I Etheldred McCarron of the County of Southampton and State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say

I give and devise to my beloved wife Lydia (The following slaves viz: Moses, David, Asaph, and Sally), also are third of my lands including my Mansion house all out houses and other improvements to have and to hold during the term of her natural life or widowhood in satisfaction for and in lieu of her Dower and Thirds off and in all my real Estate, I also leave my said wife as Gole of Oxen during her natural life or widowhood.

2^d At the death or Marriage of my said wife my will and desire is that the abovesaid slaves and their increase be equally divided between my two sons viz: William E. McCarron and Joseph E. McCarron and the abovesaid Third of my Dower &c. I give and bequeath unto my son Joseph E. McCarron by his paying to my son William E. McCarron the sum of Seven hundred and fifty Dollars ($750) of my said wife's for ever.

3^d I give and bequeath unto my son Joseph E. McCarron all of the balance of my lands to him and his heirs forever.

4th I give and bequeath unto my grand daughter Mary E. Rykhus in her sole and lawful name &c.

5. Should my said grand daughter Mary E. Rykhus die without a lawful heir my will and desire is that the said negro girl Fanny and her increase be divided between my abovesaid two sons, William E. McCarron and Joseph E. McCarron. My will and desire is that the balance of my slaves not abovesaid be equally divided between my abovesaid two sons William E. McCarron and Joseph E. McCarron and my said grand daughter Mary E. Rykhus to them and their heirs forever: Provided however that if my abovesaid grand daughter Mary E. Rykhus should die without a lawful heir or heirs of this body that in that event my will and desire is that the portion allotted to her in the division and their increase be equally divided between my two sons above named viz: William E. McCarron and Joseph E. McCarron.

And lastly. I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved sons William E. McCarron and Joseph E. McCarron my lawful Executors to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and so forth & clause thereof - hereby revoking & declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I, the said Etheldred McCarron do hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th day of September, A.D. 1835.
