Teste, S. B. Edwards, C. C.

In the name of God, amen! I, John McGlance of the County of Southampton and State of Virginia, do hereby make and devise this my last will & testament in manner and form following, to wit:

Item 1st. I give to my children & am I, James P. & Caroline W. McGlance, one quarter be and inheritance each.

Item 2nd. I lend to my wife Mary McGlance my plantation whereon I now live and one third part of a tract, and on it for and during the term of her natural life, and after her decease, I give the same to my children & grant children hereinafter mentioned to be enjoyed by them and their heirs forever.

Item 3rd. The balance of my property with the Newcom tract plans to be sold, to pay my debts and the surplus to be divided among my children and grand children, namely: Littleton, & am I, James P., Sarah S. Mary & Caroline W. McGlance, to have one eight part, and son Williams daughter to have one half of one eight part, and son Sacks children, to have one eight part divided equally between them.

And lastly, I do hereby appoint my two sons Littleton & James W. McGlance my executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 1st day of May 1851.

Teste, John McGlance

M. C. Cole.

Fortunatus Dunn

Thos. C. Wren.

It is above said for the County of Southampton the 20th day of October 1851. This last will and testament of John McGlance dec^d was this day produced to the Court, sworn by the oaths of M. C. Cole, Fortunatus Dunn and Thomas C. Wren, the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of Littleton McGlance, the executor therein named who made oath and gave bond and security according to law, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.

Teste, S. B. Edwards, C. C.

In the name of God, amen! I, Samuel Turner of the County of Southampton being weak in body, but in full possession of my faculties, do now think proper to make this paper writing ad and for my last will and testament in manner and form following, to wit:

Item 1st. My will and desire is that all my just debts be paid by my Executors hereafter named.
