This account was repaid some years past and the sum of $ 266. 95 found due the Estate on the 1st day of March 1831. It appears the said charges himself in the account with the sum of $ 93. 12 as received of John Magheart when upon a settlement of accounts, there was only $ 81. 12 1/2 due. The acct for the difference was also settled to be credited and specially to the amount and over three errors & omissions are corrected as follows.

1831
March	1	By this sum due the Estate of J. A. Gray		266 95
		By Jno. Magheart's acct as executor in the former report.	93. 12
		By amount actually received.	50. 12
		To the balance, an error off	63 08
		" paid John Brammer for loss in	6 00
		" " C. Clayton for executing notice	1 50	70 00
		By net balance due the Estate		196. 15

with interest from this 1st day of March 1831 till paid

Comd for $ 1.50 charged to Geo. Ray 1/2
