for the purpose of this discussion the actual figures as determined by the Report and assuming same to be correct and based on the testimony (which is not admitted except for the purpose of this discussion).

1. Item One under column of "Parties holding funds" from summary sheet of Commissioner's Report, namely "Lura E. Rabey, $795.12".

This item represents a total of three items mentioned in paragraph (1) of said Report, which is money in the hands of Lura E. Rabey. This is treated incorrectly in the summary for the reason that Lura E. Rabey is chargeable with two-thirds of said item, namely, $530.08, which should be offset by a credit of $265.04 to Georgianna Rabey, and $265.04 to the estate of Sarah R. Duke.

2. Item Two of summary in Report, "Georgianna Rabey, $234.00".

This item of $234.00 is made up of one item of $80.00 spent for up-keep by Sarah R. Duke and another item of $154.00 spent for up-keep by Georgianna Rabey as shown under paragraph (2) of the Report. In arriving at the net results under the summary of the Report, it will be seen that all items under the first column of the summary, which column is headed "Parties holding funds" are charges against the parties opposite whose names such items appear, as the result is arrived at by making a total of each column under the heading "Parties entitled to funds" and deducting therefrom the total of the respective items opposite each of the names in the first column. This method of summarizing has the effect of charging Georgianna Rabey with the $234.00, at the same time crediting her with $154.00, which she spent, leaving a net charge against Georgianna Rabey of $80.00. Instead of this, Georgianna Rabey should be credited with $102.66, being two-thirds of the loan of $154.00 to the partnership. The $80.00 spent by Sarah R. Duke should be distributed two-thirds as a credit to Sarah R. Duke, as the other two partners owed her one-third each of said $80.00, namely, $26.67, each, and their accounts should be charged with such indebtedness.

3. Item Three of Summary in Report, namely, "Georgianna Rabey, $175.40".

This item is treated under paragraph (2) of the Commissioner's

Report. The summary of the Commissioner charges this item of $175.40 against Georgianna Rabey individually, whereas the Report shows and it is admitted that there were two active managing partners during this period, namely, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, both of whom were spending money for and lending money to the partnership and actively and directly managing its affairs. One illustration of this is seen in the fact that the Report shows under paragraph (2) that Sarah R. Duke spent for up-keep the sum of $80.00. The Report does not show that this $80.00 was paid by Sarah R. Duke to Georgianna Rabey for the partnership and the evidence shows that this $80.00 was spent directly by Sarah R. Duke for the partnership without going through the hands of Georgianna Rabey. Another illustration of this fact is shown by item of $252.19 spent by Sarah R. Duke for up-keep in 1928, this amount being spent by her direct and not through Georgianna Rabey. This fact is further illustrated in the Report on page 3 under treatment of 1929 which shows that a new partnership was created at the death of Sarah R. Duke by her elimination therefrom. Therefore one-third of this $175.40, namely, $58.46, should be credited to Lura E. Rabey and one-half of this credit of $58.46 to Lura E. Rabey should be charged against Georgianna Rabey and the other one-half against Sarah R. Duke estate.

4. Item Four of summary in Report, namely, "Georgianna Rabey, $640.77".

This item is composed of two items, namely, $630.77 advanced to the partnership by Georgianna Rabey and $10.00 advanced to the partnership by Sarah R. Duke (see paragraph (2) of the Commissioner's Report). The effect of the Commissioner's treatment of this item in the aforementioned summary is to credit Georgianna Rabey with $630.77 and to credit the estate of Sarah R. Duke with $10.00 and to charge back to the account of Georgianna Rabey the total of the two, namely, $640.77, resulting in a net charge of $10.00 against Georgianna Rabey. Inasmuch as these two items represent temporary loans made to the partnership by the two individuals in the amounts mentioned above, Georgianna Rabey should be entitled to a net credit of two-thirds of the loan, of $630.77, or $420.51, which should be charged to the other two partners in equal amounts. Sarah R. Duke should be credited with two-thirds of $10.00, namely, $6.66 and the remaining two partners charged in equal amounts.

5. Item Five of the summary in Report, namely,

"Georgianna Rabey, $69.96".

This item represents the net profits from the farm operations for the year 1927, to which Lura E. Rabey is entitled to a one-third interest, namely, $23.32. Since the farm was managed jointly by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke as mentioned in paragraph (3) above, the one-third interest of Lura E. Rabey should be charged in equal portions to the remaining two partners, namely, Georgianna Rabey, $11.66, and Sarah R. Duke, $11.66.

6. Item Six of the summary in Report, namely,

"Georgianna Rabey, $1153.81".

It is to be noted in paragraph (2) of the Commissioner's Report in treatment of the net income from farm operations for the year 1928, which is shown to be $1153.81, that Sarah R. Duke expended individually for the account of the partnership, $286.19, leaving an amount of $867.62 to be distributed equally among the three partners. Two-thirds of the item of $286.19 advanced for the account of the partnership by Sarah R. Duke, namely, $190.80, should be credited to her account and charged in equal portions to the accounts of the remaining two partners. Of the remaining unapportioned net income, namely, $867.62, Lura E. Rabey is entitled to credit for one-third, namely, $289.21, which should be charged in equal amounts to the remaining two partners, that is, $144.60 to the account of Georgianna Rabey, and $144.61 to the account of Sarah R. Duke estate.

7. Item Seven of the summary in Report, namely,
"Georgianna Rabey, $123.81".

This item represents net profits to the partnership from farming operations with Ballard for 1929. The partnership at this time consisted of only Georgianna Rabey and Lura E. Rabey. Consequently, Georgianna Rabey should be charged with $61.91 and Lura E. Rabey should be credited with that amount, which represents one-half of said net profit of $123.81.

8. Item Eight of the summary in Report, namely,
"Georgianna Rabey, $132.50".

This item represents an amount of $175.00 paid by Holcomb to Georgianna Rabey for 1929 rent less $42.50 deducted by Holcomb for debt due him by Sarah R. Duke. Therefore Georgianna Rabey should be charged with $66.25 and Lura E. Rabey credited with $66.25, representing one-half of said amount.

9. Item Nine of the summary in Report, namely,
"Georgianna Rabey, $40.00".

Under the findings of the Commissioner two-thirds of this item, namely, $26.68, should be charged to Georgianna Rabey and one-third, namely, $13.34, should be credited to Lura E. Rabey and estate of Sarah R. Duke each.

10. Item Ten of the summary in Report, namely,

"J. K. Hutton and Cleaton E. Rabey, $175.00".

This item should be credited $87.50 each to Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey.

11. Item Eleven of the summary in Report, namely,

"Sarah R. Duke, $42.50".

This item represents the amount above referred to as having been paid by Holcomb to Sarah R. Duke. Consequently, Sarah R. Duke should be charged with this $42.50 and Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey credited with $21.25 each.

12. Item Twelve of the summary in Report, namely,

"Mutual Life Insurance Company, $2004.65".

This amount should be charged against the Mutual Life Insurance Company. $320.72 should be first deducted for premiums paid by Lura E. Rabey, leaving a balance of $1683.93 to be credited equally to Lura E. Rabey, Mrs. Nellie Daughtrey, the estate of Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey. The item of $320.72 should also be credited to Lura E. Rabey under this particular discussion.

13. Item Thirteen of the summary in Report, namely,

"Penn Mutual Insurance Company, $1005.31".

This item should be charged against Penn Mutual Insurance Company, then $348.00 deducted therefrom as a credit to Lura E. Rabey for premiums paid by her, for the purpose of this discussion only, leaving a balance of $657.31 to be credited equally to Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and estate of Sarah R. Duke, this credit to each being $219.10. Then Lura E. Rabey is credited with the amount of the premiums just above stated paid by her of $348.00, making a total credit to Lura E. Rabey under this item, of $567.10.

14. After making the above corrections in the summary of the Commissioner's Report, the net result is that there remains to be distributed assets as follows:

Cash held in joint account of John K. Hutton and Cleaton E. Rabey	175.00
Due from Mutual Life Insurance Company	2004.65
Due from Penn Mutual Insurance Company	1005.31
Total	$ 3184.96

It is distributed as follows:

Lura E. Rabey	1012.98
Georgianna Rabey	1071.31
Estate of Sarah R. Duke	679.69
Nellie Daughtrey	420.98
	$ 3184.96

15. Your Respondent herewith submits as a part of these exceptions a Schedule marked "Schedule A" showing what is a correct summary and net result of the summary and net result contained on the last page of the Commissioner's Report.

