Teste James Rockwell, Clk.

Joshua
Taynor's
Will

In the name of God amen, I Joshua Taynor residing on Black Water River in the county of Southampton being of sound mind & memory do hereby make and declare this my last will & Testament unto us in manner & form as follows. I give unto my daughter Charity Taynor one feather bed and furniture, one shirt, one wash bowl and one soap, three sheep, and two hogs to her and her heirs forever, and I leave her the plantation to her son Isaac Taynor, containing seventy nine acres, and divided from my son John Taynor's tract, by a line made by my self of marked trees beginning at a maple in Snake tract, thence running a line of marked trees to an apple in Black Water River to have the use & profits thereof during his natural life, and thereafter to my son Jonathan Taynor and his heirs forever. I give unto my son Jonathan Taynor the upper part of my plantation on which he now lives five acres, and divided from the one on which I live, by a line as above mentioned to him & his heirs forever. I also give him one gun, and the plantation named to my daughter Charity, after he comes to him & his heirs forever. I leave all the balance of my Estate to be divided into three equal shares, and I give one share to my daughter Charity Taynor, one share to the children then living of my daughter Terby, and one share to the children then living of my daughter Emily, and I give to them & their heirs forever this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of April 1827.

Signed and sealed unto
Joshua Taynor
