The Comr. specially states that the exr. has accounted for the sale of the Land tract of land, the title to which is not positively settled. Should the title of his testator be considered not good by the Court of Appeals the Exr. will be entitled to have the amount refunded by the heirs, for three of whom he is the Guardian. Three fourths of the above balance will be credited his wards, James H., William S. (and) Martha E. Drury in their respective guardian accounts. The remaining fourth being due James S. Mallory (and his wife Mary) Jane formerly Drury. The portion of each one on the 31st Decr. 1852. being $545.26