SECOND:

The undersigned, Georgianna Rabey, submits as further objections and exceptions to the Commissioner's Report the following:-

16. The undersigned states that the testimony shows that Lura E. Rabey left the premises on October 8, 1926, and thereby eliminated herself from the partnership. The contention of Georgianna Rabey was and is that when Lura E. Rabey left the premises at the time above stated that she thereby forfeited any and all rights to benefit from the real and personal property both. The undersigned was advised that when the Court sustained her Demurrer of the original Bill that such forfeiture was the effect thereof. Later the Court appointed Commissioners to divide the land between Georgianna Rabey and Lura E. Rabey for their lives, with the provision that the survivor should have the use of both parts for the survivor's life. Then later, on May 20, 1930, the Court entered a certain Decree directing an accounting of the transactions of Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke as co-tenants of the property referred to in the Bill, since then including the year 1926, and an account of the transactions of Melvin E. Cruser, Administrator Cum Testamento Annexo of Sarah R. Duke, deceased, in connection with the said property jointly owned by the said Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke. This Decree also directed that the kind, character and value of the chattel property owned jointly by the estate of Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke be determined, and that any other matter deemed pertinent by the Commissioner or which may be required by any other person interested, to be stated. The undersigned therefore assumes that under the construction by the Court of the Will of A. J. Rabey Sr., also referred to as a contract between the parties, that Lura E. Rabey, the Complainant, would be entitled to a fair and proper benefit, income or rental of the real estate and also of such chattel property as she may have been joint owner of with Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke. The undersigned does not construe any of the Decrees in this suit, including the Decree just above referred to, entered on May 20, 1930, as deciding that Lura E. Rabey was a partner in the farming operations.

17. The foregoing statement of "Errors apparent on the face of the Report of the Commissioner in Chancery" is based on the theory that the Report of the Commissioner taken as a whole holds that Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey were joint managing partners living on the premises together up to the death of Sarah R. Duke on February 9, 1929, although it is stated by the Commissioner at the beginning of paragraph (2) of his Report that in the fall of 1926 Lura E. Rabey left the farm, and that Georgianna Rabey and Susie L. Rabey took charge of farming operations. If this statement by the Commissioner is to be construed that Sarah R. Duke was not one of the managing partners just the same as was Georgianna Rabey, then the entire discussion above headed "Errors apparent on the face of said Report" would be "Errors not apparent on the face of the Report" and it is hereby respectfully prayed that same may be considered as such in that event.

18. The undersigned has no objection to the decision that Lura E. Rabey has in her custody one Liberty Bond valued at $100.00. The next item of the Commissioner's Report under paragraph (1) states that Lura E. Rabey has cash in the amount of $605.12 and $90.00 rent collected from Ballard for the year 1927, making a total of $695.12. These two items are admitted by the Plaintiff, Lura E. Rabey. Instead of Lura E. Rabey having in hand for the partnership and to be considered as a debt to the partnership only $695.12, it is contended by the Defendant, Georgianna Rabey, that she has in hand for the partnership and to be considered as a debt due to the partnership by Lura E. Rabey, the sum of $1630.20 (see Exhibit "4"), and that said last named amount should have been allowed as a debt due the partnership by Lura E. Rabey instead of $695.12. See Exhibits and testimony introduced by Defendant.

FARMING:

1926.

It is submitted by the undersigned that in the fall of 1926, namely, October 8, 1926, that Lura E. Rabey left the farm voluntarily and without any cause whatsoever, and that Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke remained in charge as active managing partners of farming operations, and that Susie L. Rabey merely acted as Agent for both active managing partners at their request. The only other objections and exceptions to the Commissioner's Report concerning 1926 operations have already been stated above in paragraphs 2 and 3 of these exceptions. See also Schedule "A" hereof, items (2) and (3).

20.

We will consider now 1927 farming operations. The original contention of the Defendant in this suit was that Lura E. Rabey left the farm, as above stated, in the fall of 1926, and that therefore under the terms of the Will of A. J. Rabey, Sr., sometimes called a contract, that she had no further rights to benefit from the estate including both real and personal property. However, under the terms of the Decree entered by this Court on May 20, 1930, referring this matter to a Commissioner, we must assume that Lura E. Rabey would still be entitled to a one-third share in the net profits of the real and personal property of the estate as one of the three co-tenants during that year. Under this assumption the Defendant proved that Lura E. Rabey collected all of the rent for the "Road Farm" for 1927 from Ballard. Lura E. Rabey admits that fact herself. She claims the net amount received by her for the "Road Farm" for 1927 rent from Ballard was $90.00. The Defendant claimed that she was properly chargeable with $150.00 net rent for 1927 from Ballard, as shown by the Defendant's account presented in this suit. However, this 1927 rent has already been previously treated in these exceptions, under the item of $1630.20 above referred to in paragraph 18 hereof. That only leaves to be discussed what would be a fair income to Lura E. Rabey as a co-tenant of the real estate and a joint owner of certain articles of chattel property. The first thing to be determined in treatment of the year 1927 would be whether this profit or income from the "Home Place" should be determined on the basis of a fair rental thereof with deductions for taxes, insurance and up-keep, or whether such income should be determined on the basis of a partnership existing in the operation of the farming on the "Home Place" in 1927 in which Lura E. Rabey would be included. This Defendant contended that such income to Lura E. Rabey should be determined purely on a rental basis to her, as she was not living on the premises and had no part in the farming operations whatsoever, and the principal part of the chattel property and also hogs, poultry and cattle and horses and all farming equipment except a very few old articles were owned by Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and Susie L. Rabey. In the beginning of the Complainant's testimony it will be noticed that the rental basis theory was adopted by her also and she testified that a fair rental for the "Home Place" would be $600.00. During the taking of the testimony it developed that Miss Susie L. Rabey, as Agent for Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and herself, had kept a certain book identified herein as "Exhibit 5" showing all income and sales of all of the farm produce raised and owned by those three in which Lura E. Rabey had no interest whatever. This book also contained certain items of farm up-keep, taxes and insurance and rents collected, which items were applicable to Lura E. Rabey as co-tenant, but were not applicable to her as a partner in farming operations as she was not a partner in farming operations during any of the years mentioned except 1926. It seems that after the book was introduced as evidence the Commissioner determined the income in which Lura E. Rabey was interested on an entirely different theory from that for the purpose of which the book was introduced. That is, the Commissioner instead of proceeding to determine the rights of Lura E. Rabey on a rental basis as contended by the Defendant, proceeded to determine her rights on the basis of her being a partner in a partnership in which ^{she} was not a partner at all. Under that theory adopted by the Commissioner later on he states that the total income from all sources in 1927 was $838.44, which amount was taken from the book above referred to but represented sales of produce in which Lura E. Rabey had no interest. All of this discussion concerning 1927 also applies to 1928 and 1929 so far as Lura E. Rabey is concerned. The contention under the testimony was and still is that Lura E. Rabey should receive only a one-third of a fair rental of that part of the "Home Place" occupied by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke during the life of both and by Georgianna Rabey after the death of Sarah R. Duke, and also one-third of the rents collected from the "Road Farm" and that part of the "Home Place" rented out by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke after deductions for up-keep, taxes and insurance, and that Lura E. Rabey should receive one-half on the very same basis and from the same sources less the same deductions for 1929, Sarah R. Duke having died on February 9, 1929. A fair rental for that part of the "Home Place" occupied by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke during their lives and by Georgianna Rabey after the death of Sarah R. Duke was never determined by the Commissioner, although it is stated by the Defendant in "Exhibit 4" and in the testimony that she was willing to act on a fair rental basis. It is submitted that this matter should be recommitted to the Commissioner to determine what would be the rights of Lura E. Rabey on a rental basis just above described.

However, if this matter should not be recommitted to the Commissioner and an accounting should be had on the partnership basis on the theory that Lura E. Rabey was a partner in farming operations during 1927, 1928 and 1929, then she should be properly charged with many items of expenses in farming operations and marketing produce which have not been allowed by the Commissioner in his Report.

