To the Clerk of the District Court of Wisconsin County:

C.W. COLEMAN,
Attorney at Law,
Rooms 16-18 Kim Building,
PORTSMOUTH, VIRGINIA.

March 31, 1902.

A. P. Gomer, Esq.,

Suffolk, Va.

My dear Sir:-

After the last rule day had passed, I received a letter from my friend Sheriff Baker saying that he had not been able to find Mary Flynn. My client was exceedingly anxious to get a divorce and I am afraid that I will be unable to console him for the delay that will be caused by failing to find the defendant. Upon further inquiry, I learn that Mary Flynn is living at Jno. Eberwine's under her maiden name of Mary Walker.

I will have to dismiss the suit instituted in your Court where the defendant resides and have instituted a new suit in Norfolk County where the plaintiff and defendant last cohabited.

You will please get Mr. Baker to serve the enclosed summons and notices and return copies to me soon as served.

Send me Bill of costs and I will remit.

Yours truly,

C.W. Coleman

Copy

"Exhibit A"

In the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, Virginia.

To the Hon. R. R. Prentis, Judge of said Court.

Complaining sheweth unto the Court your orator Richard Flynn the following case:

1st. On the 14th day of September, in the year 1887, your orator was duly married according to law unto Mary Walker now Mary Flynn, in the City of Portsmouth, Virginia, as will more fully appear from a certified copy of the marriage license and certificate herewith filed as "Exhibit A" and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill.

2nd. Your orator was a faithful husband unto his wife the said Mary Flynn, and provided for her as best he could according to his resources and conditions in life.

3rd. Your orators wife, on the contrary, disregarding her marriage vows did, without sufficient cause, wilfully abandon and desert your orator and has continued in such wilful abandonment and desertion for a long period of time, to-wit: for more than five years, and still continues in such wilful abandonment and desertion and has refused to return to your orator, or to live or cohabit with him and resume her marital relations, to the great inconvenience and sorrow of your orator.

4th. Your orator's wife, moreover, has violated her marriage vows and during the time of her wilful abandonment and desertion of your orator as aforesaid, has committed adultery with one Charles Goodman, and has not lived or cohabited with your orator since the commission of such adultery.

5th. In tender consideration whereof and for as much your orator is remediless in the premises save in a Court of equity, where matters of this sort are cognizable, he prays that the said Mary Flynn be made a defendant to this bill and required to answer the same, but answer under oath is expressly waived; that your orator may be divorced a vinculo matrimonii, from her; that she be deprived of all interest in your orator's property and that all such other and general relief may be granted your orator as the nature of his case may require or to equity shall seem meet. And your orator will ever pray, etc.
