The Commissioner states specifically that the within named executor, James C. Brown, for the sum of $494.88 has taken his bond with Shantley & Wapplingburg as security who at that time was thought to be solvent, but the executor states that since then the parties have failed and are unable to pay the bond, and as he thinks the same has been lost through no neglect on his part, he has returned to account of it. He has requested the Commissioner to make the above statement.

All of which is respectfully submitted by

Wm. B. Bonds, Commissioner.
