

make out of all my land except the Santa tract which is loaned to my wife also all my other property which my wife don't take at appraisement, and slaves, and the money to be kept at interest until my youngest child may be considered raised and schooled, then to be equally divided amongst all my children or their descendants except my son John who is object for not distributing this fund is that my young children if necessary to have the amount of the interest to aid in raising and schooling them. It is further my will and desire that my son William Prince at the general division of my estate shall account to my executor for five hundred Dollars without interest for money I have already advanced to him.

Item 3^d. It is my will and desire at the age of twenty one or marriage of any one of my children (except my son John Prince, which it is my will and desire that he or his descendants shall never have any part of my estate under my circumstances) as before named at the age of twenty one or marriage of any of my children I wish an equal division of my slaves counting in my wife to draw a child's portion and allot to each child of age or married their portion and return the balance to my estate in all divisions thus made I wish my wife to be placed so as to draw a child's portion provided that she is still living and my widow so that when the last division is made she shall will be in possession of a child's part, to hold the same during her life or widowhood. At the death or marriage of my wife I wish my tract of land loaned her sole and the amount of my property loaned her inclusive and the money equally divided between all of my children or their descendants except my son John.

Item 4th. In the event of any of my children dying before arriving to legal age or marrying, it is my will and desire that the survivors or their descendants shall have the same parts (except my son John such descendants taking) the share or shares to which their dear parents would if living be entitled to them and to their heirs forever.

Item 5th And lastly, I constitute, nominate and appoint my son William Prince my whole and sole executor to this my last will and testament making all others and declaring this to be my last. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 24 day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty two.