If it should be determined that Lura E. Rabey was a partner in farming operations in 1927, and that the partnership consisted of Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke, then the total income from all sources during that year of $838.44 as shown by the Commissioner's Report would be correct, except that the total brought down on the book shows $738.44 instead of $838.44, and your Defendant does not know how the difference of $100.00 was arrived at. On the partnership basis it will be seen under the Commissioner's Report for 1927 that the partnership is charged with $640.77 for up-keep, fertilizer and labor, $34.14 for insurance and $93.57 for taxes, making a total expense of $768.48, and leaving a balance, which is apparently a net profit of $69.96, to be divided among Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey and the Estate of Sarah R. Duke. On the basis of Lura E. Rabey being included in the partnership, the partnership would necessarily have to be charged with the following:

Feed for live stock and poultry purchased from merchants	$ 184.59
Farm produce of 1926 crops (included in 1926 income)	54.50
Green soja beans, 1927 crop (included in 1927 income from hogs)	50.00
204 $\frac{1}{2}$ days board furnished hired labor at 25¢ per day	51.12
Total additional expense for 1927 crops	$ 340.21
 Total expense shown above and also shown by Commissioner's Report	 768.48
Total expenses & up-keep for 1927.	$ 1108.69

Even this total expense for up-keep of $1108.69 for 1927 does not include any salary or compensation whatsoever to Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke as active managers or to them for the services of their Agent and employee, Susie L. Rabey, who devoted her entire time to farming operations during the years 1927, 1928, and 1929. Also Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke furnished the use of an automobile in managing the affairs of the alleged partnership through their Agent, Susie L. Rabey, including gasoline, depreciation and repairs for which no charge has been allowed against the partnership. Deducting $838.48 income from $1108.69 expenses leaves a net loss of $321.38 for 1927 exclusive of services rendered and automobile furnished. Even if a salary of ~~$50.00~~ per month were allowed for services of Susie L. Rabey amounting to $600.00 for 1927, and the actual amount spent for gasoline and repairs to her automobile used in farming produce in 1927 of $148.61, these two items alone would make a total expense of $748.61, which would then make the total net loss for 1927 from farming operations, $1069.99. It will be observed that approximately $300.00 in 1927 was spent for up-keep which went for improvements on the farm and added to the benefit of the partnership.

Consequently, under the above figures, all of which are supported by the testimony, farming operations for 1927, including up-keep, would leave a net loss to the partnership of $1069.99 instead of a net profit of $69.96, as shown by the Commissioner's Report, and Lura E. Rabey, Georgianna Rabey, and Sarah R. Duke would each be chargeable with one-third of said net loss for 1927.

We will now consider 1928 farming operations. (See page 3 of the Commissioner's Report) A correct statement of income and expenses so far as covered by the Commissioner's Report for 1928 would be as follows:-

By total income from all sources		$ 2182.38
Expenses:
Fertilizer (paid by Georgianna Rabey)	331.38
Seed (" " " ")	59.15
Taxes (paid by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke)	90.80
Labor (paid by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke)	390.96
Up-keep (paid by Georgianna Rabey)	197.19
Up-keep (paid by Sarah R. Duke)	252.19
Insurance (paid by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke)	34.00
Total expenses and up-keep		1355.67
Net profit of partnership so far as covered by Commissioner's Report.		$ 826.71

It will be observed that the above figures do not include many actual and necessary expenses of farming operations. The book introduced by the Defendant shows feed and live stock purchased from merchants in 1928, $301.25; corn and hay produced in 1927 (included in 1927 receipts above but used in 1928 in in producing the results accounted for), $185.00. These two items amount to $486.25. On the partnership theory there would also be a proper charge for boarding laborers. It is estimated that this charge at the very lease would be 50¢ per day ordinarily. However, considering that the food which was served to the laborers came partly from the farm and partly from supplies furnished by Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke and Susie L. Rabey personally, this Defendant is reducing this charge from 50¢ per day to 25¢ per day. There were 90½ days board furnished day laborers at 25¢ per day amounting to $22.62 and 11 months board furnished monthly hands at $7.50 per month, amounting to $82.50. These two items aggregate $105.12. Add the $486.25 for above mentioned additional expenses to $105.12, makes a total additional expense thus far of $591.37.

Also there is a necessary conclusion from the testimony that Georgianna Rabey, Sarah R. Duke and Susie L. Rabey acting for them, spent all of their time and labor in 1928 producing the above crops and produce with which the partnership is charged. If no allowance is made whatever for the services of Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke but only an allowance of 50⁰⁰/₁₀₀ per month to Georgianna Rabey for her Agent and employee, Susie L. Rabey, this item alone would be an additional expense of $600.00. The book introduced by your Defendant also shows that gasoline of $97.30 and oil of $10.80, amounting to $108.10, was used in addition to depreciation, wear and tear on the automobile of Susie L. Rabey used in hauling farm products and other work necessary for the operation of this farm. The salary, gas and oil furnished just mentioned, in 1928, amounts to $708.10.

The additional expense of $591.37 and $708.10 amounts to $1299.47. Add this additional expense of $1299.47 to expenses shown, namely, $1355.67, would make the total expenses, $2655.14. Deduct gross receipts of $2182.38 from expenses of $2655.14, leaves a net loss to the partnership of $472.76 instead of a net profit to the partnership of $867.62, as shown by the Commissioner's Report. Each of the three partners would bear this loss equally, namely, $157.58 each. Consequently, Lura E. Rabey would owe $78.79 to each Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke as a result of 1928 farming operations.

We will now consider 1929 farming operations, (see page 3 of the Commissioner's Report).

It will be observed from the evidence that Sarah R. Duke died on February 9, 1929. It is stated in the Commissioner's Report that the net profit therein calculated would be divided equally between Lura E. Rabey, ^{and} Georgianna Rabey and that Sarah R. Duke would ^{not} participate therein.

Based on the theory of partnership adopted apparently by the Commissioner, a correct statement of 1929 farming operations would be as follows:

By total income from all sources (shown on Commissioner's Report)		1036.31
By total net amount received from J. T. Ballard (being net amount received by partnership from Ballard of $126.08 less $28.98 deducted for cotton of that amount included by Commissioner in above stated total income)		97.10
Up-keep paid by Georgianna Rabey (same amount as Commissioner has)	252.32	1133.41
Insurance (paid by Georgianna Rabey	34.00
Taxes	90.80
Profit		$ 756.29

The above statement only includes the correct items covered by the Commissioner's Report. It will be seen that the items mentioned in the Commissioner's Report of $238.55 for fertilizer; $62.37 for seed; and $235.45 for labor are stated as charges in the farming operations jointly by the alleged partnership and Ballard. This is incorrect for the reason that the book of farming operations show that these items of expense were spent in raising the crop in which Ballard had a one-half interest. The total sales in which Ballard was interested amounted to $810.50. The proper expenses deducted therefrom (only slight variations from the Commissioner's Report in these items) left a net profit in farming operations with Ballard of $97.10 as above shown. If these three items were charged again it would constitute a double charge against the alleged partnership at that time existing between Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey. However, the up-keep is a proper charge in the account of the partnership because that was not properly charged in the account from Ballard and the partnership.

However, in arriving at the above stated net profit to the alleged partnership of Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey of $756.29 there have been no charges whatsoever against the income stated in this year of $1036.31, in which Ballard had no interest. Consequently, this income of $1036.31 would have been produced without any expenses whatsoever to anyone. However, in addition to the expenses and up-keep above stated amounting to $377.12 the following expenses for the year 1929 should be added as follows:

Feed for live stock purchased from merchants (as shown by Exhibit 5)	261.06
Corn produced in 1928 and included in income of 1928	320.00
To $\frac{1}{2}$ of board for 174 $\frac{1}{2}$ days furnished to hired labor at 25¢ per day (the other

Repairs to car 71.02

Total additional expenses $ 1447.76

Deduct above tentative net profit of $756.29 from above additional expenses of $1447.76, leaves a net loss to the partnership of $691.47. This net loss should be borne equally by Lura E. Rabey and Georgianna Rabey, namely, a loss of $345.73 to each.

23. Paragraph Three of the Commissioner's Report has been treated herein before with the exception of the item therein mentioned of $40.00 for rent alleged to have been collected by Georgianna Rabey for the alleged partnership in the year 1927. There is no testimony to support that finding (see page 13 of the testimony).

24. See Paragraph (4) of the Commissioner's Report on page 4 thereof. This paragraph allows to Lura E. Rabey the sum of $320.72 alleged to have been paid by her individually as premiums from her personal funds to the Mutual Life Insurance Company on the policy in the sum of $2004.65. It is denied that the testimony supports this allowance to Lura E. Rabey.

It is also found in the second section or part of paragraph (4) that Lura E. Rabey is entitled to the sum of $348.00 for premiums paid by her personally on the life insurance policy in the Penn Mutual Insurance Company. It is denied that there is any testimony to support this allowance to Lura E. Rabey. Both of these insurance policies are referred to in the Commissioner's Report as being on the life of A. J. Rabey, whereas both were on the life of J. S. Rabey.

It is respectfully submitted that the Report of the Commissioner should be recommitted to the Commissioner.

Respectfully submitted,

THEY REPORT THAT THEY WERE FIRST DULY SWORN ACCORDING TO LAW AND ATTACH TO THE ACCOMPANYING REPORT A COPY OF THE OATH BY THEM SEVERALLY TAKEN AND SUBSCRIBED.

