J. H. Edwards, C.C.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Polly Drake being of sound mind and memory but feeble and afflicted in body and knowing the uncertainty of human life, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.

1st. I wish to be buried as soon after my decease as may be suitable with no more expense than is necessary for my decent and suitable burial.

2^d. I will and bequeath to my son Elias Drake, the sum of Two Dollars and fifty cents in cash.

3^d. I will and bequeath to my son Eli Drake, all the remainder of the cash I have in hand and all due me as a pensioned widow of a revolution army soldier upon any other source whatever, and all property of every description of which I may be possessed. This I do for and in consideration of the dutiful care and affection that my son Eli has ever exercised towards me and particularly during the latter part of my afflicted and helpless life.

Lastly. I appoint my son Eli Drake my sole Executor to this my last will and testament (and wish that no security may be required of him by the Court for the execution of the same).

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 5th day of May in the year 1856.
