Thomas Doyal
Will

I Thomas Doyal of the County of Southampton do hereby make and declare this writing to be my Testament and last will touching and disannulling all former and former wills by me heretofore made Imperious. It is my will and desire that all such perishable property as I may be possessed of at the time of my death and which can be spared without inconvenience to my family and may not be deemed necessary for the support of my plantation should be sold and the money arising therefrom and such debts owing to me to me be applied to the payment of my just debts. 2^d. I give to my wife all my Estate except as is hereafter excepted until my son Drew arrives to the age of Twenty one Year upon which excepted sum that she should apply the profits thereof to her own support and the maintenance and education of my children and the enjoyment of said Estate It being my intention that she should make no charge whatever against my children. 3^d. I give to my son Drew a negro girl commonly called Mary and her future increase For nothing. In case my son Drew should die before he arrives to the age of Twenty one Year it is my desire that if my wife be living she should retain as her property the Estate herebefore bequeathed to her until my son Thomas arrives to the age of Twenty one Year upon which condition as before stated I testify. In case my wife should die before my son Drew arrives to the age of Twenty one Year or in case of his death before that time before my son Thomas arrives to the age of Twenty one Year then it is my desire that my surviving Executor should keep up my plantation for the support and education of my children until Drew or Thomas arrives to the age of Twenty one Year. And lastly when my son Drew arrives to the age of Twenty one Year or in case of his death before that time when my son