THEY FURTHER REPORT THAT, AFTER HAVING TAKEN SAID OATH AND AFTER DUE NOTICE TO ALL THE PARTIES IN INTEREST, THEY WENT ON THE PREMISES ON THE 24TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1929, AND VIEWED THE SAME, EACH OF THE SAID COMMISSIONERS AND ALL THE PARTIES INTERESTED BEING THEN AND THERE PRESENT.

THEY FURTHER REPORT THAT IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE UNDERSIGNED THE AFORESAID LAND IS SUSCEPTIBLE OF DIVISION WITHOUT MANIFEST PREJUDICE TO THE PARTIES IN INTEREST.

THEY FURTHER REPORT THAT IN PURSUANCE OF SAID DECREE THE UNDERSIGNED THEN CAUSED TO BE MADE A SURVEY OF THE SAID LAND AND AGAIN ON THE 29TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1929, THE SAID COMMISSIONERS WENT UPON THE PREMISES, THE SAID PARTIES IN INTEREST BEING THEN AND THERE PRESENT, THE SAID SURVEY HAVING BEEN MADE AND HAVING BEFORE THEM A PLAT OF THE SAID LAND, PROCEEDED TO MAKE PARTITION AND DIVISION OF THE SAID LAND, AND BY SUFFICIENT METES AND BOUNDS LAY OFF AND AS-

The object of the above styled suit is to have partion of that certain land in Holy Neck Magisterial District, Nansemond County, Virginia, of which Emmeline E. Rabey died, seised and possessed, consisting of about four hundred and thirty-two (432) acres, the quantity being a mere estimate, the land not having been surveyed, which said land, save and except about four (4) acres thereof, is bounded on the North by the lands of Nat Bradshaw and a county road, on the East by the Somerton Road, on the South by the lands of Johnson and Tidwell and on the West by the lands of George Turner and others: The aforesaid four acres being a small parcel of land bounded on the North by the lands of Woodward and Duke, on the East by a ditch and by the New County Road, on the South by the Whaleyville and Leesville County Roads, and on the West by the land formerly belonging to Wilson and Duke. The said land includes what is known as the "Home Tract," estimated to contain two hundred and seventy-five (275) acres and convey to said Emmeline Rabey by Sarah Rebecca Duke, and also the tract known as the "Fourth Farm" containing one hundred and twenty-five (125) acres by estimation and conveyed to said Emmeline E. Rabey by Alexander L. Duke and others.

Dear Judge McLemore:-

I am enclosing to you herewith
Supplemental Report in the matter of Lura E. Rabey v.
Georgianna Rabey et als.

Items in my former report of $2,273.94 were all charged to Georgianna Rabey. It appears that Georgianna Rabey and Sarah R. Duke were jointly in control of the farming operations during the years 1926, 1927 and 1928. I have, therefore, taken one-half of the aforesaid charges against Georgianna Rabey, viz: $1,136.97, and credited her account and charged same to Sarah R. Duke's account.

I trust this will be in line with the argument of Mr. Hugh L. Holland, attorney for Georgianna Rabey. I have been over this with Mr.
Holland and Mr. Hutton.

Very truly yours,

William M. Birdsong

For best filing service, don't overload your folders! It doesn't pay. When a folder has about 50 papers in it, that's enough.

It takes too long to look through more than 50 papers—if you have more than that number under one heading, subdivide that heading, by dates, or by splitting it up into several headings.

100% Pure House Paint

Prepared for Use.

Made to Wear.

The publicity given to the subject of paint in recent years has revolutionized the making of paint products, with the result that the general consumer has been enlightened as to what materials produce the most lasting results.

The practical outdoor tests made by numerous associations interested in raising the standard of the paint business have demonstrated that certain pigments such as pure lead and oxide of zinc, when combined in proper proportions with strictly pure linseed oil, produce a paint that is unequalled in covering, wearing qualities and appearance when applied under favorable conditions.

GATEWAYS 100% PURE HOUSE PAINT is the result of a careful study of these facts.

GATEWAYS 100% PURE HOUSE PAINT is a quality paint—one that can be depended upon to give satisfaction.

DOMESTIC PARCEL POST—FOURTH-CLASS MATTER

Fourth-class Matter Embraces that known as domestic parcel-post mail, and includes merchandise, farm and factory products, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and plants, books (including catalogs), also miscellaneous printed matter weighing more than four pounds, and all other mailable matter not embraced in the first, second and third classes.

The limit of weight for parcels for local delivery and for delivery at other post offices within the first, second and third zones is seventy pounds. The limit of weight for parcels intended for delivery in other than the first, second and third zones is fifty pounds, except that parcels for the American Expeditionary Forces must not weigh over seven pounds.

The limit of size is 84 inches in length and girth combined.

WAR-STAMP TAX

Effective December 1, 1917, parcels on which the postage amounts to 25 cents or more are subject to a tax of one cent for each 25 cents or fractional part thereof. This tax must be paid by the sender by special internal revenue stamps affixed to the parcels; postage stamps are not valid for this purpose. The internal revenue stamps must be canceled by the sender by placing or causing to be placed thereon, with ink, his written or stamped initials, together with the date upon which the stamps are attached or used. In no case, however, should the sender cancel postage stamps affixed to parcels; such stamps must be canceled only by postal employees.

The tax is not applicable to parcels on which the postage amounts to less than 25 cents. On a parcel subject to 25 cents postage the tax is one cent; on parcels on which the postage amounts to from 26 to 50 cents the tax is two cents each, and so on.

The War-Stamp Tax does not apply to parcels for foreign countries, nor to parcels for Porto Rico, the Philippines, Canal Zone, Virgin Islands of the United States, Guam, Tutuila and Manua, and other Islands of the Samoan group belonging to the United States, United States Naval Vessels and the United States Expeditionary Forces.

In determining the amount of postage on which the tax shall be based, the fees paid for special-delivery and insurance or C. O. D. services shall not be counted.

Internal Revenue Stamps for use in paying the war tax are sold at the General Post Office and all stations.

Parcels will not be accepted for mailing unless both the required postage and tax are fully prepaid.

Rates of Postage on Fourth-class or Parcel-Post Matter—To Be Fully Prepaid—Unsealed—are as follows:

- Parcels weighing four ounces or less, except books, seeds, plants, etc., one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof, any distance.
- Parcels weighing eight ounces or less containing books, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, regardless of distance.
- Parcels weighing more than eight ounces containing books, seeds, plants, etc., parcels of miscellaneous printed matter weighing more than four pounds, and all other parcels of fourth-class matter weighing more than four ounces are chargeable, according to distance or zone, at the pound rates shown in the following table, a fraction of a pound being considered a full pound:

Five cents for the first pound and One cent for each additional Two Pounds or fraction thereof.	Five cents for the first pound and One cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof.	Six cents for the first pound and Two cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof.	Seven cents for the first pound and Four cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof.	Eight cents for the first pound and Six cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof.	Nine cents for the first pound and Eight cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof.	Eleven cents for the first pound and Ten cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof.	Twelve cents for each pound or fraction thereof.
Limit of weight up to third zone 70 pounds.			Limit of weight for fourth to eighth zones 50 pounds.

Parcels for U. S. Naval Vessels.—Parcels for United States naval vessels, addressed care of Postmaster, New York, N. Y., or care of Postmaster, San Francisco, California, which are subject to the zone rates, are mailable at the rates of postage applicable between the post office of mailing and New York or San Francisco, as the case may be, and will be transmitted to the vessels without additional charge for postage.

Parcels mailed at New York, N. Y., care of Postmaster, New York, N. Y., will be accepted when prepaid at the local rate.

Parcels for American Expeditionary Forces.—Limit of weight, seven pounds. Postage, twelve cents a pound except parcels weighing four ounces or less and except books, seeds, plants, etc., weighing eight ounces or less.

Parcels may not be registered, insured or sent C. O. D.

For further information regarding manner of addressing, wrapping, prohibited matter, see circular "MAIL FOR OR FROM AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES IN EUROPE."

Seeds, Cuttings, Bulbs, Etc.—The rate of postage on parcels of seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants, weighing eight ounces or less, is one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, regardless of distance; on parcels weighing more than eight ounces the pound rates shown in the table on page 1 apply.

See Section 469, P. L. & R., as to preparation of seeds, etc., for mailing.

Rates for Books.—The rate of postage on parcels of printed books weighing eight ounces or less is one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

Parcels of books weighing more than eight ounces are subject to the parcel-post or zone rates of postage shown on page 1.

"The term 'books' is used in its ordinary and generally accepted sense, and embraces printed books of all classes in their usual form, whether bound in paper or a more substantial binding, including printed catalogs."

Blank books, and partially printed books, mainly blank, are chargeable with postage at the rate of one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof on parcels weighing four ounces or less and the regular pound rates, according to zones, on parcels weighing more than four ounces.

