

I do hereby give to said Dorothy Drake her own natural life and at her death, I give the same to said Dorothy Drake's son, William Drake.

Also I give to said William Drake the tract of Land whereon I now live together with the Land I purchased of John N. Whitfield, and perhaps said deed of conveyance from said Whitfield was also signed by Jacob Barnes as Trustee and again I further give to said William Drake all that part of the land which I purchased of Henry Barrett over Neatham Whitfield lying on the West side of the Fish Road to him the said William Drake and his heirs forever I further give to said William Drake one brassy still and one third of my personal Estate to him and his heirs forever.

Also I give to Elizabeth Phelps daughter of said Dorothy the tract of Land which I purchased of Jonathan T. Griffin Trustee, which was formerly owned by the above named John N. Whitfield, further I give to said Elizabeth Phelps one third part of my personal estate to her said Elizabeth and her heirs forever.

Also I give to James Drake son of said Dorothy the remaining part of my real and personal Estate to him said James Drake and his heirs forever.

Notwithstanding in case either of the above named Elizabeth Phelps, James Drake or William Drake shall die leaving no lawful issue of their bodies, my will is that the survivors or survivors survive to me, enjoy such deceased ones legacy together as aforesaid, and in case all three of the above named Elizabeth Phelps, James Drake and William Drake, should die neither of which leave issue lawfully begotten of their bodies in that case my will is that the whole of my Estate both real and personal devolves to my nearest blood kindred or in other words, devolves to my blood kindred in the same manner as this I have here said intestate.

Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my Brother Jacob Barnes the Executor of this my last Will, hereby making void all former Wills by me made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 9th day of August in the year 1836.

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for the last Will and Testament of the above named Thomas Barnes and at whose request we the under signed have subscribed our names as Witnesses to this same.

James D. Bryant.
Susan ^{his} Glover.

At a Court held for the County of Southampton the 19th day of December 1836.

This last Will and Testament of Thomas Barnes dec. was proved by the oath of James D. Bryant and Susan Glover, the Witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of Jacob Barnes, the only Executor therein named, who made oath and together with Brother Bryant Robert J. Barnes and James D. Bryant his securities, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of six thousand dollars, conditioned as the law directs, testificatory in grandeur him for so performing as probat of the said Will in due form.
