

The testator by his will directed his Executor to sell all his negroes and divide the amount of sale after defraying the expenses of the sale equally between his four children there being which he had by his first wife. The Commissioner has not included the sale of the negroes in the foregoing account but has saved an account (which follows) between the executor and the legatee entitled to those sales Benjamin Griffin Executor of Robert Adams test.

Nary Adams & Sarah Adams by their Robert Adams

		Dr.	Cr.
1145	Aug 3 To amount sale of Slaves under Robert Adams Will	918 00
	By commissions thereon		45 90
	" Commissions for retained		1 00
	" Clerk do "		1 00
		47 90
Dec 31	Balance due	872 00

To be equally divided between the legatees above named.

All of which is Respectfully submitted

S R Edwards, sp. Com

Recd. Aug 3^d 1846 of Robert B Griffin Exor of Wm^g Griffin who was Exr. of Robert Adams test the sum of twenty six dollars 24/100 in full for the legacy due James Lucy & Washington Adams from their Father test according to the (annu's) Report for the reception of which I do forever acquit the said Robt. B Griffin the aforesaid test.

William Bondson Esq

Recd. Aug 3^d 1846 of Robert B Griffin Exr. of Wm^g Griffin who was Exr. of Robert Adams test the sum of twenty four dollars 47/100 in full for my legacy due me from my test. Father test according to the Commr's Report for the reception of which I do forever acquit the said Robert B Griffin the aforesaid test.

Teste

B B Griffin

Cynthia Adams

Recd. Aug 3^d 1846 of Robert B Griffin Exor of Wm^g Griffin who was Exr. of Robt Adams test the sum of eight hundred and fifty seven and sixty seven cts in full of the legacy due me for myself as Adams and duly sworn etc in full of the legacy due me for myself as Adams and Guardian for the heirs of Robt Adams test. It four fifths of the amt. arising from sale of my negs. with interest thereon according to Commissioner's Report also the special legacy withed to Sarah Adams out of the chattle estate for the reception of which I do forever acquit the said Robt B Griffin the aforesaid Exor.

John C Adams

Recd. Aug 3^d 1846 of Robert B Griffin Exr of Wm^g Griffin who was Exr. of Robt Adams test the sum of Two hundred dollars and thirty two cts in full for my legacy due me according to the