In the name of God, Amen! I, John M. Neal of sound mind, do declare this to be my last will & Testament: After paying my just debts I give to my wife Solly Neal, all of my property both real & personal during her life & all that I have in possession that come by her to dispose of as she may think proper & the balance of my property both real & personal that did not come by my wife Solly Neal I give to C. B. Magget & his heirs forever. Given under my hand & seal this 4th day of April 1857.
Jno. M. Neal. (Seal)

At a Court held for the County of Southampton on the 16th day of June 1857.
This Writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John M. Neal dec<sup>d</sup> was this day produced to the Court and exhibiting no subscribing witnesses, Eliza J. J. Wm. S. Clarke, and Harrison S. Cole were sworn, and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Testator, and truly believe the said writing, and the same, there subscribed to be wholly written by the testator own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said Jno. M. Neal dec<sup>d</sup>. On the motion of C. B. Magget who made oath and gave bond and security, according to Law, Certificate is granted him for said will arranged in due form.