Miscellaneous Printed Matter.—Parcels of miscellaneous printed matter (third-class matter) not exceeding four pounds in weight are subject to postage at the third-class rate—one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

Parcels of miscellaneous printed matter weighing more than four pounds, which are within the limit of weight and size for parcel post matter, are mailable at the zone rates of postage.

Miscellaneous printed matter includes all printed matter not coming within the term "single book" and not constituting newspapers and periodicals which are entered as second-class matter. Patrons who desire to ascertain the classification of articles in the mail or the amount of postage required for any printed matter are advised to submit a specimen at the office of the Assistant Postmaster or at the nearest carrier station.

Places Where Parcels Must Be Mailed.—Parcels subject to the zone rates must be mailed at the General Post Office or at a lettered or local-named station or branch post office, or such numbered stations as have been designated to receive parcel-post matter.

Uninsured parcels not subject to the zone rates may be mailed at the most convenient point. They may be mailed in street package boxes and at all numbered stations as well as the General Post Office and carrier stations.

Name and Address of Sender.—Parcels must bear the name and address of the sender, preceded by the word "From."

How to Address Parcels.—Addresses should be complete and plainly written in ink. The name and address of the sender should be placed on the upper left corner, the name and address of the addressee on the lower right corner, and the stamps on the upper right corner of parcels. In case a tag is used, the name and address of the sender and addressee should also be written on the wrapper of the parcel, for use should the tag become detached. Space sufficient for a legible address, postmark, the necessary postage stamps, and any words necessary for forwarding or return must be left on the address side of parcels.

In order that the delivery of mail may be facilitated and expedited, it is highly important that complete addresses be given and to this end the street and number, Post Office Box or Rural Route number, if any, should be shown.

Wrapping and Packing of Parcels.—Parcels must be prepared for mailing in such manner that the contents can be easily examined.

Parcels of fourth-class matter shall not be accepted for mailing unless packed so as to insure safe shipment and permit the contents to be easily examined. (See Sec. 474 in Circular 112). Such matter inclosed in boxes to which the lids are nailed or screwed may be accepted for mailing at the fourth-class rates of postage if, with reasonable effort, the lids can be removed by the use of a chisel, screw driver, or other suitable instrument, for the purpose of permitting examination of the contents. When a postmaster to whom is presented for mailing a bag which is sewed up is satisfied from an examination of it that it contains only fourth-class mail, he should accept it at the fourth-class rates of postage and mark it: "Examined at mailing office; contains only fourth-class mail." (Par. 3, Sec. 469, P. L. & R.)

Proprietary articles of merchandise, such as harmless medicinal preparations, soaps, tobacco, food products, etc., put up in fixed quantities in original sealed packages by the manufacturer so as to allow examination of the packages in their simplest mercantile form, and labeled in printing so as to show the nature of contents, quantity, and name of the manufacturer, are mailable at the fourth-class rates. If such sealed packages are inclosed in an outer wrapper, the latter must not be sealed, unless it is also labeled in printing in the manner indicated.

Limit of Weight and Size.—Parcels which exceed the limit of weight and size stated on page 1 will be refused.

In measuring a parcel the greatest distance in a straight line between its ends, but not around the parcel lengthwise, shall be taken as the length, while the distance around it at its thickest part shall be taken as the girth. For example, a parcel 10 inches wide, 5 inches high and 35 inches long has a girth of 30 inches, its length and girth combined being 65 inches.

A parcel not more than 4 feet 6 inches in length may measure as much as 2 feet 6 inches in girth, or around its thickest part. A shorter parcel may be thicker; thus, if it measures no more than 3 feet in length it may measure as much as 4 feet in girth, or around its thickest part.

Measuring Automobile Tires or Casings.—In measuring an automobile tire or casing which is so wrapped as to leave a clear space in the center, the outside diameter shall be taken as the length, and the distance around the body of the tire, that is, the mere circumference of the tubing or casing shall be taken as the girth. For example, a tire or casing 32 inches in diameter, the tubing or casing being 3½ inches thick, would have a length of 32 inches, while its girth would be approximately 11 inches, making the length and girth combined 43 inches, and, therefore, within the limit of size prescribed for fourth-class or parcel-post mail.

However, in measuring a tire or casing which is so wrapped as to form a circular-shaped solid parcel, or leave no perfectly clear space in the center, the outside diameter of the parcel shall be taken as the length, and twice its diameter and thickness as its girth.

Permissible Additions and Inclosures.—In addition to the name and address of the sender, which is required, it is permissible to write or print on the wrapper or cover of a parcel, or on a tag or label attached to it, the occupation of the sender, and to indicate in a small space by means of marks, letters, numbers, names or other brief description, the character of the parcel, but ample space must be left on the address side for the full address in legible characters and for the necessary postage stamps. Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Please do not open until Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With best wishes," and the like, may be placed on the cover of the parcel in such manner as not to interfere with the address, or on a card inclosed therewith.

The written additions permissible upon third-class matter also may be placed on fourth-class matter, together with any marks, numbers, names, or letters, for purpose of description, or they may be placed on the wrapper or cover, tag or label. There may be written on the blank leaves or cover of any book a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not in the nature of personal correspondence. Space sufficient for a legible address, postmark and the necessary postage stamps must be left on the address side of parcels.

It is permissible to inclose with matter of the fourth class an invoice showing, in writing or printing, the name and address of the sender and of the addressee; the names and quantities of articles inclosed, together with inscriptions indicating, "for purpose of description," the price, style, stock number, size and quality of the articles; the order or file number, date of order and date and manner of shipment; the initials or name of the salesman, or of the person by whom the articles were packed or checked.

Note.—In order that the articles to which may be inclosed in wrapped or sealed packages attached to the outside of parcels (P. L. & R.)

Directions for marking medicine written on a label attached to a bottle or package containing the medicine or inclosed with it are permissible and do not affect the classification of the parcel.

Public library books, otherwise mailable as parcel post matter, may bear any printed or written mark constituting a necessary inscription for the purpose of a permanent library record.

Written matter, in the nature of a personal communication on the wrapper of a parcel or inclosed therein, will subject the parcel to the letter rate of postage. See paragraph below regarding letters attached to parcels of fourth-class mail.

Printed matter relating to an article which it accompanies is regarded as descriptive of the article within the meaning of Section 458, Postal Laws and Regulations, and therefore is a permissible inclosure with such article when mailed as fourth-class or parcel-post matter.

Printing on an article or on its wrapper, or on a label pasted to it in such manner as to form an integral part of it, does not affect the classification of the article as parcel-post matter.

The tag or label, with the printing or writing authorized thereon, may be attached to the whole parcel or separate tags or labels, bearing the same, may be attached to each of one or more articles contained in the parcel.

A single order form, mainly in print, may be inclosed with fourth-class matter mailed at the rates for that class without affecting its classification.

Miscellaneous printed matter may be inclosed in parcels of fourth-class matter or in parcels of books weighing more than four pounds mailed at the parcel-post rates of postage.

Invoices in Unsealed Envelopes Attached to Parcels.—Senders of parcels mailed at the fourth-class rates may, if they so desire, inclose invoices bearing no unauthorized additions in unsealed tag envelopes and attach the latter to the outside of the parcels they are to accompany, provided the envelopes in which the invoices are placed are left unsealed and are plainly marked, preferably in printing, "Invoice Inside," or some similar inscription, and the senders' and addressees' names and addresses are, in all cases, placed on the wrappers of the parcels, regardless of whether or not they appear on the envelopes containing the invoices. Furthermore, in order to prevent the separation of the tag envelopes and parcels while in the mails, the envelopes must be securely fastened to the parcels and placed underneath the string with which the parcels are tied. When practicable, the tag envelopes should be pasted to the parcels. In all cases the invoices must be readily accessible for postal examination.

Letters Attached to Parcels of Fourth-Class Mail.—When the sender desires that a parcel of fourth-class matter on which the postage is fully prepaid, with stamps affixed, at the rate for that class, be accompanied with a communication which is not a permissible inclosure at the fourth-class rate, the communication may be placed in an envelope, and after the full amount of postage at the first-class rate is affixed to the envelope it may be tied to or otherwise securely attached to the outside of the parcel in such manner as to prevent its separation therefrom and not to interfere with the address on the parcel. The envelope shall be addressed to correspond with the address on the parcel. Parcels to which such communications are attached shall in all cases be treated as fourth-class mail. (Par. 5½, Sec. 458, P. L. & R.)

Any strong envelope which can be securely attached to the outside of the parcel in such manner as will prevent its separation therefrom and not interfere with the address on the parcel may be used. A tag envelope fastened with strong twine would serve this purpose very well. The envelope should always be placed under the twine with which the parcel is tied, thus lessening the chances of its becoming torn from the parcel while in transit.

