

in writing that the survivors or survivor shall have the deceased's respective part which they would if been entitled to had they been living at the time of the distribution of my estate, it is further my will in the event of all my children dying before arriving to lawful age or marrying, I give to my Wife Another of Dorey the sole of my estate real and personal except four acres of land off of the homestead lying on the banks, at my wife's death I give the four acres of — to my Brother Samuel Dorey.

Item 4th It is my will and desire that the Executors of my Estate shall be all that is required of my executor. That is, I do not require of him to take any responding bond for any property or money loaned my wife but do request that he (my executor) will see my estate properly managed and the intentions of my Will carried out.

Item 5th I constitute, nominate and appoint my brother Samuel Dorey my sole and sole executor to this my last will and testament revoking all others and declaring this to be my last. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty third day of January the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty-seven signed sealed and acknowledged in the presence of Chas. Maget.

Joseph Dorey (Seal)

At a Court held for the County of Southampton the 19th day of June 1837.

This last Will and Testament of Joseph Dorey Deceased was produced in Court, and the subscribing witness thereto being out of the State of Virginia, J. Dorey and Joseph T. Bland were sworn who severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the hands writing of the said Joseph Dorey and truly believe that the body of the said writing as well as the signature thereto is in the proper hands writing of the said Joseph Dorey deceased, and the Court being satisfied, it is ordered that the said writing be received as and for the last will and testament of the said Joseph Dorey deceased. And on the motion of Samuel Dorey the executor therein named, who made oath and together with William B. Hordgey and Peter Edwards, his counsellors, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twelve hundred dollars conditioned as the Law directs, but if estate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said Will in due form.

Wm. L. R. Edwards, C. C.

In the name of God, amen I Newton Harris of Southampton do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following — I give, I devise that my Executors hereinafter named, shall pay all my just debts and funeral expenses out of such personal estate as I shall have at my death not hereby specifically bequeathed thereby. I devise to my son Edwin Harris, my plantation, with the appurtenances and the twenty six & four tenths thereof, which plantation is known as the "Flat Swamp" plantation.

Andly, I devise to my daughter Selley Bell Harris, all my lands on the North side of Townshend's branch, being a part of the tract whereon I now live.

Truly, I give and bequeath to my son-in-law, Robert T. Maggard, and to his wife Charlotte, the money and slaves which I have advanced to him on loan, together with the interest hereafter to arise on the money, and the interest of the same.

Fifthly, I leave to my wife, Elizabeth Harris, for her use, during her natural life all my other lands and appurtenances, including the twenty six and four tenths here and features at my mansion house, also for her use during her life one third of the negro slaves which I may acquire, exclusive of those loaned to my son-in-law Robert T. Maggard.

At the death of my Wife, I devise the same lands loaned her to my son Newton Harris.

Sixthly, I give to my said wife, in absolute property one third of my money & bonds & of the proceeds of my property.
