

Southampton County Court May 21st 1839

Edwin L. Story and Joseph b. Pratt being sworn and Alfred Hicks being sworn and affirmed say that on the 11th day of March 1839 at the house of Joseph Pratt now deceased in the County of Southampton and in the last sickness of the deceased the said Joseph Pratt called upon and requested them to take notice and inform the Court of Southampton that he wished his wife to pay what debts were owing by him and his wife properly there was without having any sale and that that was his will, that the same was read and testified on the 20th of March 1839. Whereupon it is the opinion of the Court that the said statement be recorded and established as the manuscript will of the said Joseph Pratt deceased.
