The adm^r states that the money of the intestate has been in his house in silver, ready to be paid on application, and that he made a tender of amount to the family Court of Southampton at the time the Com^{rs} of the Court reported his account current which the Court refused to receive; that he had repeatedly written to the intestate, the amount due him, and that it was ready whenever he would call for it personally or by agent or attorney, and as no demand has ever been made on him legally for the same, it has been retained by him to this time; and he now exhibits the amount before the Com^{rs} in real coin. The Court therefore under the circumstances, does not charge the administrator with interest on the intestates proportion of the Estate of his father Judah Jarvis dec^d as above stated.
