ESSIE CHAPEL JORDAN

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES L. MCLENORE, JUDGE:

Your complainant, Daniel Perry Jordan, respectfully represents:

First. That on the 21st day of March, 1920, your complainant, Daniel Perry Jordan, was lawfully married in the County of Hansemond, Virginia, to Essie Chapel Jordan, whose maiden name was Essie Chapel, as will appear from a certificate of marriage filed herewith, marked exhibit "A", and made a part of this bill; and,

Second: That continuously from the date of said marriage until the following day, to-wit: the _____ day of September 1920, your complainant and the said Essie Chapel Jordan, lived together as husband and wife in Hansemond County, Virginia; and,

Third. That the said Essie Chapel Jordan has wilfully deserted and abandoned your complainant; that is to say, on the _____ day of September, 1920, the said Essie Chapel Jordan did, voluntarily, wilfully and without and justification whatever, leave her home; that immediately before leaving she stated to your complainant that she was going to leave him forever and would never return to him; and that the said Essie Chapel Jordan did wilfully leave the said Daniel Perry Jordan on the said _____ day of September, 1920, with the intent never to return to live with him as husband and wife, and that the said Essie Chapel Jordan has never returned to her home aforesaid; and,

Fourth: That your complainant has domiciled in, and is, and has been an actual bonified resident of this state for at least one year preceeding the commencement of this suit; and,

Fifth: That your complainant last cohabited with the said Essie Chapel Jordan in the County of Hansemond, Virginia;

In consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your complainant is remediless in the premises save in a court of equity, your complainant prays that the said Essie Chapel Jordan may be made a party defendant to this bill, and required, but not on oath, to answer the same, the oath being hereby waived; that proper process may be issued; that a divorce from the bond of matrimony, which was created by the aforesaid marriage, be decreed him; and that your complainant may have all such further, and other, and general relief in the premises as the nature of his case may require, or to equity shall seem meet.
