 perishable estate and out of the moneys arising therefrom pay all my debts and funeral expenses 2nd I leave to my wife Susan Knight the whole of my estate of every kind, both real and perishable after the payment of my debts, during her natural life for the support of herself and my children so long as they may remain with her.
 3rd At the death of my wife Susan Knight, I give to my daughter Susanna Knight the House in which I live with all the land around and adjoining of land attached thereto, to be laid or cut off by two or three neighbors so as to have it all in one lot and to injure the balance of the tract as little as possible which I give to her and her heirs forever.
 4th At the death of my wife Susan Knight, I wish and my will is that all my divided estate not heretofore given away may be sold at public auction and the moneys arising therefrom I give to my children Lewis D. Knight, Maria D. Knight, Knight, Susanna Knight, Mary Knight, Emily Ann Knight and George Knight to be equally divided between all to them and their heirs forever.
