The Commissioner who settled the former account found a balance due the estate of $12,012.38 and allowed interest thereon from the 31st February 1832 that being the very day on which the admr. received the same. The Commissioner is of opinion that the admr. should have been allowed a reasonable time to disburse or put out upon interest the money which came to his hands and has allowed him six months say to the 31st August 1832. Should the Court concur in opinion with the Commissioner, the balance due the estate will be of $15,123.81 with interest on $11,988.02 until paid thereof from the 31st day of December 1836. till paid.
