Sent S. R. Edwards Esq.

In the Name of God amen I Give and bequeath to my sister Mason Jane my and to her heirs forever the tract of land and all thereto pertaining given me by my Grand Father William Wiles deceased If she should die without a lawful heir I give the said tract of land to my brother Newson Sayner and to his heirs forever It is my will and desire that my stock of hogs and crop of the present year should go to satisfy a debt which I owe to Mr. William M. Jones of Nansemond County Va.
 It is also my will and desire that this plantation should be rented out one year or more to satisfy all my other lawful debts after all my just debts are paid it is my will and desire that this plantation should be rented out five years in succession in any way thought proper by my Executor for the benefit of my brother Newson Sayner education If he should die during these five years I will and bequeath the income of this plantation to my mother Jane Sayner if living if not I Give and bequeath them to my wife Mary Jane Beale for the five years specified or the remaining joint of them if Newson should have died before my just debts are paid I make this provision by written and signed by my Executor this day of March 1845 this provision by Mother Jane Sayner is to draw from the plantation two barrels of sound long corn every year as long as she lives I Give and bequeath all my other property to Newson Sayner I appoint my Brother Eggleay Sayner my Executor I acknowledge this to be my last will and testament
