In Chancery

In this case the Commissioner is directed by the decree of the Court to make up an account of Samuel Blount executorial, proceeding on Deed Land Blount de: estate, in doing the Com^r is also directed by S. Blakome Esq^r Attorney for the parties, that it is unnecessary to give notice to the parties; as the Com^r had exhibited his transaction and statements before them, all of which were approved. The Com^r has made two reports to the Court therefore which the Com^r is also directed is unnecessary to bring into this, as balance due on them has been regularly applied to the Executions 1723 - has been examined and approved by the parties.