The envelope must be addressed to correspond with the address on the parcel, so that in case of their becoming separated while in transit both may be delivered.

Sufficient stamps to prepay the postage at the first-class rate on the communication must be affixed to the envelope. Stamps sufficient to prepay postage at the fourth-class rate on the parcel must be affixed to the wrapper of the parcel.

Parcels Containing Two or More Classes of Mail Matter.—A parcel containing two or more classes of mail matter is chargeable with postage at the rate applicable to the highest class of matter inclosed. A parcel composed of two articles, one being matter of the third class and the other matter of the fourth class, is chargeable with postage at the fourth-class rate when such postage is equal to or greater than that which would be chargeable if the third-class rate were applicable. However, when the postage on a parcel containing both third and fourth class matter amounts to more at the third-class than at the fourth-class rate, owing to the graduated zone rates, the parcel must be charged with postage at the third-class rate—one cent for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces.

Parcels containing second-class matter and fourth-class matter are subject to the highest rate as explained in the preceding paragraph.

Packages Mailed as First-Class Matter Should Be Sealed.—When it is desired to send packages as first-class matter, the packages should be sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, in order to avoid any confusion in the mails as to their proper classification.

NOTE.—The limit of weight for first-class matter is the same as for fourth-class matter.

Forwarding and Return of Parcels.—Parcel-post matter will be forwarded or returned to the sender on a new prepayment of postage at the rate which would be chargeable if the package was originally mailed at the forwarding office, or at the office where the parcel is held.

When parcels are subject to a new prepayment of postage amounting to 25 cents or more for forwarding from the office of original address to the addressee at another post office, or for return to the sender, they are likewise chargeable with an additional war tax. Therefore, when notifying the addressee or sender of a parcel of the amount of postage required for its forwarding or return, as the case may be, the postmaster shall also indicate, on the official card notice used for the purpose, the amount of the war tax chargeable on the parcel, for which the necessary internal-revenue stamps must be furnished by the addressee or sender. (See "War-Stamp Tax" on page 1.)

Postmasters are required to notify the senders of undeliverable parcels of obvious value.

Sender's Receipts for Ordinary Fourth-Class Parcels.—The postmaster at the mailing office may, on payment of one cent, give the sender of an ordinary parcel of fourth-class mail a receipt therefor. A postage stamp to cover the charge for the receipt shall be affixed thereto. The name and address of the addressee of the parcel shall be written in the receipt by the sender. (Section 458½, Postal Laws and Regulations.)

The purpose of this receipt is to provide senders of fourth-class parcels, when desired, a record evidencing their mailing for which a fee of one cent is charged. Their issuance does not in any way insure the parcels against loss while in the mails and no receipt is obtained from the addressee upon delivery. Patrons who desire either of these latter facilities should insure their parcels.

Receipt will be given on tag form 3817. The name and address of the addressee shall be written on the tag by the sender, who may place his own name thereon if he desires, and affix on the tag a one-cent postage stamp in the space provided. The tag shall be tied to the parcel before mailing. The postal employee accepting the article shall compare the address on the tag with that on the parcel, postmark the stamp to show the date of acceptance, detach the receipt and deliver it to the sender.

When such receipts are desired by firms and individuals mailing a number of parcels at one time a "Farm Registration Book" will be used with such modifications as are necessary. Each sheet must have affixed postage stamps at the rate of one cent for each parcel listed thereon, which stamps shall be postmarked and the sheet returned to the sender. These sheets are to be filled out by the sender and a carbon copy must not be filed at the post office.

Parcel-Post Matter Can Not Be Registered.—Fourth-class or domestic parcel-post mail will not be registered, but may be insured against loss upon payment of a fee of three, five, ten or twenty-five cents for value not exceeding five, twenty-five, fifty or one hundred dollars, in addition to the postage, both to be prepaid with stamps affixed. (See Circular 113 for detailed information.)

Special Delivery.—A mailable parcel will be accorded the usual special-delivery service when a special-delivery stamp or ten cents in ordinary stamps are affixed thereto in addition to the parcel-post postage. Drowning. 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach and lifting by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach) direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! The above table applies to ordinary years only. For leap year, one day must be added to each number of days after February 28.
EXAMPLE.—To find the number of days between June 3, 1892, and February 16, 1893. The figures opposite the third day in the first June column are 154; those opposite the sixteenth day in the second February column are 412. Subtract the first from the second product—4, e., 154 from 412, and the result is 258, the number of days between the two dates.

And also in the sum of Seven Hundred and eighty dollars and thirty-three cents ($780.33) for money before that time paid by the plaintiffs for the use of the defendant at her special instance and request;

And also in the sum of Seven Hundred and eighty dollars and thirty-three cents ($780.33) for money before that time had and received by the defendant to the use of the said plaintiffs.

And being so indebted the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid undertook and faithfully promised the said plaintiffs to pay them the said several sums of money in said count mentioned, when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested;

And for this also that heretofore, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid the said defendant accounting with the said plaintiffs of and concerning divers other sums of money before that time due and owing to the said plaintiffs and then in arrears and unpaid; and upon such accounting; the said defendant was found in arrears and indebted to the said plaintiffs in the further sum of Seven Hundred and eighty dollars and thirty-three cents ($780.33), and being so found in arrears and indebted, the said defendant, in consideration thereof undertook and then faithfully promised the said plaintiffs to pay them the said sum of money in the count last mentioned when she the said defendant should thereunto be requested. Yet the said defendant disregarding her said promises has failed and still fails and neglects to pay the said several sums of money although often requested so to do;

And also for this, to-wit: that heretofore, to-wit, from January 1st, 1926, up and until the death of A.J. Rabey on June 22nd, 1926, the plaintiffs, the defendant and A.J. Rabey, were co-tenants of a certain farm in Holy Neck Magisterial District of Nansemond County, Virginia, known as "Clearview Estate", and as such co-tenants, cultivated and operated the said farm, and there was deposited in the bank in the name of the defendant, money belonging to the said four parties from such operations in the sum of Five Hundred and forty-three dollars and seventy-one cents ($543.71) of which the plaintiffs were entitled each to one-fourth interest therein as such co-tenant and to one-third of one-fourth interest therein as two of the devisees of the said A.J. Note-No part of profits from the Home Place in years '27,'28,and '29,except what has been indicated in the way of rent has Lura E. Rabey been credited with by reason of the fact that she had left the farm Oct. 8,1926,thereby forfeiting her right to same, according to her father's will which all had taken for their guide for over 30 years.Besides, she did not contribute one penny to the accumulation thereof, furnish team or farm equipment,hire or board laborers,or furnish any livestock or poultry or their feed.Please note that Clearview Estate has not charged Lura E. Rabey with any operating expenses in these years and the co-tenants do not feel it right to divide profits from personally owned equipment and livestock with her, but they are willing to pay a fair rental for her part of land used if she charges them rent. They aim to give a square deal and they are asking the same for themselves.

Clearview Estate's Claims against

Lura E. Rabey

(with explanations)

Claims of Clearview Estate Against Lura E. Rabey, former treasurer
(These claims made before Estate was divided)

L. E. R.'s int.

Amount cash on hand at A. J. Rabey's death(kept by L. E. Rabey in her bureau drawer and not ever accounted for)$76.50 one-third $25.50

Account in bank and not accounted for to sisters who repeatedly begged her for their part to run farm on 543. 71 " " 181. 23

Family pocketbook (small satchel always kept locked in Lura E. Rabey's personal suitcase) containing all important papers and deeds and a joint fund belonging to co-tenants. According to knowledge of S. R. Duke and G. Rabey, and to the testimony of Lura Rabey given in former Court proceedings, sufficient money for running the farm was placed in said pocketbook every year when division of profits was made for this purpose and in her testimony she states that a sum of money ranging from $300 to $500 was ALWAYS kept at home to run farm on. She also states that money loaned to S. L. Rabey on coupe was taken out of that pocketbook. Judging from their own knowledge that several hundred dollars had always been left in pocketbook for farm expenditures, and from statements of their deceased brother, A. J. Rabey who repeatedly during his last illness referred to money in the house and a certain $500 paid him on his last trip to Suffolk which he gave L. E. Rabey to put away for him, S. R. Duke and G. Rabey believe that L. E. Rabey took a large sum of money belonging to them and their deceased brother away with her when she left on Oct. 8, 1926, but they are not prepared to prove same as they were never permitted to see inside the pocketbook, so they are only charging her for their proportional part of a certain $300 seen by Susie L. Rabey on morning of July 1, 1926 when L. E. Rabey had pocketbook open for purpose of getting out A. J. Rabey's bankbooks etc. before going to Suffolk to qualify as his executrix. On that morning she had number of bills in her hand and spoke of them as "this $300". This amount was not charged up in former suit due to fact that she had promised S. R. Duke to divide the amount, but ~~SHE~~ NEVER DID, hence the charge now appearing of $300 one third 100.00

Note-Lura E. Rabey has only 1/3 int. in items indicated by reason of her having sold her inherited int. from A. J. Rabey to S. R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey for $234.50.

