

the place I know this is drawing largely on the franchise of their position but I further know were they to die, there is nothing on earth I would not do to save them from what I hope they will do to, I should wish to have my estate made the most profitable it could be for the benevolence of my wife and I, which I hope for the benefit of our children and her own happiness (she never wastes) but she does not want them to my wish that my estate be equally divided between her and another son (she would remain together with Samuel, come of age at which time I wish her to receive her share and for each to receive their share as they come of age should I die without any other I wish this to be considered my will and hope that her own a benevolent would comply with my request at all times giving my wife who is dear to me above all else all the aid in their power and advising and consulting over children as if they were their own, I have written this in great hurry and expect its badly dictated but wish it recorded accurately to its meaning. Given under my hand and seal this 2nd day of October 1834

John Summerville Esq

At a Court held for the County of Southampton the 20th day of Feb. 1835.

The last Will and Testament of John Summerville dec^d was presented in Court for probate and there being no subscribing Witness thereto Mrs. Mahon & John Storey being sworn severally deposed and sworn to that they are acquainted with the true writing of the said John Summerville and that they truly believe the last of the said Writing as well as the signature of the said deceased to be in his proper hand writing of the said John Summerville and the Court being thereof satisfied it is ordered that the said Writing be received as and for the last Will and Testament of the said John Summerville dec^d. Whereupon Nathl. A. Briggs, Esq. and James B. Briggs, Esq. the Executors named in the said Will and refused to take upon themselves the burden of the execution of the said Will. And thereupon on motion of James B. Briggs, Esq. who made oath & together with John B. Briggs, Esq. (deposed) for his depositions entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs with reference to the said James B. Briggs for obtaining letters of administration on the said John Summerville estate with his will annexed annexed in due form.
