Note A. This item is founded on the affidavit of Edgerton - Taken the 16th July 1837 in the presence of Glen. Rochelle one of the distributees to form an account of the adms. against the intestate. And on the 18th day of April 1837 the facts were again noticed to attend the bond Office and the said affidavit was then read to Henry Rochelle and William Darden who in testimony with Mary Rochelle one of the distributees - the former admitted all the statements set forth in the said deposition, and no objections were made by either to any of the items stated in this account. The defendant's friend was present also at the last meeting, and upon the question being asked him, stated he had been the bearer of sundry orders verbal as well as written of the intestate to the adms. for money &c and that they were always complied with.

Respectfully Submitted