Note-Mary V. Rabey rented 8 acres more or less land in 1927 from Clearview Estate for $40.00, having signed a contract with those residing on Clearview at time. She used land, but refused to pay anyone because Lura
E. Rabey refused to sign contract unless she, herself were to receive all the rent. Who is responsible for the loss of that $40.00?

took it from home -

the house and buildings alone in 1930, and according to Judge's decision Mr. Holcomb, the tenant, is to pay Lura Rabey $290 rent for houses and land in 1930. See Judge for verification. Moreover, J. C. Ballard, the tenant in 1926-1927 submitted an itemized statement of crops raised by him in 1927 which appears in a suit filed by the defendants for the recovery of rent and other moneys held by Lura E. Rabey. Said tenant's statement amounted to over $150 rent. See papers regarding matter on file in Clerk's Office.

Total claims against L.E. Rabey for 1926-1927 $1630.20

Note-

These claims do not include any charge for rent due from Mary V. Rabey for year 1927 to the amount of $40 as per her signed contract, and which she did not pay because Lura E. Rabey forbade her paying said rent to anyone but herself. See Mary V. Rabey for verification. Her address is Holland, Virginia.

Note-When division of farm was made by Commissioners appointed by the Court they were not informed that both the Road Farm and Home Place had been greatly increased in value by Sarah R. Duke and Georgianna Rabey, who from their individual funds paid not only the taxes and insurance, but for all improvements. In said division Lura E. Rabey received the same benefit as if she had contributed her proper share to the upkeep and general improvement of both farms. Defendants were advised by counsel that proper adjustment for capital expended by her and the late Sarah R. Duke would be made when there was an accounting of the transactions of the co-tenants.

CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

Sec. 1. (a) The carrier or party in possession of the property herein described shall be liable as at common law for loss thereof or damage thereto, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) No carrier or party in possession of any of the property herein described shall be liable for any loss thereof or damage thereto, except as at common law, for the act of God, the public enemy, the authority of law, or for natural shrinkage. The carrier's liability shall be that of warehouseman, only, for loss, damage, or delay caused by fire occurring after the expiration of the free time allowed by tariff lawfully on file (such free time to be computed as therein provided) after notice of the arrival of the property at destination, or at the port of export (if intended for export) has been duly sent or given, and after placement of the property for delivery at destination, or tender of delivery of the property to the party entitled to receive it, has been made. Except in case of negligence of the carrier or party in possession (and the burden to prove freedom from such negligence shall be on the carrier or party in possession), the carrier or party in possession shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay occurring while the property is stopped and held in transit upon the request of the shipper, owner, or party entitled to make such request, or resulting from a defect or vice in the property, or for country damage to cotton, or from riots or strikes.

(c) In case of quarantine the property may be discharged at risk and expense of owners into quarantine depot or elsewhere, as required by quarantine regulations or authorities, or for the carrier's dispatch at nearest available point to shipping point, earning freight both ways. In any such case carrier's responsibility shall cease when property is so discharged, or property may be returned by carrier at owner's expense to shipping point, earning freight both ways. In any such case carrier's responsibility shall cease when property is so discharged, or property shall be borne by the owners of the property or be a lien thereon. The carrier shall not be liable for loss or damage occasioned by fumigation, disinfection or other acts required to be done by quarantine regulations or authorities even though the same may have been done by carrier's officers, agents, or employees, nor for detention, loss, or damage of any kind occasioned by quarantine or officers, as to quarantine laws or regulations. No carrier shall be liable, except in case of negligence, for any mistake or inaccuracy in any information furnished by the carrier, its agents, or officers, as to quarantine laws or regulations. The shipper shall hold the carriers harmless from any expense they may incur, or damage they may be required to pay, by reason of the introduction of the property covered by this contract into any place against the quarantine laws or regulations in effect at such place.

Sec. 2. (a) No carrier is bound to transport said property by any particular train or vessel, or in time for any particular market or otherwise than with reasonable dispatch. In all cases not prohibited by law where a lower value than actual value has been represented in writing by the shipper or has been agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property as determined by the classification or tariffs upon which a rate is based, such lower value plus freight charges shall be paid as the maximum amount to be recovered, whether or not such loss or damage occurs from negligence.

(b) Claims for loss, damage, or injury to property must be made in writing to the originator or delivering carrier or carriers issuing this bill of lading within six months after delivery of the property (in case of export traffic, within six months after delivery at port of export) or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within six months (or nine months in case of export traffic) after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed; provided that if such loss, damage, or injury was due to delay or damage while being loaded or unloaded, or damaged in transit by carelessness or negligence of the carrier, or in case of failure to make delivery, then within six months after delivery. Suits for loss, damage, injury, or delay shall be instituted only within two years and one day after delivery of the property, or in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months and one day after notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disclaimed the claim or any part or parts thereof specified in the notice.

(c) Any carrier or party liable on account of loss or damage to any of said property shall have the full benefit of any insurance that may have been effected upon or on account of said property, so far as this shall not avoid the policies or contracts of insurance. Provided, that the carrier reimburses the claimant for the premium paid thereon.

Sec. 3. Except where such service is required as the result of carrier's negligence, all property shall be subject to necessary coopers and baling at owner's cost. Each carrier over and over again cotton and cotton linters is to be transported hereunder shall have the privilege, at its own cost and risk of compressing the same for greater convenience in handling and storage, and shall not be held responsible for deviation or unavoidable delays in procuring such compression. Grain in bulk consigned to a point where there is a railroad, public licensed elevator, may (unless otherwise expressly noted herein, and then if it is not promptly unloaded) be delivered delivered and placed with other grain of the same kind and grade without respect to ownership (and prompt notice thereof shall be given to the consignor), and if so delivered shall be subject to a lien for elevator charges in addition to all other charges hereunder.

Sec. 4. (a) Property not removed by the party entitled to receive it within the free time allowed by tariffs, lawfully on file (such free time to be computed as therein provided), after notice of the arrival of the property at destination or at the port of export (if intended for export) has been duly sent or given, and after placement of the property for delivery at destination has been made, may be kept in vessel car, depot, warehouse or place of delivery of the carrier, subject to the tariff charge for storage and to carrier's responsibility as warehouseman, only, or at the option of the carrier, may be removed to and stored in a public or licensed warehouse at the place of delivery or other available place, at the cost of the owner, and there held without liability on the part of the carrier, and subject to a lien for all freight and other lawful charges, including a reasonable charge for storage.

(b) Where non-perishable property which has been transported to destination hereunder is refused by consignee or the party entitled to receive it, or said consignee or party entitled to receive it fails to receive it within 15 days after notice of arrival shall have been duly sent or given, the carrier may sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder, at such place as may be designated by the carrier. Provided, that the carrier shall have first mailed, sent, or given to the consignor notice that the property has been refused or remains unclaimed, as the case may be, and that it will be subject to sale under the terms of the bill of lading if disposition is not arranged for, and that the carrier has published notice containing a description of the property, the name of the party to whom consigned, or, if shipped prior to notice, the name of the party to be notified, and the time and place of sale, once a week for two successive weeks. In a newspaper of general circulation at the place of sale or nearest place where such newspaper is published: Provided, That 30 days shall have elapsed before publication of notice of sale after said notice that the property was refused or remains unclaimed was mailed, sent, or given.

(c) Where perishable property which has been transported hereunder to destination is refused by consignee or party entitled to receive it, or said consignee or party entitled to receive it fails to receive it promptly, the carrier may, in its discretion, to prevent deterioration or further deterioration, sell the same as to the best advantage at private or public sale. Provided, that if time serves for notification to the consignor or owner of the refusal of the property or the failure to receive it and request for disposition of the property, such notification shall be given, in such manner as the exercise of due diligence requires, before the property is sold.

(d) Where the procedure provided for in the two paragraphs last preceding is not possible, it is agreed that nothing contained in said paragraphs shall be construed to abridge the right of the carrier at its option to sell the property under such circumstances and in such manner as may be authorized by law.

(e) The proceeds of any sale made under this section shall be applied by the carrier to the payment of freight, demurrage, storage, and any other lawful charges and the expense of notice, advertisement, sale, and other necessary expense and of caring for and maintaining the property, if proper care of the same requires special expense, and should there be a balance it shall be paid to the owner of the property sold hereunder.

