

provid: - Item 2^d) My further wish and desire is that lot of land No one whereon my dwelling house stands which lot of land I have designated my self by line to be divided in three equal parts One third I give to my son Samuel Riddle to him and his heirs forever One third I lend to my daughter Martha Rignoud during her life and at her death I give the same to her living children to them and their heirs forever - And the remaining third I lend in the manner I lend to Lucy Blow and at her death I give to her living children to them and their heirs forever - Item 3^d) My further wish and desire is that lot of land No 2 whereon a small house stands to be equally divided in three parts designated by myself as before by line one third I lend to my son Benjamin Riddle during his life and at his death I give it to his living children to them and their heirs forever. One third of same lot No 2 I give to my Grandson William Riddle to him and his heirs forever the remaining third I give to my Grandson Robert Riddle to him and his heirs forever. (Item 4th) My wish and desire is that the land whereon my son John Riddle now lives to be divided into two parts which is designated by line making the house part I lend to my son John Riddle during his life and at his death I give the same to his living children to them and their heirs forever the other part called the Springfield I give to my two grandchildren Benjamin Whitefield and Mary Whitefield to them and their heirs forever. Lastly I constitute and appoint my two friends Augustus Pope and John C. Turner my whole and sole Executors to this my last will and Testament making void all former wills heretofore made by me. For Testimony whereof I have written at my hand and affixed my seal this 1st day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty eight.

Signed sealed and acknowledged }

In presence of Anderson Pope
Cordy Pope
Nathl Holt

Holladay ^{his} Riddle and Pratt small

At a Court held for the County of Southampton the 17th day of May 1841
This last will and Testament of Holladay Riddle dec^d was proved by the oath of Anderson Pope and Cordy Pope two of the subscribing witnesses thereof and ordered to be recorded John C. Turner one of the executors therein named refusing to take upon himself any part of the burden of the execution thereof and the motion of Augustus Pope the other executor therein named who made oath and together with John C. Turner and James Merrill his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of seven hundred dollars Conditioned according to Law Certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form -

Test L. McEwen of Co
3

In the name of God amen, I John Holladay of Southampton County and Parish of State of Virginia being weak in body but of sound mind and memory do make this to be my last will and Testament in manner and form as follows. Item 1st I give to my nephew Harp Holladay fifty dollars to him and his heirs forever. (2^d) I give to Elly Hargrave fifty dollars to her and her heirs forever. (3^d) I give to Lucy Ann Hargrave