NOTES

As there is no action for the return of the Bonds not admitted As the Treasurer by his last certificate that his plantation should be kept open a crop made there any in 1823. The Govt. superintended the business himself from the first day of April to the end of that year making 1 year & 10 months for which the Govt. paid or for including his own Board which the Govt. he found himself the Guardian of the that charge adding too high he thinks the same service might have been obtained upon better terms. The Govt. has altered the charge because he is of opinion that if the service were rendered by the Govt. at his own expense it would be every