(f) Property destined to or taken from a station, wharf, or landing at which there is no regularly appointed freight agent shall be entirely at risk of owner after unloaded from cars or vessels or until loaded into cars or vessels, and except in case of carrier's negligence, when received from or delivered to such stations, wharves, or landings shall be at owner's risk until the cars are attached to and after they are detached from locomotive or train or until loaded into and after unloaded from vessels.

Sec. 5. No carrier hereunder will carry or be liable in any way for any documents, specie, or for any articles of extraordinary value not specifically rated in the published classifications or tariffs unless a special agreement to do so and a stipulated value of the articles are indorsed hereon.

Sec. 6. Every party, whether principal or agent, shipping explosives or dangerous goods, without previous full written disclosure, to the carrier of their nature, shall be liable for and indemnify the carrier against all loss or damage caused by such goods, and such goods may be warehoused at owner's risk and expense or destroyed without compensation.

Sec. 7. The owner or consignee shall pay the freight and average, if any, and all other lawful charges accruing on said property; but, except in those instances where it may be lawfully authorized to do so, no carrier by railroad shall deliver or relinquish possession at destination of the property covered by this bill of lading until all tariff rates and charges thereon have been paid. The consignor shall be liable for the freight and all other lawful charges, except that if the consignor stipulates, by signature, contrary to such stipulation, shall make delivery without requiring such payment, the consignor shall not be liable for such charges and the carrier, of the carrier to require at time of shipment the prepayment or guarantee of the charges. If upon inspection it is ascertained that the articles shipped are not those described in this bill of lading, the freight charges must be paid upon the order of the shipper, or agent, in exchange or in substitution for another bill of lading, the shipper's signature to the prior bill of lading as to the statement of value or otherwise, or election of common law or bill of lading liability, in or in connection with such prior bill of lading, shall be considered a part of this bill of lading as fully as if the same were written or made in or in connection with this bill of lading.

Sec. 8. (a) If all or any part of said property is carried by water over any part of said route, such water carriage shall be performed subject to all the terms and provisions of, and all laws and regulations in respect of the cargo, and shall comply with the Act of the Congress of the United States, approved on February 13, 1893, and entitled "An act relating to the navigation of vessels, etc., and of other statutes of the United States according carriers by water the protection of limited liability, and to the conditions contained in this bill of lading not inconsistent therewith or with this section.

(b) No such carrier by water shall be liable for any loss or damage resulting from any fire happening to or on board the vessel, or from explosion, bursting of boilers or breakage of shafts, unless caused by the design or neglect of such carrier.

(c) If the carrier shall have exercised due diligence in making the vessel in all respects seaworthy and properly manned, equipped and supplied, no such carrier shall be liable for any loss or damage resulting from the perils of the lakes, seas, or other waters, or from latent defects in hull, machinery, or appurtenances whether existing prior to, at the time of, or after sailing, or from collision, stranding, or other accidents of navigation, or from prolongation of the voyage. And, when for any reason it is necessary, transfer, transshipment, or lighter, to load and discharge goods at any time, to assist vessels in distress, to deviate for the purpose of saving life or property, or for docking and repairs.

(d) General average shall be payable according to York-Antwerp Rules, 1890, and, as to any matter not therein provided for, according to the law of the place of the port of New York. If the owners shall have exercised due diligence to make the vessel in all respects seaworthy and properly manned, equipped and supplied, the hereby agreed that in case of danger, damage or disaster resulting from faults or errors in navigation, or in the management of the vessel, or from any latent or other defects in the vessel, or the unseaworthiness of the cargo, or from unseaworthiness, whether existing at the time of shipment, or at the beginning of the voyage (provided the latent or other defects or special charges incurred in respect of the cargo, and shall comply with the Act of the Congress of the United States, approved on February 13, 1893, and entitled "An act relating to the navigation of vessels, etc., and of other statutes of the United States according carriers by water the protection of limited liability, and to the conditions contained in this bill of lading not inconsistent therewith or with this section.

(e) If the property is being carried under a tariff which provides that any carrier or carriers party thereto shall be liable for loss from perils of the sea, then as to such carrier or carriers the provisions of this section shall be modified in accordance with the tariff provisions, which shall be regarded as incorporated into the conditions of this bill of lading.

(f) The term "water carriage" in this section shall not be construed as including lightering in or across rivers, harbors, or lakes, when performed by or on behalf of rail carriers.

Sec. 10. Any alteration, addition, or erasure in this bill of lading which shall be made without the special notation hereon of the agent of the carrier issuing this bill of lading, shall be without effect, and this bill of lading shall be subject to its original tenor.

RULES AND CONDITIONS OF GUARANTY

RULES FOR RODDING

1. A Lightning Conductor shall in general be coursed over the roof and down the corners and sides of building at diagonally opposite corners and terminating into earth to a depth where permanent moisture is ever present.
2. Roof conductors shall be coursed along ridges, parapets and edges of flat roofs, and where necessary, over flat surfaces in such a way as to join each air terminal to the main conductor.
3. Down conductors shall be preferably coursed over the extreme outer portions of building with due consideration being given to the best places for making ground connections and to location of air terminal.
4. Conductors shall be run around chimneys, ventilators and similar obstructions, in a curve of at least (2) feet radius. No bend in a lightning conductor which embraces a portion of a building, such as, an eave, shall have a radius of less than 8 inches and any angle turn not less than 90 degrees and preserve a horizontal or downward course.
5. All prominent parts of a building such as Spires, Cupolas, Ventilators, Observatories, Chimneys and Gables, or other objects, each must be furnished with an air terminal.
6. Each air terminal must be supported by a substantial brace support rigidly attached to building. Air terminals must extend at least 10 inches above top of chimney and supported by a brace, within two feet of the chimney, or attached with other approved devices, and all air terminals connected to the main circuit rod.
7. Silos connected to a rodded building require an additional ground rod. Silos not connected to a rodded building require not less than two ground rods.
8. Additional down conductors must be installed where necessary to avoid dead ends exceeding 16 feet in length. Single down conductors descending flag poles, spires and similar slender structures which are adjuncts of the building shall not be regarded as dead ends, but shall be treated as air terminals.
9. Metallic masses about buildings within 6 feet of the Lightning Rod System, which are a permanent portion of the structure, or are permanently installed within or about it, shall be made a part of the Lightning Rod System by interconnecting with it, or be independently grounded, or both.
10. The points or air terminals shall be connected to the main or circuit rod with a copper bronze connector.
11. No two points shall be spaced more than 25 feet when 5 foot air terminals are used. 40 inch air terminals, 20 feet apart. 30 inch air terminals or less, 15 feet apart. Every building must have two earth terminals or discharging rods from any one building and not more than 6 points to 2 discharging rods. Buildings requiring more than 6 points shall have an additional discharging rod for each 4 points. "L" and "T" shaped buildings to have at least one additional discharging rod. "H" shaped buildings, 2 discharging rods.
12. Each ground rod must be placed to a sufficient depth where moisture is ever present. Three or four feet into the ground is not accepted as good earth connections.
13. When not possible to place rods to the required depth, or where buildings rest upon rock, a trench as deep as possible should be made leading away from the building, and at least 10 feet of rod must be buried in straight length to full depth.

CONDITIONS OF GUARANTY

1. No person accepting this Guaranty shall change or alter the position of any rod upon a building to lessen or impair its protective power.
2. The owner shall notify the Company in writing of any additions, alterations or repairs made to these buildings.
3. Proper care must be taken by the owners to see that no rod is broken, removed from the buildings or from the earth, or impaired in any way.
4. If the rods become damaged in any manner immediate notice in writing must be made to this Company stating nature of such damage.
5. This Guaranty may be renewed annually after date of expiration, provided inspection has been made by one of the Company's authorized inspectors and the System of said rods reported to be in perfect electrical condition. Any expense incurred for repairs after expiration will be charged to the owners.
6. The Owner shall notify the Company in writing within thirty days from date of expiration, the conditions of the lightning rods on that date, that the same may be inspected or repaired.
7. The Owner shall notify the Company in writing at the expiration of each five year period from the date of this Guaranty, the conditions of the said Lightning Rods that same can be repaired if necessary.
8. If the Owner fails to pay the account or the note at maturity, this Guaranty shall become null and void.
9. No writing will be permitted on this Guaranty except to properly fill in the blank space, according to the form and omissions, alterations, additions, interlineations or erasures will render this Guaranty void.

12. This Guaranty does not apply for work done with other rods wholly or in part.
13. This is a Guaranty on the goods manufactured by the undersigned Company and is not an INSURANCE POLICY.
