

Notes. As the first report was recommended for information, the Comr. was not apprised that there was any substantial disbursements by the admr. or the acct. were there have been can-bonds; but since the refined report was made, the admr. enclosed the Comr. vouchers corresponding with the entries here made.

R. This item is objected to by Joseph Turner Esqr. Counsel for the distributees, upon the ground that it is an open account; and paid without proof, it is therefore not returned.

The Comr. is advised by the admr. to strike a balance including the amount due against the Admr. for the support of her childrens alluded to in the former reports.
