Teste,

L. R. Edwards, C. C.

I, William H. Common of the County of Sampson, V., do make and ordain this my last will and testament trusting all others to see made. I give unto my beloved wife Eliza (and my daughter Martha Elizabeth) (the following) (property) which is all I possess in this world, I give it to them for their mutual benefit, One house and lot at Common's Well in Superior County, Virginia. Known by the name of the meeting house lot, the lot is seventy yards square. Also my Horse, gun and hardware, also my watch. Also all my little medical pamphlets (and all the money that may be due me to them) and their heirs forever. I appoint my beloved wife as my Executorship I wish her to have no public sale, but forth the advice of friends to manage as she may think proper. I do most respectfully request the County Council of Sampson to permit her to administer with requiring security. Signed with my own hand and seal this twentieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and 53.
